THE DICTUM OF POTAGE SEEKERS.

Judging from the tone of a Kansas dispatch yesterday an alluring rainbow in that state has about vanished. This dispatch states that over five-hundred representative democrats were assembled in convention at Harrington, for the purpose of denouncing the recent fusion with the peoples party, and to place a straight-out democratic ticket in the field.

Those mill men, who would destroy an industry such as that of the Columbia-salmon fishing, to save themselves a few dollars expense in consuming the refuse of their mills instead of letting it run away to bury up and ruin the natural spawning grounds, deserve punishment.

Cannon belched a welcome to Gov. Pattison yesterday. The rain poured down in torrents, and strikers poured out pell mell to see what was up. They thought another fight was on.

The bicycle manufacturers today are jubilant over their advertising scheme in Washington yesterday. President Harrison was roped into it, and from the White House porch watched (reviewed of course) a procession of bicyclists there to attend the meeting of the league of American wheelmen.

Just before a thunder shower at Hillsboro one night last week millions of large insects gathered about the electric lights, completely surrounding one and putting out the light. Pedestrians were struck in the face by the frantic insects, and the entire brick building on the corner was covered with them, where they came from and where they went to is a mystery.

The British elections are not over. Two members of the house of commons remain to be elected. One of these is at Tipperary today; the other at Orkney islands next week.

Henry M. Stanley is about to return to America, and will write a thrilling treatise on "Darkest England," it is said.

The Hon. David B. Hill is now enjoying a season of rest and recreation at a New Jersey seashore resort.

At the head of all blood-purifiers is Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery. But it's different from all of them. What-ever is claimed for this, it's guaranteed to do. The money is refunded in every case where it fails to benefit or cure.

"Golden Medical Discovery" contains no alcohol to inebriate, and no syrup or sugar to derange digestion. It's a concentrated vegetable extract: put up in large bottles; pleasant to the taste, and equally good for adults or children; works equally well all the year round.
