Suspended 175 Feet High by His Mitten.

Nils Johnson, a workman at a Monson slate quarry, had a close call a few days ago. His business is to swing the boom of one of the derricks. In swinging out over the pit, with a chain attached, the hook of the chain caught in the wrist of his buckskin mitten, dragging him over the pit, where he hung by his mitten over a depth of 175 feet. He did not dare to try to grasp anything with his other hand for fear the bent iron should slip from the chain or the mitten give way, so he hung motionless till his fellow workmen came to his rescue and slowly and steadily swung the boom to a place of safety. - Eastern State.

His Fortune to Unborn Heirs.

The will of Michael Reilly, the Wheeling millionaire, is the most remarkable document of the kind ever made in the state of West Virginia, if not in the country. By its terms his last surviving grandchild must die before the estate can be touched, and then it must be divided among his grandchildren's descendants only. As the youngest of the grandchildren is but six months old, and the family is known for its longevity, the prospects for a division of the property within the next seventy-five years are remote. - Cor. Washington Post.

Both Changed Their Minds.

Two men recently spent an evening together. One had put in an application for a divorce from his wife, and the other expected to be married soon. Neither one would possibly admit that the other's talk had any influence on him, but the next day the man who expected to be married broke his engagement, and the one who had put in an application for a divorce withdrew it and made up with his wife. - Atchison Globe.

Money Talked Through His Hat.

Edward Burk was arrested at Mount Carmel on a charge of robbery and house breaking. While being searched his hat fell to the floor. The justice picked it up, and finding it somewhat heavy, examined it closely. In the lining was found $300. - Cor. Philadelphia Record.

Women.

The common afflictions of women are sick-head-aches, indigestion and nervous troubles. They arise largely from stomach disorders. As Joy's Vegetable Sarsaparilla is the only bowel regulating preparation, you can see why it is more effective than any other Sarsaparilla in those troubles. It is daily relieving hundreds. The action is mild, direct and effective. We have scores of letters from grateful women.

We refer to a few:

THE DALLES,

Wasco County, Oregon.

The Gate City of the Inland Empire is situated at the head of navigation on the Middle Columbia, and is a thriving, prosperous city.

ITS TERRITORY.

It is the supply city for an extensive and rich agricultural and grazing country, its trade reaching as far south as Summer Lake, a distance of over two hundred miles.

The Largest Wool Market.

The rich grazing country along the eastern slope of the Cascades furnishes pasture for thousands of sheep, the wool from which finds market here.

The Dalles is the largest original wool shipping point in America, about 5,000,000 pounds being shipped last year.

ITS PRODUCTS.

The salmon fisheries are the finest on the Columbia, yielding this year a revenue of thousands of dollars, which will be more than doubled in the near future.

The products of the beautiful Klickitat valley find market here, and the country south and east has this year filled the warehouses, and all available storage places to overflowing with their products.

ITS WEALTH.

It is the richest city of its size on the coast and its money is scattered over and is being used to develop more farming country than is tributary to any other city in Eastern Oregon.

Its situation is unsurpassed. Its climate delightful. Its possibilities incalculable. Its resources unlimited. And on these corner stones she stands.

THE DALLES CHRONICLE.

Daily and Weekly Editions.

THE CHRONICLE was established for the express purpose of faithfully representing The Dalles and the surrounding country, and the satisfying effect of its mission is everywhere apparent. It now leads all other publications in Wasco, Sherman, Gilliam, a large part of Crook, Morrow and Grant counties, as well as Klickitat and other regions north of The Dalles, hence it is the best medium for advertisers in the Inland Empire.

The DAILY CHRONICLE is published every evening in the week (Sundays excepted) at $6.00 per annum. The WEEKLY CHRONICLE on Fridays of each week at $1.50 per annum.
