THURSDAY - - - JULY 28, 1892

LOCAL BRIEVITIES.

The court house lawn is like a man's hair. It needs constant clipping.

Recorder Menefee has remodeled his office somewhat, and it is now very conveniently arranged.

Virgie Burnell is a guest of the Umatilla house. She is one of the famous Arlington Opera company.

Get on to Maier & Bentons combination. Cord wood, cook stoves, groceries, etc. That fits to a notch.

Mr. G. Detmering, of Hay Creek, passed through last evening, from a visit to his brother at Dayton, Or.

Mr. D. M. French is taking advantage of the absence of his family to renovate and paint his residence inside and out.

Dan Lewis' worlds' fair colored serenaders give an E Pluribus Unum exhibition at the Armory tonight. See ad. and small bills.

Sichel & Co., of Prineville, have adopted the patent double duplex back action cash register. One of them went out on the stage this morning.

Young Mr. Phelps, of this city, left for Rufus yesterday to take a survey of the ruins of the late fire, and decide what is to be done in the future.

In his orchard in this city Mr. Emil Schanno has produced as nice white Adriatic figs, as large and fully developed as any produced in California.

P. W. DeHuff, and inspectors Mc-Dermott, and Edwards, returned from their Snake river trip yesterday. Peter says the water up that way is pretty yellow.

Mr. O. C. Stevens and wife have gone to Gilliam county for the benefit of Mr.
Stevens health, who is very feeble, and it is thought the mountain air may benefit him.

Maj. and Mrs. Ingalls returned from a trip last night. In a short time Maj.
Ingalls hopes to have sufficiently recovered from his recent injuries to be able to resume his duties.

By order of the county court, Dollie Howard, a little girl of The Dalles living without a home, has been transferred to the care and custody of the boys and girls aid society of Portland. Dollie is a bright, intelligent girl, and there is no doubt those in charge of the home will give her proper care and treatment.

Mr. Beers, of The Dalles Mercantile company, mourns the loss of his favorite pussy. She was ruthlessly poisoned, along with several other cats in the East End, and she leaves several orphans of tender age. It seems too bad to poison the useful cat, and let so many worthless dogs run at large in the city without tag or tax.

The farm which is offered for sale today in this paper is one of the most desirable locations in Wasco county. A man can easily earn a good living on the place and an annual interest on from $8,000 to $10,000, on the investment of less than half the lowest sum quoted.

See J. H. Cross new ad today, and try his peach plums and apricots.

Wm. Turnbow was adjudged insane today, and will be taken to the asylum.

The report of the coroners inquest in the case of the Mrs. Rogers post mortem is not yet ready for publication.

Judging from the Oregonian today Major Handbury is about to "institute an inquiry" respecting the cascade locks work, and then—await definite instructions.

B. F. Laughlin goes to Portland today arranging for resuming the business of The Dalles, Portland and Astoria Navigation company on Monday next.
David Hood will be the local agent in Portland. Truman Butler will be purser on the Dalles City. John Hampshire will go as purser on the Regulator, and E. H. Merrill as steward.

R. F. Wickham, whose place is twelve miles south of The Dalles has some wheat which would thresh forty bushels to the acre, and rye which stood seven and a half feet in the stock. He cut it all for hay, on account of the difficulty of threshing. He may not need it all for hay but it will be useful on the farm.

Yesterday noon a beautiful young dove made its appearance at the east window of the county clerks' office, and claimed protection from the free trade occupants.
Deputy Ed. Martin suggested that it be given a receipted bill, as an inducement to call again, and let it go. Jimmy thought it best to keep it until he could get another one like it and have them served on toast.

J. F. Howarth lost the tip end of the fore finger of his left hand in his paper cutting machine. It was necessary to amputate the finger, after the accident, nearly to the first joint. It is fortunate that it was no worse, as he can set up type without any great inconvenience now, while if it had been the right hand he would be compelled to take a vacation.

Mr. H. Glenn, give in his expert testimony to the adjuster today settling the losses on the building of M. A.
Phelps, destroyed by fire at Rufus. The building was worth from 1,500 to $2,000, and was insured for $1,200. The losses on the residence of Sylvester R. Brooks, destroyed last Tuesday, ten miles out on the Gilpin road, are also being adjusted today.

Judge Blakeley has a noble large dog, which is his constant companion in the city. Stepping into Haight's a few days ago for a meal, the faithful friend followed his master, and laid down under one of the tables. When he attempted to get up his back was loaded with the table and contents, and the surprise lasted, with frantic effect, until the upper deck was swept to the floor in utter confusion. He is a trifle shy of Haight's tables now, when he wants to rest.

Mr. John McKernan, an officer of the boys and girls aid society of Portland, has been in The Dalles for a couple of days past on business. It is his first visit here in 32 years. He was then a child, living with his parents across Mill creek, not very far from the garrison. In company with Mrs. Doherty, who was here at that time, and Mrs.
Judge Blakeley, he visited the locality and recognized his old home. He was regretting last evening that his mother, now Mrs. Groner of Portland; was not here with him to review the scenes of more than a third of a century past.

CONSUMERS' COMMERCIAL CO.

Backed by Millions—Thousands of Offices Opened up.

Mr. N. Whealdon, of this city, has accepted the local agency of the consumers' commercial company, a corporation organized under the laws of New Jersey, with an authorized capital of $600,000. Simultaneously all over the United States twelve thousand offices were opened up on July 1st, and the pulse beat of a new commercial movement is already vibrating, that will be far-reaching in its power for good. The object of the consumers' commercial company is to obtain and distribute information of every kind to the mercantile world, and general public. It is essentially a medium of information, having no issues other than the delivery of information in response to direct inquiries. Information will be furnished from every part of the United States. In cities of over 15,000 inhabitants, the company has its own offices, and in every banking town there are at least one and some places two competent and reliable correspondents who are under contract with the company to furnish all information sought for in their respective localities, to the patrons of the company when requested so to do, under its rules and regulations.

Any person desiring information may purchase one or more tickets at any of the company's offices, and receive with the ticket the name of the correspondent in the city or town from which he desires the information. This ticket is then forwarded, together with the pur-chaser's letter of instructions or inquiry, to the correspondent of that city or town, with any question or series of questions he may desire information on, whether relating to credits, hunting up a friend or relative, corroborating a statement or report prices of real estate, etc., etc., common to Bradstreet, Dunn, or any similar general information bureau.
Telegrams may be sent in place of a ticket, as the company has a cypher code, so that questions and answers may be transmitted confidentially and economically.

The company keeps no stored information, so in every case information will be latest. Merchants and others requiring credit reports will early see the advantage of their system. Among those connected with the company are the following: President, N. C. H. Harold, M. D., Newark, N. J.; Vice-President, Jerome Taylor, firm of Taylor & Seeley, hat manufacturers, New York City; Treasurer, Leopold Hess, firm of M. and S. L. Hess, real estate, New York city; Secretary, S. O. Nichols, New York city; R. G. Salomon, leather manufacturer, Newark, N. J.; Joseph Steiner, firm of Joseph Steiner & Brother, teas and coffees, New York city; Walter H. Graef, firm of Walter H. Graef & Co., importers, and others.

Greeting.

Ochoco Review. D. C. Ireland has become editor of The Dalles CHRONICLE.
Mr. Ireland is one of the oldest newspaper men in the state, is an able writer, is wide awake to all ideas of progress, and is the right man in the right place.
May he and THE CHRONICLE live for ever.

Power of the Press.

Klamath Star: "The power of the country press" was not even perceptible in the defeat of Lionel R. Webster. In spite of the fact that the people's party vote went solidly against him and as solidly in favor of Chamberlain, he got more votes than any other state candidate on either ticket. There is not a more popular man in the state than Webster and the power of the country press arrayed against him is not worth shucks. Even the press must have solid facts against the candidate it would down.

Oregon Butterflies.

Klamath Express. Edward T. Owen, French professor of the Wisconsin state university, in company with Burt Cunningham, has been chasing butterflies in the Wood river country for four weeks past. The professor has enjoyed his outing thoroughly. When not adding to his entomological collection he has been casting the fly in the northern crystal streams with splendid success, in one instance taking six speckled beauties from one pool, the half dozen aggregating thirty pounds in weight.
On his arrival here he jealously watched a box on which was marked, "value, $250." It contained about 2500 butterflies and moths which he will add to his collection at Madison, Wis. The professor has secured winged beauties from India, Australia, Borneo, South America and European countries, numbering in all fully 30,000. It is one of the most complete collections extant.

Current Topics.

The condition of the poor in the un-burned section of St. Johns, N. E., is worse than those in the burned, as they are without means of subsistence and can get none of the relief contributions.
They are actually trying to burn their few belongings so as to get help. Nearly 7000 persons are encamped in a large field, housing being the worst feature at present. There is no want of clothing or food. The coming fall and winter will, it is feared, realize the famine that succeeds the feast.

Orders have been sent to the captain of the cruiser Pinto to take the body of Senor Rosa to his country for burial.
Senor Rosa was one of the signers of the declaration of independence of Chili against Spain. He died in Argentina and will be taken to Concepcion for burial.

Milaroff, Popoff, Ghorghloff and Karaguloff, conspirators, found guilty by a court-martial of plotting against the lives of Prince Ferdinand of Bulgaria and Prime Minister Stambuloff, were executed yesterday at Sofia, Svaboda publishes a dispatch which it claims was sent by the Russian government to its minister at Bucharest, ordering him to pay $10,000 to the plotters concocting plans to murder Prince Ferdinand, ruler of Bulgaria, which is virtually a reward for murder.

Commissioner Sperry, of East Portland, will pay a cash prize to anybody who will tell him what he went to Washington for.

Don't read! Don't think! Don't believe! Now, are you better? You women who think that patent medicines are a humbug, and Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription the biggest humbug of the whole (because it's best known of all)— does your lack-of-faith cure come?

It is very easy to "don't" in this world. Suspicion always comes more easily than confidence. But doubt—little faith—never made a sick woman well—and the "Favorite Prescription" has cured thousands of delicate, weak women, which makes us think that our "Prescription" is better than your "don't believe." We're both honest.
Let us come together. You try Dr.
Pierce's Favorite Prescription. If it doesn't do as represented, you get your money again.
Where proof's so easy, can you afford to doubt?

Little but active—are Dr. Pierce's Pleasant Pellets.
Best Liver Pills made; gentle, yet thorough. They regulate and invigorate the liver, stomach and bowels.

An Important Fruit Meeting.

The Oregon Pomological society meets the last Saturday in each month in The Dalles city hall, at 1 o'clock p. m. At pected the district inspector, Mr. Heald, will be in attendance. Also a representative of the fruit department of the Portland exposition. All fruit growers as well as others interested are requested to be present. 4td1tw

Two Grand Excursions.

Two grand excursions to Europe by the fast and elegant anchor line steamships "Ethiopia" and "Fumessia." The first will leave New York, August 13th, and the second August 20th. This is an opportunity seldom offered to parties desiring to visit the old country. For full particulars and rates, apply to T. A.
Hudson, general agent, The Dalles, Or.

T. A. Van Norden, the expert watch repairer at No. 106 Second street, The Dalles, appears to have a happy knack for holding the confidence of his patrons.
The secret, of course, is the usual one—skill in repairing even the most complicated watches. 7-13-1m now afforded by Mrs. Phillips, who is offering millinery at one third less, as she has decided to retire from the business.
