Numbers of skirt supporters are coming in the market. They are something like little chips in the form of fleur-de-lis and other devices with chains and rings for the finger.

C. L. Phillips returned from Wasco this a. m. The installation ended with a dance, and a merry good social reunion. He says he never saw better material in a small place for an active lodge of K. of P. than they have in Wasco.

W. K. Corson and Allie Henderson returned from Trout lake last night. They left the ladies of the party at White Salmon, Mrs. and Miss Cassidy and Miss Annie Henderson of Portland, and Miss Jessie Welch, of The Dalles, where they will remain until the next trip of the Regulator. They had a fine outing and caught hundreds of trout.

One of Robinson's circus men, speaking of the poor houses which greet them in Eastern Oregon and Washington says: "I can't understand it. Are the people losing interest in the entertainments? Surely it is not on account of the money market or the crops. Why, crops! I hear people howling about the shortage of their crops. Bless you, if Ohio, Indiana, and Illinois farmers could get such crops as I have seen in Eastern Washington and Oregon this year they would soon think of going into luxurious retirement. The producers here must have very extravagant ideas about the fecundity of the soil."

Union Pacific Route.
Astorian. A great deal of importance has been attached by some to the statement made a few days since that the Union Pacific contemplated the sale of some of its boats. The statement was, it is said, based on the grounds that the company has decided to get rid of its old boats. How many of them will be classed as superannuated. A statement comes from Portland that Capt. J. H. D. Gray, of this city, has been in conference with some of the powers that be in Union Pacific circles with a view of purchasing those of the steamers that the company has decided to part with, but no agreement could be arrived at, the terms offered by the Union Pacific not being quite liberal enough for the captain. It was further stated that Mr. Gray had been endeavoring to enlist capital in Portland to engage in the venture, but with what success is not stated. There is likely to be some excitement in steamboat circles on the river if he should succeed.

Coaching Parties.
Two coaches for Cloud Cap Inn leave The Dalles and Hood River this afternoon and tomorrow. The first is Hon. M. A. Moody's fine four horse coach, conveying a party of eight persons: Mrs. Newman, Miss Aunsee Newman, Miss Bessie Lang, W. K. Smith, Jr., and H. J. Green of Portland, F. A. Joslyn and M. A. Moody. They will stop at Herbert's to night and arrive at the Inn tomorrow.

The second party consists of Chief Engineer Jud S. Fish, Prof. F. J. Liscomb, of South Bend, Ind., N. J. Sinnott, and D. C. Ireland. They leave The Dalles via U. P. R. R. and will be met at Hood River by Eph Olinger, with a coach and four and expect to lunch at the Inn tomorrow. About the drives, "more anon," as the all year round correspondent would say, which somewhat depends upon the success of the present anticipation.

The Dalles and Sandy Road.
Now that navigation is so nearly resumed on the Columbia, we want to push an inquiry: "Who is responsible for the destruction of The Dalles and Sandy wagon road?" That wagon road was built with the people's money, procured from the proceeds of the sales of swamp lands. After it was built the state turned it over to the counties through which it runs. When the Union Pacific railway was built the road was in many places "turned over into the river." In other words the railway construction gangs did about as they pleased with it—mostly to ruin it; promising the authorities to make the road good again. They have never done so. The road is now very much needed, and the peoples authorities should see to it that it is restored at once. "A word to the wise is sufficient."

But Few Regrets.
Vancouver Independent. Major Thomas Humburg Handbury was sat down on pretty hard last week, when the secretary of war approved the building of two bridges across the Willamette at Portland, after his highness Thomas H. had reported adversely on the same. This man has been a serious drawback to the development of different portions of Oregon and Washington, and but few will regret to see him shorn of at least a portion of his power.

PURE FOOD IN CONGRESS.
Action Which Has Resulted in the Official Determination of the Best Baking Powder.

The act of Congress authorizing the examination of the baking powders has resulted in a most unprecedented compliment to the Royal Baking Powder. The tests were made in the Government Laboratory at Washington, and the official report shows that the Royal is superior to all others in leavening strength—being over thirty per cent. above the average. The report also shows the purity of the Royal Powder and the wholesomeness of its ingredients.

This is probably the highest compliment of an official character ever paid to a proprietary article, though no more than the great army of baking powder consumers would expect in behalf of their old friend and favorite.

The result of the official examination, as thus determined, will, of course, make the "Royal" the standard for Government purchases.

Administrators Sale of Horses.
In pursuance of an order of the county court, of Wasco county, dated July 15th, 1892, I will sell as a whole or in lots, all the band of mares, geldings and colts, also one "Black Stranger" stallion, a fine horse and good breeder, belonging to the estate of the late W. J. Meins. These are good well bred horses, many of them broke to work. They will be sold for cash or approved security.

Mr. W. M. Terry, who has been in the drug business at Elkhon, Ky., for the past twenty years, says: "Chamberlain's Cough Remedy gives better satisfaction than any other cough medicine I have ever sold." There is good reason for this. No other will cure a cold so quickly; no other is so certain a preventive and cure for croup; no other affords so much relief in cases of whooping cough. For sale by Blakeley & Houghton, druggists. d&w

Queer world! Queer people! Here are men and women by thousands suffering from all sorts of diseases, bearing all manners of pain, spending their all on physicians and "getting no better, but rather worse," when right at hand there's a remedy which says it can help them because it's helped thousands like them. "Another patent medicine advertisement," you say. Yes—but not of the ordinary sort. The medicine is Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery, and it's different from the ordinary nostrums in this: It does what it claims to do, or it costs you nothing! The way is this: You pay your druggist $1.00 for a bottle. You read the directions, and you follow them. You get better, or you don't. If you do, you buy another bottle, and perhaps another. If you don't get better, you get your money back. And the queer thing is that so many people are willing to be sick when the remedy's so near at hand.
