

National Republican Ticket.

FOR PRESIDENT, BENJAMIN HARRISON, of Indiana.

FOR VICE-PRESIDENT, WHITE LAW REID, of New York.

FOR PRESIDENTIAL ELECTORS, J. F. CAPLES, of Portland. H. B. MILLER, of Grant's Pass. G. M. IRWIN, of Union. D. M. DUNNE, of Portland.

The New York Herald, speaking of the general business of the past year and the outlook for the future, says: "All the evidence at hand shows that this is going to be a bad, sad year for the calamity prophets of both parties. Their occupation is gone, and there will be nothing for them to do in the campaign but to preserve a decent silence or bewail the country's universal and exasperating prosperity. There is simply nothing for them to grumble about. The business of the country is in a provokingly healthy and flourishing condition. Imports during the fiscal year ended June 30 were greater than any former year, amounting to $833,000,000, while exports also exceed the highest record and reached the enormous aggregate of $127,000,000. Railroad earnings for the first six months of the year are greater than those for any similar period in history, and the output of manufactures has been greater than ever before. Business failures for the first half of the present year have been 1,000 fewer in number and $40,000,000 less in gross liabilities than they were during the corresponding period of 1891. New industrial enterprises for manufacturing iron, cotton and woolen fabrics are going into operation in various sections, and while the margin of profit is small, business is on a solid foundation, and the outlook in every direction is hopeful and encouraging. The grain crop is promising, money is abundant and collections are easy." What says the democratic party in its national platform? "We deny that there has been any increase of prosperity to the country since that tariff (McKinley) went into operation." The man who shuts his eyes at noontime and swears it is midnight is a full-powdered, free-trade, calamity democrat.

Some queer facts are developed in the case of the murderer Wilson, whose suicide in jail at Oregon City has been noted. He was a very supple man, and while confined in his cell he would attempt to commit suicide by coiling himself up like a rattlesnake and then spring headforemost against the wall and then fall on the floor and lay apparently lifeless. The softening of the frontal lobes of his brain is attributed to these attempts to commit suicide. It may be interesting to note that Wilson's brain, which weighed 64 ounces, has but one superior and one equal in weight, viz: that of Cuvier, the French naturalist, which is the heaviest on record, and that of Edward Henry Knight, which also weighed 64 ounces.

Many persons must have been struck with the awkward beginning of the 100th Psalm: "For why? The Lord our God is good." The truth, is, popular ingenuity—represented in this case, perhaps by the printer—has taken the liberty of changing the old word "for why," meaning "because," which gave good sense and translated the original, but which had fallen out of common use into the modern "for why?" Surely the restoration of the word might still be attempted before it is too late.

Levi Ankey, F. W. Paine and W. D. Tyler, of Walla Walla, have filed articles incorporating the Washington and Columbia river railroad company, with $3,000,000 capital stock. The objects of the company are to build and equip a railroad from Hunt's Junction to some point on the sound. Also from Pleasant view to Riparia. The company express their intention of purchasing the lines of the O. & W. T., reaching from Dayton to Pendleton via Hunt's Junction.

Dun's Mercantile agency reported that wheat had fallen off 100 per cent. south of Wild Horse creek, Umatilla county, to which the East Oregonian says: "Just think of an average decreasing 100 per cent. and yet there is something still remaining! It simply shows that the persons in charge of even mercantile agencies are not fully cognizant of the meaning of 100 per cent. decrease, and their reports are not to be trusted."

The Union-Journal learns that about 3,600 grain bags of excellent quality are being turned out daily at the Walla Walla penitentiary.

An unusual offer—the one that's made by the proprietors of Dr. Sage's Catarrh Remedy. Unusual, but made in good faith. It's a reward of $500 for an incurable case of Catarrh. If you have one, the money's for you. But you can't know whether you have one, till you've tried Dr. Sage's Remedy. What's incurable by any other means, yields to that. By its mild, soothing, cleansing and healing properties, it cures the worst cases, no matter of how long standing. That's the reason the money can be offered. There's a risk about it, to be sure. But it's so small that the proprietors are willing to take it. The symptoms of catarrh are, headache, obstruction of nose, discharges falling into throat, sometimes profuse, watery, and acrid, at others, thick, tenacious, mucous, purulent, bloody, putrid and offensive; eyes weak, ringing in ears, deafness; offensive breath; smell and taste impaired, and general debility. Only a few of these symptoms likely to be present at once.
