THE CASCADE LOCKS.

A gentleman who visited the cascades one day last week, states for a fact that the men were cutting over stone that has been cut over time after time, for ten or twelve years past. Now, in all seriousness, with malice to none; but for an open river; how long are the people of this Inland Empire going to sit, supinely stupid of their power, and tolerate these methods of the past? The Oregonian says: "There has been no one at work there for some time, except a gang of stone-cutters, and the old appropriation is about exhausted." That has been the style, apparently. "A gang of stone cutters" whittling down the appropriation. A clause in the new river and harbor bill provides, in regard to the cascade locks, "that contracts may be entered into by the secretary of war for such materials and work as may be necessary to complete the present project, to be paid for as appropriation may from time to time be made by law, not to exceed in the aggregate $1,419,250, exclusive of the amount herein and heretofore appropriated." From the Portland (Major Handbury) point of view "there are several different views of the scope and meaning of the clause, and Major Handbury will await definite instructions in regard to the matter, as to whether the work is to be let as a whole and completed in a certain time, or whether work is to be done only in proportion to the amount of appropriation made from time to time, or whether contracts be made for the completion of parts or classes of the work, and whether these contracts are to be made now or not until funds are provided, and the necessity for each particular class of work arrives." The Oregonian says that nobody "would hardly like to take the contract to do the whole work and push it to completion as fast as possible and then wait the convenience of congress and politicians to get his money;" and follows this cunning announcement with this bit of sarcastic sentiment: "It is, however, hinted, that parties at The Dalles who are anxious to see the work completed will make a bid for the whole work and take all the chances for slow appropriations and change of administration as to getting their pay;" from which it is very plain to be seen that the people of the Inland Empire (not The Dalles alone) have a duty to themselves to perform. They must unite, and demand the removal of Maj. Handbury, if necessary, that this important work, now provided for by congress shall be pushed to speedy completion. Nobody in The Dalles wants to have any other hand in the work. The people here are in earnest to see that it is done; and it is nonsense to presume that a contractor, capable of putting in a bid under the law, for the completion of this improvement, with the government at his back, would hesitate about the certainty of compensation.

Don't read! Don't think! Don't believe! Now, are you better? You women who think that patent medicines are a humbug, and Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription the biggest humbug of the whole (because it's best known of all)—does your lack-of-faith cure come? It is very easy to "don't" in this world. Suspicion always comes more easily than confidence. But doubt—little faith—never made a sick woman well—and the "Favorite Prescription" has cured thousands of delicate, weak women, which makes us think that our "Prescription" is better than your "don't believe." We're both honest. Eat us come together. You try Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription. If it doesn't do as represented, you get your money again. Where proof's so easy, can you afford to doubt.

Little but active—are Dr. Pierce's Pleasant Pellets. Best Liver Pills made; gentle, yet thorough. They regulate and invigorate the liver, stomach and bowels.

Beginning with Aug. 1st I will give a valuable premium to every person who orders one dozen cabinet pictures. Photos to be as good as the very best. Premium on exhibition after Friday next. Call and see them. Only good for a few days. Hunt, the photographer.

Gone—all the painful disorders and chronic weaknesses peculiar to the female sex. They go, with the use of Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription. Periodical pains, weak back, bearing-down sensations, nervous prostration, all "female complaints" are cured by it. It is purely vegetable and perfectly harmless—a powerful general, as well as uterine, tonic and nerve, imparting vigor and strength to the whole system. It costs you nothing if it fails to give satisfaction. It's guaranteed to do so, in every case, or the money is refunded. It can be guaranteed—for it does it. No other medicine for women is sold on such terms.

That's the way its makers prove their faith in it. Contains no alcohol to inebriate; no syrup or sugar to derange digestion; a legitimate medicine, not a beverage. Purely vegetable and perfectly harmless in any condition of the system. World's Dispensary Medical Association, Proprietors, No. 663 Main Street, Buffalo, N. Y.

To The Public. I have no hesitancy in recommending Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy to the public, as I do to my friends and patrons. I used it myself after other well-known remedies had failed, and it cured me in a few minutes. I recommend it cordially and cheerfully upon its merits, not from a financial stand-point, because I have others in stock on which I make a larger profit, but because Chamberlain's is the best remedy I know of for bowel complaints. There is no doubt about it, it does the work.—JAMES FORGY, Druggist, McVeytown, Penn. For sale by Blakeley & Houghton, druggists. d&w

Saved a Woman's Life. Mr. J. E. Thoroughgood, writing from Georgetown, Delaware, says: "Two teaspoonfuls of Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy saved the life of Mrs. Jane Thomas, of this place." He also states that several other very bad cases of bowel complaint there have been cured by this remedy. For sale by Blakeley & Houghton, druggists. d&w

The Old Times are Not in It. While at our other store at Big Island, Va., last April, I was taken with a very severe attack of diarrhoea. I never had it worse in my life. I tried several old-time remedies, such as Blackberry Wine, Paregoric and Laudanum without getting any relief. My attention was then called to Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy by Mr. R. C. Tinsley who had been handling it there, and in less than five minutes after taking a small dose I was entirely relieved.—O. G. BURFORD, Harris Creek, Amherst Co., Va. For sale by Blakeley & Houghton, druggists. d&w
