turned from Klickitat, says a larger acreage than usual, and a splendid full crop, insures continued prosperity to our neighbors across the Columbia.
They look to The Dalles for an outlet for their abundant surplus.
Judging from the appearance of a map of Thompson addition, as brought to this office by Thornbury & Hudson for checking off lots sold; if anybody is thinking of an investment in that handsome tract they will needs bestir themselves. Lots have been selling like hot cakes at a confectionary on celebration day.

daughters, left today for their gold mines will be twenty-four men employed until Christmas.

A war relic, in the shape of a copy of the Chicago morning Post, dated Oct.
19th, 1862, has found its way to the office of Dr. O. C. Hollister.
It gives the stirring war news of those days, which is better historical reading than one finds in books about the lost cause, or the preservation of the union, and is a valuable document on account of the period of its issue.
Helen Ruth, the little seven year old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Geo. H.
Thomson, formerly of this city, was the springs in California. Mrs. Thomp-tion.

A MIRACULOUS ESCAPE.
Mr. Lowens' Mountain Slide And Dip
Into Hood River.
Mr. A. Lowen, who is here from the east purchasing wool, yesterday made a fishing trip to the country in company with Mr. Russell. They left the Regulator at Hood River where they procured a team and buggy, and drove up the river, several miles to Mr. Winans place. Here they left their buggy, and journeyed on foot, in quest of a quiet retreat in which to inveigle the speckled beauties known to school in and about the shaded nooks of that classic stream.
In making this jaunt they ascended a steep loosely covered gravel mountain, and while passing along, about 200 feet from the edge of the water, Mr. Lowen lost his footing, and slid and rolled with fearful velocity to the rim of a projecting perpendicular wall, over which he vaulted into the river. He gained his feet in water up to his arm pits, and walked to a rock midstream where he scrambled out, and began to realize that he was badly injured. His clothing was torn to shreds, and his body, legs and arms were badly cut and bruised. His escape from death was miraculous. As soon as Mr. Russell found him he assisted him back to the road, where a party of ladies and gentlemen were met on horseback, and a messenger was dispatched to Mr. Winans for the buggy. The accident occurred about 10 a. m., and it was nearly 4 p. m., before they started from Mr. Winans to return to The Dalles. At Mr. W.'s everything was done for Mr. Lowen that could be devised, and at Hood River he went to bed until the rain came along, reaching the Umatilla house at 11:55. Here he took his room, and Dr. Logan was called in to dress his wounds. It was a glad surprise to find that no bones were broken, and he will speedily recover from his cuts and bruises. He left a diamond ring and a valuable watch charm somewhere along the line of flight, but has no intention whatever of returning for them.
Mill creek is literally swarming with trout. They are not large as those coming from Trout lake and Fifteen Mile, but they belong to the superb family of finny luxuries.
Messrs. Thornbury, Haight and Cates returned by steamer Regulator last evening from an outing to Trout lake.
They report the place literally filled—with people. They are there from Portland and all over the country.
Fishing is not so good where there is a crowd.
Current Topics.
Another cable car accident occurred yesterday in Portland. The car ran from the top of the heights to the bottom, loaded; yet nobody was killed. Several people were badly hurt.
An entire block in Portland was leveled by fire last night, bounded by Washington, Stark, 6th and 7th streets.
The situation, candidly expressed, at Homestead, indicates a reign of terror.
Political opponents of republican candidates are endeavoring to make capital out of it. The entire division of the National Guard of Pennsylvania, about 10,000 strong, has been ordered to support Sheriff McCleary in suppressing the riots at once.
LOST.
Between the postoffice and the Wasco academy grounds, or on the grounds, two small gold pins attached by a chain with initialed bangle. Finder rewarded at this office.

ABOUT THE CROPS.
So Far as the Wasco Regions are Concerned Reports Have Been Exaggerated.
It might as well be considered advisable to withhold further discouraging reports concerning crops in this portion of Oregon until after harvest. From several well-known authorities it is learned that the reports of early June will not be verified. Men such as Messrs. Hembree, of Kent, Commissioners Darneille and Kincaid, of this county, who have just returned from a trip, and several others who are practical, give it as their opinion that much wheat which was considered worthless a month ago will turn out at least a half a crop or more. One case is cited showing where a farmer was preparing to cut his wheat for hay. He got the mower and was about to commence, when his neighbors advised him to wait.
He did so and will now be rewarded by a fair crop of wheat from those same fields. Similar instances are referred to, proving that the first damaging reports will not be established by the harvest.
Mr. M. Kennedy, of Wamie gave us a brief call this forenoon. Mr. K. confirms recent statements concerning wheat. His fall sown wheat will be good, and spring wheat is fair, and this is the case generally with his neighbors.
As to prices, nothing is yet developed upon which to base an intelligent estimate, though farmers may consider themselves fortunate if the prices of last year are duplicated. Then, as is generally the case, the early prices were the best, and farmers who waited for a raise were forced to sell at a loss or hold their crops. They were given what would amount to volumes of advice, chiefly by men who were interested or who knew nothing about it, and so were no better off or no worse off than if they had relied on their own intelligent judgment. While the year may not be in all respects as prosperous for Oregon farmers as last year, there is as yet no reason to believe that it will not be reasonably so.
At Cost.
For the next thirty days we will sell wall paper at cost. 10, 15, and 20 cents

Mr. W. M. Terry, who has been in the drug business at Elkton, Ky., for the past twelve years, says: "Chamberlain's Cough Remedy gives better satisfaction than any other cough medicine I have ever sold." There is good reason for this. No other will cure a cold so quickly; no other is so certain a preventive and cure for croup; no other affords so much relief in cases of whooping cough. For sale by Blakeley & Houghton, druggists.
