The Books of 1891.

The last number of The Publishers Circular gives the usual analytic table of books published in England during 1891. The grand total is 5,706, made up of 4,429 new books and 1,277 new editions. These figures show a slight decrease on those of the previous year, a larger decrease on those of 1889, and a very considerable decrease when compared with the grand total of 1888, which was 6,591. There has been no material variation of recent years in the propor tion of the several classes, except that novels are still growing steadily. Since 1880 the total number of novels (new and old) published in a year has increased from 580 to 1,216, or more than twofold, and miscellaneous (including pamphlets) has increased from 353 to 731, again more than twofold. On the other hand, arts, sciences and illustrated works have decreased from 479 to only 116, or less than one-fourth; and theology has decreased from 975 to 627. The annual output of poetry seems to remain constant at between 100 and 170 volumes; while the new editions of old poetry, which come into competition with contemporary verse, also remain pretty constant between 40 and 70 vol-umes.—London Academy.

The Postage Stamp Nearly 52 Years Old. The Postage Stamp Nearly 52 Years Old.

The postage stamp will be fifty-two years old in May. Its inventor was a printer, James Chalmers, of Dundee, Scotland, who died in 1853. England, fifty-two years ago, introduced the new system of prepaying letter postage, and according to a decree of Dec. 21, 1839, issued the first stamps, which were to be put before the public on May 6 of the following year. following year. A year later they were introduced in the United States and Switzerland, and within three years had become common in Bavaria, Belgium and France.-Charleston News and Courier.

F., and many others who have found relief from constipation and sick headaches. G.W. Vincent, of 6 Terrence Court, S. F. writes: "I am 60 years of age and have been troubled with constipation for 25 years. I was recently induced to try Joy's Vegetable Sarsaparills. I recognized in it at once an herb that the Mexicans used to give us in the early 50's for bowel troubles. (I came to California in 1839,) and I knew it would help me and it has. For the first time in years I can sle well and my system is regular and in splendid condition. The old Mexican herbs in this remedy are a certain cure in constipation and boy troubles." Ask for

Oregon. The Gate City of the Inland Empire is situated at the head of navigation on the Middle Columbia, and is a thriving, pros-ITS TERRITORY

It is the supply city for an extensive and rich agricultural and grazing country, its trade reaching as far south as Summer Lake, a distance of over two hundred miles.

The Largest Wool Market. The rich grazing country along the eastern slope of the Cascades furnishes pasture for thousands of sheep, the wool from which finds market here. The Dalles is the largest original wool shipping point in America, about 5,000,000 pounds being shipped last year.

ITS PRODUCTS. The salmon fisheries are the finest on the Columbia, yielding this year a revenue of thousands of dollars, which will be more than doubled in the near future. The products of the beautiful Klickitat valley find market here, and the country south and east has this year filled the warehouses, and all available storage places to overflowing with

ITS WEALTH.

Daily and Weekly Editions.

THE CHRONICLE was established for the express purpose of faithfully representing The Dalles and the surrounding country, and the satisfying effect of its mission is everywhere apparent. It now leads all other publications in Wasco, Sherman, Gilliam, a large part of Crook, Morrow and Grant counties, as well as Klickitat and other regions north of The Dalles, hence it is the best medium for advertisers in the Inland Empire.

The DAILY CHRONICLE is published every evening in the week (Sundays excepted) at $6.00 per annum. The WEEKLY CHRONICLE on Fridays of each week at $1.50 per annum.
