Mr. W. M. Terry, who has been in the drug business at Elkton, Ky., for the past twelve years, says: "Chumber-lain's Cough Remedy gives better satisfaction than any other cough medicine I have ever sold." There is good reason for this. No other will cure a cold so quickly; no other is so certain a preventive and cure for croup; no other affords so much relief in cases of whooping cough. For sale by Blakeley & Houghton, druggists.

A fall of snow in New Orleans is an shing event. Men would scarcely be more excited if Clay statue were to evolve into the crater of an eruptive volcano. That snow is a most wonder ful intoxicant cannot be a matter of doubt to any impartial or unprejudiced observer of the antics of Orleanians the other day. Foremost in the ranks of the snow drunk was the powerful small boy-the Bobby of the mansion, the Mickey of Bank alley. Bobby scraped from rose bush, lawn and doorstep sufficient snow to make his first snowball, and pelted therewith nurse, coachman and cook. Mickey scrambled with his ragged fellows for the meager fall of snow upon curbstone and pavement, and as he waited with red shining nose for the evening papers, he sent up many a merry shout and shied many a whiz-

As the fluffy shower began to freckle the gloomy atmosphere about noon pe-destrians stepped in their mad rush along the thoroughfares to stand shivering beneath protecting sheds and gaze curiously at the snow as a thing rarely seen. Clerks and shopgirls thronge to windows and showcases and flatten their noses against the panes to see the flecks. Upon St. Charles avenue and Prytania street one might have thought from the number of ladies in shawls and ulsters upon galleries and at windows that some great procession was passing. There was quite as much enthusia nervousness and color.

Not a few of the schools and academies gave their pupils a half holiday, with instructions to see the snow and take advantage of the opportunity to study the phenomena pertaining thereto. There was not enough snow to cause any fun about the exchange. Elever years ago, when the snow fell last, the Cotton exchange men were like so many schoolboys. They rubbed each other's faces with snow, they had snowball bat-tles, and the stately and bewhiskered cotton king thought nething of being shot through the ear with a globe of snowflakes.—New Orleans Times-Demr

Mrs. Belden an estimable and elderly lady of 510 Mason St., S. P. was for months declining so rapidly as to seriously alarm her family. It got so bad that she was finally afflicted with fainting spells. She writes: "While in that dangerous condition I saw some of the testimonials con-cerning J.V. S. and sent for a bottle. That marked ning point. I regained my lost fiesh and strength and have not felt so well in years." That was two years ago and Mrs. Belden is well and hearty to-day, and still taking J. V. S.

corner stones she stands.

Wasco County, The Gate City of the Inland Empire is situated at the head of navigation on the Middle Columbia, and is a thriving, prosperous city. ITS TERRITORY. It is the supply city for an extensive and rich agricultural and grazing country, its trade reaching as far south as Summer Lake, a distance of over two hundred miles.

The Largest Wool Market. The rich grazing country along the eastern slope of the Cascades furnishes pasture for thousands of sheep, the wool from which finds market here. The Dalles is the largest original wool shipping point in America, about 5,000,000 pounds being shipped last year.

ITS PRODUCTS.

The salmon fisheries are the finest on the Columbia, yielding this year a revenue of thousands of dollars, which will be more than doubled in the near future. The products of the beautiful Klickitat valley find market here, and the country south and east has this year filled the warehouses, and all available storage places to overflowing with their products. ITS WEALTH. It is the richest city of its size on the coast and its money is scattered over and is being used to develop more farming country than is tributary to any other city in Eastern Oregon.

Its situation is unsurpassed. Its climate delightful. Its possibilities incalculable. Its resources unlimited. And on these

The Daily Chronicle is published every evening in the week (Sundays excepted) at $6:00 per annum. The WEEKLY CHRONICLE on Fridays of each week at $1.50 per annum.
