

National Republican Ticket.

FOR PRESIDENT, BENJAMIN HARRISON, of Indiana.

FOR VICE-PRESIDENT, WHITELAW REID, of New York.

FOR PRESIDENTIAL ELECTORS, J. F. CAPLES, of Portland. H. B. MILLER, of Grant's Pass. G. M. IRWIN, of Union. D. M. DUNNE, of Portland.

The appearance of Eugene Semple on the democratic horizon puts a different phase on the gubernatorial race among the "antirified," says the Sentinel. Semple has not been making the vigorous fight that has been waged by the friends of Lewis, Black and a few other democratic possibilities, but it is safe to say that he goes into the race fresh and vigorous. Although handicapped by his former defeat he is even yet the most formidable antagonist Lewis has, and though he will not likely receive the nomination he will greatly lessen Lewis' chances and make possible the chances of some man east of the mountains. Some of the east Washington democrats hoped that Eshelman would be nominated by the democrats and endorsed by the peoples party; but that party has already made their nominations and dissolved the possibility. Mr. Eshelman though silent on the subject offered no protest and would probably have accepted the nomination. He is undoubtedly the strongest possible candidate on the democratic ticket, but the cat-hauling of the party will make it difficult to nominate him.

Commenting on the endeavor to learn something new respecting the planet Mars, Prof. Holden, of Liek observatory says that many inquiries have been received during the present "opposition" of Mars, indicating widespread interest in the observations now going on. There appears to be a misapprehension of the work being done on the planet here and elsewhere. "We are simply endeavoring," he said, "to obtain more accurate information regarding the planet, that is all. We also wish to know how nearly Mars resembles the earth, and whether it is fit to be inhabited by beings like ourselves. In my opinion the time has not yet come to even speculate on the question."

The extreme dry weather of the past week has made the roads so dusty as to be disagreeable in traveling, but the temperature has not been above 90 degrees, and this is certainly a consolation when we read of the dusty roads of the east and the thermometer ranging from 90 to 105 degrees in the shade. Oregon may get a trifle dry during August and a trifle wet during January, but the even temperature maintained throughout the year is a luxury which the people appreciate, especially after having experienced the extremes of wet and dry, and heat and cold, which are prominent features of the climate of the central and eastern states.

There is great wisdom in the resolution introduced by the Hon. P. A. Collins of Massachusetts that the next convention shall be just large enough for the delegates, their alternates, the national committee and the press. There is really very little thoughtfulness in the bangs of the galleries, and the noise they make does not help the deliberations on the floor. This is the second time that Mr. Collins has introduced this resolution. After the exhibitions at Minneapolis and Chicago, it ought to prevail.

The Chataqua organization is up with the times in all reform movements, and its latest innovation is on the marriage ceremony. An illustration of the ritualistic improvement was given at the assembly on Vashon island, a few evenings ago, and the first question propounded to the female candidate for bridal honors by the officiating master of ceremonies was: "Have you been vaccinated?"

Acting Secretary Soley has sent word to Commander Evans, commanding the steamer Yorktown in the Northern Pacific ocean to dispatch his vessel to St. Mathews island, Bering sea, for the relief of three hunters reported to have been abandoned.

The Colfax Commoner states that specimens of the little club wheat grown near that city this year have attained the size of the big club variety. Between 40 and 50 bushels are expected from each acre of these fields.

How interesting it would be if the democratic papers would resurrect a few of the shrieks they were uttering against the "billion dollar congress" two years ago.

An unusual offer—the one that's made by the proprietors of Dr. Sage's Catarrh Remedy. Unusual, but made in good faith. It's a reward of $500 for an incurable case of Catarrh. If you have one, the money's for you. But you can't know whether you have one, till you've tried Dr. Sage's Remedy. What's incurable by any other means, yields to that. By its mild, soothing, cleansing and healing properties, it cures the worst cases, no matter of how long standing. That's the reason the money can be offered. There's a risk about it, to be sure. But it's so small that the proprietors are willing to take it. The symptoms of catarrh are, headache, obstruction of nose, discharges falling into throat, sometimes profuse, watery, and acrid, at others, thick, tenacious, mucous, purulent, bloody, putrid and offensive; eyes weak, ringing in ears, deafness; offensive breath; smell and taste impaired, and general debility. Only a few of these symptoms likely to be present at once.
