

The Dalles Daily Chronicle.

OFFICIAL PAPER OF DALLES CITY AND WASCO COUNTY.

National Republican Ticket.

FOR PRESIDENT, BENJAMIN HARRISON, of Indiana.

FOR VICE-PRESIDENT, WHITELOW REID, of New York.

FOR PRESIDENTIAL ELECTORS, J. F. CAPLES, of Portland. H. B. MILLER, of Grant's Pass. G. M. IRWIN, of Union. D. M. DUNNE, of Portland.

The mass of humanity is very much more imitative than we generally think. There are very few people of real originality. In these even, the originality develops mostly after a long period spent in careful imitation. The periods of imitation and originality are on opposite arms in the lever of human existence. The imitative is greatest and the original least but their positions tend to be reversed through the years of experience. This point is fully illustrated by observing the work of Mr. Higby, on the fruit company's ranches on Mill creek. Since he came to Oregon people are learning that the hill tons are our very best vine lands, and that irrigation is death to an orchard. The evidences of thrift on every hand proves the virtue of continued industry. The angel of ease never came through the gate of indolence, and never will. The demon of idleness has no scattered thorns and moss grown tree trunks about the Higby plantation. "In order to arrive we must start," said Tallyrand, and this terse bit of epigrammatic wisdom holds its significant lesson to those of us who are too often by the way of being dilatory in carrying out our intentions. The procrastinator comforts himself with the assurance that some other day is as good as today, which is a fallacy. If one would arrive at perfection in fruit growing he must start, and the sooner he starts the earlier will be his arrival, according to Mr. Higby.

Last week the Oregon Pacific railway company was reorganized by William M. Hoag, Wallis Nash, B. W. Wilson, Z. Job and Abram Hackleman on a capital of $18,000,000. The object is to build and maintain telegraph, telephone or phonograph lines from Yaquina bay to a point on the eastern boundary of the state with the right to extend it to Boise city, Idaho; to build and operate all kinds of water craft; the terminus of the main line of said railroad within the state of Oregon shall be at tide water on Yaquina bay, in Benton county, and at a point on the eastern boundary line of said state; the terminus of said navigation lines shall be Yaquina bay and San Francisco, the headquarters of the Columbia and the mouth of the same, the head waters of Snake river and the mouth of the Columbia, and Yaquina bay and such foreign and domestic ports as the corporation may desire to reach. The principal office will be at Corvallis.

The result of the Cour d'Alene labor trouble is to be regretted. First, because of the destruction of life and property. And second, the effects that the odious methods employed will have upon organized mine labor throughout the northwest. If these large organizations hope to win in the future they must rid themselves of the bomb-throwers and non-American followers who have gained access to the otherwise honorable ranks of organized labor.

Progress is being made at Portland on the trial locomotive for Dr. Mahana's single-rail and saddle-truck railway system. It is expected that it will be ready for a scientific test within thirty days. Dr. Mahana and a force of mechanics have been quietly at work for three months on the locomotive, which is being constructed on a section of the single-track-road which has been put up in the shop.

In the Dakotas, Minnesota and Kansas 60,000 harvest hands are wanted. Wheat producers are fearful that they will be unable to harvest the crop on account of the scarcity of hands. The calamity howlers are so busy with election matters that it is impossible for them to turn out and aid in saving the products of the farm.

What advantage is there in having natural resources if they are not utilized? A gentleman from the east remarked a few days ago that he believed that The Dalles had every natural advantage for becoming a large inland city but we needed more rustle. That is the solution. A united effort on the part of our people will build up the city as nothing else will.

A few more democratic congresses and the government will be under the necessity of devising additional sources of revenue.

An unusual offer—the one that's made by the proprietors of Dr. Sage's Catarrh Remedy. Unusual, but made in good faith. It's a reward of $500 for an incurable case of Catarrh. If you have one, the money's for you. But you can't know whether you have one, till you've tried Dr. Sage's Remedy. What's incurable by any other means, yields to that. By its mild, soothing, cleansing and healing properties, it cures the worst cases, no matter of how long standing. That's the reason the money can be offered. There's a risk about it, to be sure. But it's so small that the proprietors are willing to take it. The symptoms of catarrh are, headache, obstruction of nose, discharges falling into throat, sometimes profuse, watery, and acrid, at others, thick, tenacious, mucous, purulent, bloody, putrid and offensive; eyes weak, ringing in ears, deafness; offensive breath; smell and taste impaired, and general debility. Only a few of these symptoms likely to be present at once.

To The Public. I have no hesitation in recommending Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy to the public, as I do to my friends and patrons. I used it myself after other well-known remedies had failed, and it cured me in a few minutes. I recommend it candidly and cheerfully upon its merits, not from a financial standpoint, because I have others in stock on which I make a larger profit, but because Chamberlain's is the best remedy I know of for bowel complaints. There is no doubt about it, it does the work—JAMES FORAY, Druggist, McVeytown, Penn. For sale by Blakeley & Houghton, druggists. d&w

Saved a Woman's Life.

Mr. J. E. Thoroughgood, writing from Georgetown, Delaware, says: "Two teaspoonfuls of Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy saved the life of Mrs. Jane Thomas, of this place." He also states that several other very bad cases of bowel complaint there have been cured by this remedy. For sale by Blakeley & Houghton, druggists. d&w

The Old Times are Not In It.

While at our other store at Big Island, Va., last April, I was taken with a very severe attack of diarrhoea. I never had it worse in my life. I tried several old-time remedies, such as Blackberry Wine, Paregoric and Laudanum without getting any relief. My attention was then called to Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy by Mr. R. C. Tinsley who had been handling it there, and in less than five minutes after taking a small dose I was entirely relieved. O. G. BURROUGHS, Harris Creek, Amherst Co., Va. For sale by Blakeley & Houghton, druggists. d&w
