This is the season of the year when the great army of gardeners employed by New York's millionaires who have a fad for flowers are putting their hothouses in shape for the winter. I met Jay Gould's chief gardener yesterday and he told me that everything was in excellent shape at the railroad king's $500,000 hothouse up the Hudson. A lot of choice plants and exotics have just arrived from India and other eastern countries.

John Hoey's difficulties have not deterred him from looking after his pet *flowers in his grand hothouses at Hollywood, N. J. I am told his chief gardener has had several conferences with Mr. Hoey during the past two weeks about his favorite flowers and their care. Mr. Hoev is passionately fond of flowers, and selects the seeds and bulbs himself, and at times superintends the work of his gurdeners. Another man who has a half a million dollar bothouse is the Standard oil king. John D. Rockefeller, who has a palace en D R. O. D. D.O.A.N.E.—PRYSICIAN AND SUB-order. Why a Singer Didn't Sing.

A Bangor man said there was no so prano at his church on a recent Sunday When an explanation was asked he said that "Saturday night the soprano had a dream, in which an angel appeared and told her that the Lord wanted her to sing anthem No. 56 Sunday.

> Worth Sixty Times Its Weight in Gold. There is in existence a substance other is worth no less than sixty times its weight in pure gold. In the cabinet of chemical elements which the late Prince Lucien Bonaparte bequeathed to the English nation there is a substance called germanium, which is reported to be of this fabulous value. - London Tit-

The old idea of 40 years ago was that facial eruptions were due to a "blood humor," for which they gave potash. Thus all the old Sarsaparilles contain potash, a most objectionable and drastic mineral, that instead of decreasing, actually creates more eruptions. You have neticed this when taking other Sarsaparillas than Joy's. It is however now known that the stom-FRIENDSHIP LODGE, NO. 9., K. of P.—Meets every Monday evening at 7:30 o'clock, in Schauno's building, corner of Court and Second streets. Wasco County,

The Gate City of the Inland Empire is situated at the head of navigation on the Middle Columbia, and is a thriving, pros perous city.

ITS TERRITORY. It is the supply city for an extensive and rich agricultural Lake, a distance of over two hundred miles. The Largest Wool Market. The rich grazing country along the eastern slope of the Cascades furnishes pasture for thousands of sheep, the wool from and grazing country, its trade reaching as far south as Summer which finds market here. The Dalles is the largest original wool shipping point in America, about 5,000,000 pounds being shipped last year.

ITS PRODUCTS. The salmon fisheries are the finest on the Columbia, yielding this year a revenue of thousands of dollars, which will be more than doubled in the near future. The products of the beautiful Klickitat valley find market here, and the country south and east has this year filled the warehouses, and all available storage places to overflowing with their products. ITS WEALTH. It is the richest city of its size on the coast and its money is scattered over and is being used to develop more farming country than is tributary to any other city in Eastern Oregon. Its situation is unsurpassed. Its climate delightful. Its possibilities incalculable. Its resources unlimited. And on these corner stones she stands.

Daily and Weekly Editions.

THE CHRONICLE was established for the express purpose of faithfully representing The Dalles and the surrounding country, and the satisfying effect of its mission is everywhere apparent. It now leads all other publications in Wasco, Sherman, Gilliam, a large part of Crook. Morrow and Grant counties, as well as Klickitat and other regions north of The Dalles, hence it is the best medium for advertisers in the Inland Empire. The Daily Chronicle is published every evening in the week (Sundays excepted) at $6.00 per annum. The WEEKLY CHRONICLE on Fridays of each week at $1.50 per annum.

For advertising rates, subscriptions, etc., address THE CHRONICLE PUBLISHING CO., The Dalles, Oregon.
