The Wonderful Chinook.

A correspondent at Calgary writes as follows: "On Wednesday night, Jan. 20, this part of Canada witnessed one of those peculiar phenomena called a chimook. The day was an ordinary winter day—clear, bright and frosty. About 8 p. m., without a sign of warning, a gale sprang up-in an instant. Those inside rushed out to see a blizzard, but instead they were met by a clear sky and a hot, seft wind. In a few minutes the thernometer jumped from a few degrees above zero to 48 above. The wind was from a point or two north of west. change so sudden, though nausual, has occurred before. But what seems strange is that during all of this time the ther-mometer was 40 degs, below zero at Laggan, a little over 100 miles west of ere, and in the mountains. A difference of 80 degs. of heat in 100 miles must be something wonderful. Yet the wind, which was blowing a gale, and at directly from Laggan. The wind and the heat was maintained during the greater part of the night, and the cold was intense at the other point for all that time. Now, the question I would like to ask the learned men of the east is. Where does the chinook wind come from?"-Toronto Mail.

A delicate youth in Walling, a Colorado settlement, where he had gone to recuperate his health, succeeded in lifting the roof of a friend's house without much effort. He was smoking a cigarette near a keg of gunpowder. A spark lighted on some loose grains, and in an instant the cigarette, the young man and the roof were flying skyward.—Yankee Blade.

Sick-headaches are the outward indications erangements of the stomach and bowels. As Jor's Vegetable Sarsaparilla is the only bowel regulating preparation of Sarsaparilla, it is seen why it is the only appropriate Sarsaparilla in sick leadaches. It is not only appropriate; it is an absolute cure. After a course of it an occasonal dose at intervals will forever after prevent returu.

Jno. M. Cox, of 735 Turk Street, San Francisco, writes: "I have been troubled with attacks of sick-handache for the last three years from one to three times a week. Some time ago I bought two bottles of Joy's Vegetable Sarsaparilla and have only had one attack since and that was on the tea largely increases every year in England, Russia, and tes-drinking countries. But it does not grow America. And not alone that, but thousands of Europeans who leave Europe ardent lovers of tea, upon arriving in the United States gradually discontinue its use, and finally cease it This state of things is due to the fact that the Americans think so much of business and so little of their palates that they permit China and Japan to ship them their cheapest and most worthless teas. Between the wealthy classes of China and Japan and the wealthy classes of China and Japan and the exacting and cultivated tea-drinkers of Europe, the finer teas find a ready market. The balance of the crop comes to America. Is there any wonder, then, that our taste for tea does not appreciate?

In view of these facts, is there not an immediate demand for the importation of a brand of tea that is guaranteed to be uncolored, unmenipulated, and of absolute purity? We think there is, and present Becch's Tea. He purity is guaranteed in purity? We think there is, and present Beech's Tea. Its purity is guaranteed in avery respect. It has, therefore, more inherent strength than the cheap tens you have been drinking, fully one third less being required for an infusion. This you will discover the first time you make it. Likewise, the flavor is delightful, being the natural flavor of an unadulterated article. It is a revelation to tea-drinkers. Sold only in packages bearing this mark:
