FRIDAY JULY 22, 1892

LOCAL BRIEFS.

Con. Howe is confined at his home by sickness.
Wm. Butler goes to Portland this evening on business.
The warehouses are nearly empty of wool in The Dalles.
Mr. J. W. Zumwalt, of Tygh, returned from Montana today.
Mr. L. O'Brien, of Klickitat, is registered at the Umatilla house.
Mr. Farley is expected home from his trip through the Inland Empire next week.
Mr. and Mrs. Nye, of Erineville returned from a trip to Portland last night.
Mr. John Moffett, of Chicago, is visiting The Dalles, and taking a look at the country.
Mrs. W. C. Johnson, of Oregon city, arrived at noon today on a visit to her sons Balfe and Nello.
Conductor Mitchell brought No. 1 in on time this a. m. with a fair list of passengers, mostly through.
Plums are selling at fifty cents per box today retail, and they are the finest on this whole Pacific coast.
Mays & Crowe have been awarded the contract for 800 additional feet of pipe for Dalles City water mains.
Hon. M. A. Moody and party are preparing for a four-in-hand drive to Cloud-Cap Inn, near Mount Hood.
Mr. and Mrs. Sanford, Mrs. E.
Wright, and J. L. Stump, leave tomorrow for a two weeks' outing at Trout lake.
It took Gov. Pattison some time to wake up, and we are wondering now whether it wasn't a freak of somnambulism, after all.
C. L. Phillips, district deputy of the K. of P., left at noon today for Wasco, for the purpose of installing the officers of a new lodge there.
The bright bales of wheat hay put up in this vicinity are so attractive that the very sight of a wagon load of them is "enough to make a horse laugh." Among the freight by the first trip of the Regulator will be 1,000 kegs of nails for Mays & Crowe. They have just got a sample of the lot by rail—100 kegs.
A new through-brace coach appeared on the Prineville line yesterday. It came in as clean and nice as if there was no dust on the road this side of Bake Oven.
The office instrument filed for record today was a quit claim deed to Lucretia A. Huntington, for lot 2, block 2, Noyce & Gibbons' addition, from J. M. Huntington and wife.
If there is any such thing as gratitude some of it will be shown when the farmers of Klickitat get ready to ship their wheat next month. They may well remember what The Dalles, Portland and Astoria Navigation company have done with the Regulator to release them from arbitrary freight tariffs.

Mr. E. P. Fitzgerald has returned from a weeks sojourn in the consolidated city.
V. C. Brock, the affable gentleman who presided over the destinies of the Sherman county clerks office with such marked ability the past term, is enjoying his otium cum dig among his friends now. He was in this city yesterday.
The people of Astoria are much alarmed that the government improvements now being made in the river are going to effect their water front near the mouth of the river, and have complained to the local United States board of engineers.
Sheriff Kelly of Portland, has rewarded John T. Carter, for having captured the child murderer, Wilson. The reward consisted of $300, in addition to which Constable Carter was given a handsome revolver and a pair of handcuffs by Multnomah's sheriff.
Prof. Frederic J. Liscomb, of Notre Dame University, Indiana, surprised Messrs. Nicholas and Roger Sinnott by visiting them here today. Prof. L. is filling in the time of his vacation by a trip to the Pacific coast, which would not be complete without this visit to The Dalles.
Mr. Warner, of White Salmon, cut 160 acres of wheat for hay that if left standing would have threshed forty bushels of wheat to the acre. At Fil-loon & Co's. this forenoon we examined samples of this wheat. It stood five feet high, and the heads vary from 5 1/2 to 6 3/4 inches in length, well filled.
The wind yesterday passed through The Dalles seemingly in great haste to overtake the procession of the day previous before it should strike Omaha.
If the two should get there together they would be apt to make things somewhat lively, if the distance did not reduce the velocity.
The Dalles Mercantile company, 330-334 Second street is composed of men of both leading parties, hence they never do anything by halves. Their latest importations of silks, etc., contains some elegant handkerchiefs with the portraits of Cleveland and Stevenson, handsomely bordered and inscribed, also of Harrison and Reid. You take your choice.
Prices are not in it.
The humpback whale which was stranded some days ago at North Beach, is to be stripped of the flesh and the skeleton is to be placed on exhibition in the Washington building at Chicago. J.
G. Megler, one of the worlds fair commissioners for Washington, has instructed Professor Hudson to preserve and prepare the skeleton and a force of Indians are now at work upon it.
Mr. Geo. Krauss has returned from a buggy drive to Mount Hood by way of the Barlow road. He was accompanied by Mr. Korten, of Portland, and in company with Messrs. Arnold and Mc-Cartney. They found in camp Messrs.
Villard Vanderpool, T. H. Johnson and Louis Klinger. Also a party from Portland who have this year made their third annual failure to reach the summit from the south side of the mountain.
In 1890 they visited the place in September, last year in August and this year in July. Only for a slide of ice and snow near the summit they could have made it this year. Mr. Krauss says the crops along the route traveled look fine.
His best fishing was in the Tygh. The distance from The Dalles to his camp on the south side of the mountain, is about 65 miles.

If you want to put money in a sound investment buy lots in Thompson addition.
Master Charles, son of Capt. J. W.
Lewis of this city, is enjoying himself on the Dayville ranch, Grant county.
He goes out driving daily, using a sulky rake, and by mixing business with his pleasure has racked nearly all the hay on the ranch. He went prepared to enjoy himself.
Sam Thurman has found out why it is that no salmon are caught in July on the Oregon side of the Columbia at this point. An Indian told him that many years ago, before the Boetons came here, a woman ate a salmon that came up on the Oregon side, and died. Her Indian waxed wroth at this and went down to the mouth of Three-mile and cursed the fish. This so scared them that ever since that time the fish have dodged over to the opposite side of the river every July. Sam says it would have been dollars to him to have known this sooner.
Phelps & Co. sold a hay press to Mr.
Williams, on Eight Mile yesterday, and a threshing outfit to Mr. Jackson of Hood River. One might naturally inquire: "where is the wheat, at Hood River, to thresh," but investigation proves that Hood River is one of the nicest little creations of small homes on this coast.
The people there are generally small farmers, but they all have more or less of wheat, barley, oats, etc., and as showing their good judgment in other things they usually prefer The Dalles markets, both for buying and selling, hence Mr.
Jackson came here for his outfit.

Press Association Meeting.
The question of entertaining the editorial fraternity of Oregon, at The Dalles for about three days next month, is before the people. It is the opinion of THE CHRONICLE that nothing else, just at this particular time, would result in more general good for all—The Dalles and the Inland Empire—than for the Press Association to meet here and become familiarized with subjects so greatly ignored and yet of such decided importance to the public. Outside of The Dalles it has not yet been publicly announced that the river and harbor bill has become a law. Let us get together here at The Dalles, and impress upon members of the association why this is thus.

Queer world! Queer people! Here are men and women by thousands suffering from all sorts of diseases, bearing all manners of pain, spending their all on physicians and "getting no better, but rather worse," when right at hand there's a remedy which says it can help them because it's helped thousands like them. "Another patent-medicine advertisement," you say. Yes—but not of the ordinary sort. The medicine is Dr.
Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery, and it's different from the ordinary nostrums in this: It does what it claims to do, or it costs you nothing! The way is this:
You pay your druggist $1.00 for a bottle.
You read the directions, and you follow them. You get better, or you don't.
If you do, you buy another bottle, and perhaps another. If you don't get better, you get your money back. And the queer thing is that so many people are willing to be sick when the remedy's so near at hand.

The Ice Wagon.
The ice wagon of Cates & Allison is on the streets every morning from 6 to 8 o'clock. Any orders for ice left with Will Vanbibber's express or at the store of Chas. Lauer will be promptly attended to.
