Not the Grip.

There is a family in this city which lives in constant awe of the grip, and this fear is particularly centered on the small boy of the house, albeit he is a robust specimen of his age.

The other day the small boy sneezed. This was enough to alarm the entire household. He continued sneezing, and his mother suggested sending for the doctor, as she was sure he was going to be ill.

"Do you feel sick?" she asked tenderly. "Do you think you are getting the grip?" "Grip nothing!" ejaculated the small boy between paroxysmal sneezes. "I was washing my face and got soap up my nose—n-chew-achew!"—Detroit Free Press.

A Mean Plot.

Pretty Girl—Do you think it would be immodest for a woman to propose during leap year?

Old Bachelor (ferverently)—No, indeed; no, indeed. I think it would be eminently sensible.

Pretty Girl—That's just what I told old Mrs. Sourface, who admires you so much; but she said you'd be shocked. I'll run and tell her.—New York Weekly.

Soldier Elisha Ball's Will.

An odd will was filed at the probate office in Auburn on Tuesday. It was that of Elisha Ball, of Minot, and was dated in 1867, but the maker of the will had outlived all the witnesses to it, and it had to be proved from the handwriting of the man who drew it. It was the first case on record of the kind. Not a change had been made in the paper from the day it was drawn.—Kennebec (Me.) Journal.

Blooded Stallions Fight.

Two blooded stallions got out of their stable at Chillicothe recently and engaged in fierce contest. The brutes fought up and down the public road for nearly two miles, the battle continuing with unabated fury until one was dead and the other so seriously injured by the steel clad hoofs of his antagonist that he will probably have to be killed.—Philadelphia Ledger.

Pimples.

The old idea of 40 years ago was that facial eruptions were due to a "blood humor," for which they gave potash. Thus all the old Sarsaparillas contain potash, a most objectionable and drastic mineral, that instead of decreasing, actually treats more eruptions. You have noticed this when taking other Sarsaparillas than Joy's. It is however now known that the stomach, the blood creating power, is the seat of all vitiating or cleansing operations. A stomach clogged, by indigestion or constipation, vitiates the blood, result pimples. A clean stomach and healthful digestion purifies it and they disappear. Thus Joy's Vegetable Sarsaparilla is compounded after the modern idea to regulate the bowels and stimulate the digestion. The effect is immediate and most satisfactory. A short testimonial to contrast the action of the potash Sarsaparillas and Joy's modern vegetable preparation. Mrs. C. D. Stuart, of 400 Hayes St., S. F., writes: "I have for years had indigestion, I tried a popular Sarsaparilla but it actually caused more pimples to break out on my face. Hearing that Joy's was a later preparation and acted differently, I tried it and the pimples immediately disappeared."

THE DALLES,

Wasco County, Oregon.

The Gate City of the Inland Empire is situated at the head of navigation on the Middle Columbia, and is a thriving, prosperous city.

ITS TERRITORY.

It is the supply city for an extensive and rich agricultural and grazing country, its trade reaching as far south as Summer Lake, a distance of over two hundred miles.

The Largest Wool Market.

The rich grazing country along the eastern slope of the Cascades furnishes pasture for thousands of sheep, the wool from which finds market here.

The Dalles is the largest original wool shipping point in America, about 5,000,000 pounds being shipped last year.

ITS PRODUCTS.

The salmon fisheries are the finest on the Columbia, yielding this year a revenue of thousands of dollars, which will be more than doubled in the near future.

The products of the beautiful Klickitat valley find market here, and the country south and east has this year filled the warehouses, and all available storage places to overflowing with their products.

ITS WEALTH.

It is the richest city of its size on the coast and its money is scattered over and is being used to develop more farming country than is tributary to any other city in Eastern Oregon.

Its situation is unsurpassed. Its climate delightful. Its possibilities incalculable. Its resources unlimited. And on these corner stones she stands.

THE DALLES CHRONICLE.

Daily and Weekly Editions.

THE CHRONICLE was established for the express purpose of faithfully representing The Dalles and the surrounding country, and the satisfying effect of its mission is everywhere apparent. It now leads all other publications in Wasco, Sherman, Gilliam, a large part of Crook, Morrow and Grant counties, as well as Klickitat and other regions north of The Dalles, hence it is the best medium for advertisers in the Inland Empire.

The DAILY CHRONICLE is published every evening in the week (Sundays excepted) at $6.00 per annum. The WEEKLY CHRONICLE on Fridays of each week at $1.50 per annum.
