

The Dalles Daily Chronicle.

OFFICIAL PAPER OF DALLES CITY AND WASCOCO COUNTY.

National Republican Ticket.

FOR PRESIDENT, BENJAMIN HARRISON, of Indiana. FOR VICE-PRESIDENT, WHITELOW REID, of New York. FOR PRESIDENTIAL ELECTORS, J. E. CAPLES, of Portland. H. B. MILLER, of Grant's Pass. G. M. IRWIN, of Union. D. M. DUNNE, of Portland.

The trouble in Pennsylvania is by no means ended, if it may be said to have at all started upon the approach of a peaceful solution of the problem involved. The strikes have taken to the weapons of the anarchist and others of the worst species of outlaw ever imported. Pittsburgh police inspector McKilvey says Bergman was only the tool of conspirators. The anarchists were getting ready to carry out some gigantic schemes, and an attempt would have been made on the lives of several prominent citizens. It is reported that an attempt was made yesterday to blow up Carnegie's Union mills in Pittsburgh. During the absence of the engineer some one turned on the unlighted gas in the furnaces: Discovery of the fact was made in time to prevent an explosion. There were 150 men in the department at the time, and many lives would have been lost. Bower says there are 500 anarchists in Pittsburgh, and 1,000 in western Pennsylvania at this time, filled with the desire for devilish work.

The scene between the "son-of-his-father" and Bismarck, on the day of the rupture between the prince and the emperor, has just come to light. The emperor had announced his intention to attend a fête given by Dr. Windthorst, the centerist leader. Bismarck begged the emperor not to go, saying his presence would be regarded as a condemnation of the attitude of the chancellor in the eyes of the centerists, his bitterest enemies, while it would cause great satisfaction to the enemies of the emperor and be an overt repudiation of the chancellor. The emperor answered brusquely and disdainfully, stamping his foot. "Are you going to dictate my very bill of fare?" Bismarck replied: "Then I must resign." "I accept your resignation," said the emperor, "You may retire and send me your resignation in writing."

A Wallace dispatch yesterday, says that Walter A. Jones, one of the attorney's for the strikers who was arrested on the first day, was released yesterday, and declares he will prosecute the mine-owners for malicious imprisonment. He expected to argue his cause with bombs, but it turned similar to the "case of faith with works," with the man who bought a cheap clock. He finds now that a bomb, as an argument, has been exploded, long ago; and he has about the same rights, in this case, as the fellow who applied for a pension on the plea that he was half shot when he enlisted. Mr. Jones will find out that the world is progressing, when he drops the idea that he knows more about the impunity of mob law than the continental congress does about justice.

St. Paul, Minn., was flooded with a heavy rainstorm Tuesday night. The storm extended into Wisconsin and Michigan, doing considerable damage. In Detroit the thermometer stood at 91°, and fell 22°. John Warren, a farmer near New Richmond, Wis., was killed by lightning. All trains were delayed by washouts.

As a precautionary measure against the introduction of cholera, Secretary Tracy has directed collectors of customs along the Atlantic seaboard to prohibit the landing of emigrants from France.

A New York congressman speaks of "the comparatively unknown town of Chicago." This is ignorance. Chicago has, proportionately, as many saloons as New York; perhaps more than that.

Those western democrats who, six weeks ago, were blatantly demanding the extinction of Tammany are now wallowing at the shrine of Tammany as humble as you please.

Municipalities making a thorough and determined effort to prevent the Chicago Line company from taking gas out of Indiana. What is the matter with Senator Falmer now?

Nearly all the Com d'Alene mines are working, and the situation looks encouraging. The coroner's inquest will begin next Saturday.

Now is the time for the New York Herald to send out an expedition for the relief of Henry M. Stanley.

Gone—all the painful disorders and chronic weaknesses peculiar to the female sex. They go with the use of Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription. Periodical pains, weak back, bearing-down sensations, nervous prostration, all "female complaints" are cured by it. It is purely vegetable and perfectly harmless—a powerful general, as well as uterine, tonic and nerve, imparting vigor and strength to the whole system. It costs you nothing if it fails to give satisfaction. It's guaranteed to do so, in every case, or the money is refunded. It can be guaranteed—for it does it. No other medicine for women is sold on such terms. That's the way its makers prove their faith in it. Contains no alcohol to inebriate; no syrup or sugar to derange digestion; a legitimate medicine, not a beverage. Purely vegetable and perfectly harmless in any condition of the system. World's Dispensary Medical Association, Proprietors, No. 663 Main Street, Buffalo, N. Y.

The ice wagon of Cates & Allison is on the streets every morning from 6 to 8 o'clock. Any orders for ice left with Will Vanbibber's express or at the store of Chas. Lauer will be promptly attended to. CATES & ALLISON.

Saved a Woman's Life. Mr. J. E. Thoroughgood, writing from Georgetown, Delaware, says: "Two teaspoonfuls of Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy saved the life of Mrs. Jane Thomas, of this place." He also states that several other very bad cases of bowel complaint there have been cured by this remedy. For sale by Blakeley & Houghton, druggists. d&w

The Old Times are Not In It. While at our other store at Big Island, Va., last April, I was taken with a very severe attack of diarrhoea. I never had it worse in my life. I tried several old-time remedies, such as Blackberry Wine, Paregoric and Laudanum without getting any relief. My attention was then called to Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy by Mr. R. C. Tinsley who had been handling it there, and in less than five minutes after taking a small dose I was entirely relieved. —O. G. BURROUGHS, Harris Creek, Amherst Co., Va. For sale by Blakeley & Houghton, druggists. d&w
