MILTIA IN CHARGE AT BUFFALO.

Strikers Awaiting Further Orders From Grand Master Sweeney.

"AS SOON AS HE SPEAKS WE QUIT."

The New York Central Ask For Protection From Outside Violence.—Other News.

BUFFALO, Aug. 17.—The military aspect of affairs at Cheektowage is of a very pronounced character. General Doyle has pitched his headquarters at the Williams-street station, just outside the city limits, and from there he issues his commands to his men. The Forty-first company of the National Guard Syracuse, is under orders to be ready at a moment's notice to come to Buffalo. Captain Kirby, of the Second company Wheeler rifles, Auburn, has received orders to hold his company ready to come at a moment's notice. The Lehigh Valley people got four trains out of the yard yesterday morning. They say they will have no difficulty in moving freight after today. Mr. Walter Webb, of the New York Central, is in the city, having been called here by the gravity of the situation and a possibility of the great four-track road being affected. Mr. Webb says: "The only danger we have felt is that our men might be forced from their posts by the other strikers. From what I learn I think the switchmen would have been driven from their posts last night had it not been for the calling out of the military. All we ask is protection from outside violence." With two excellent regiments of the National Guard in the field and the police reinforced by 200 specials, the feeling is much more reassuring than yesterday. The police claim to be able to handle the strike within the city limits.

It is rumored in Chicago all switchmen on the old Chicago and Atlantic, have been ordered on a strike. A reporter who called at the Dearborn-street depot was told that those switchmen only worked as far into Chicago as Fifty-first street. On calling them the switchmen said: "The Erie road proper extends westward only to Marion, Ohio. This is an auxiliary to the system. We are waiting to hear the word from Grand Master Sweeney. He is now in Buffalo. As soon as he speaks we quit, and so do all the switchmen on lines running into Chicago. The strike may not reach Chicago for a week yet, but unless the demands of the strikers in the east are granted all the great railway lines will be tied up within ten days.

A Lyons, N. Y., dispatch says: "A great amount of perishable and time freight is arriving here from Buffalo and being transferred to Fallbrook, run down to Corning and thence over the Erie to its destination. Owing to the action of the Fallbrook and Central Hudson accepting freight from the Lehigh and Erie, it is thought a general strike may be ordered on the lines. Officials at Lyons think it probable the switchmen will be ordered out all along the Central and West Shore in sympathy with the Lehigh and Erie strikers."

The Chinese "Help."

"Did it ever occur to you how much better it would be for Astoria if all the cannerymen would employ white help instead of Chinamen? It would give employment to all the young men and women in Clatsop county. They would all spend their money here, and times never would be hard. Let's see how it would figure. Say there are at least 1,500 Chinese working in the canneries from four to five months in the year. Now say that these situations were all filled by white men, or women, as the case may be, and the average wages paid was two dollars per day; that would amount to $3,000 a day, $87,000 a month, or $312,000 for the season. And all this money would be spent here, whereas now nearly every dollar of it is shipped out of the country. It is my opinion that it would be a greater benefit to Astoria than a dozen railroads. I think I will mention this to a few of the cannerymen and see if the change can't be effected next season. I am almost positive they will take my advice in the matter. That's right.—Herald.

Victoria's Short Speech.
The queen bled it down. Long live the queen.—Boston Herald.

The queen's speech was a very dismal affair. As a spellbinderess Victoria is a lamentable failure.—Washington Post.

Substance of the queen's speech in parliament: "My lords and gentlemen, the country is all right, and has no use for you. Git!"—New York Press.

The queen in her speech to parliament said that she nothing to say and even that remark was received with groans.—Philadelphia Call.

It seems the liberal members of parliament groaned at the queen's speech. This is a trifle odd, as there's certainly not enough in it to hurt them.—Philadelphia Times.

The short address of the queen to the new parliament is one case on record where an angry woman cut her speech short.—Pittsburg Telegraph.

It seems that the house of commons hissed the queen's speech. It was not an 'his, but an aspirated, aggregated his, with a big H; the kind that makes monarchs tremble in their capitals.—Minneapolis Times.

Weather Report.

PORTLAND, Aug. 17.—That part of yesterday's bulletin relating to Eastern Oregon says: During the week just closed the weather has been exceptionally propitious to all kinds of farm work. With the exception of a few scattered showers in Morrow and Gilliam counties the rainfall has been rather less than the average. The temperature has been quite high generally; the extremes ranging between 55 and 101 degrees. Generally speaking such crops as could be improved by favorable weather have shown a decided improvement. Wheat harvesting is progressing nicely. No change in the condition of the spring wheat is noted. In Grant county fall wheat is said to be yielding from 22 to 32 bushels per acre. Fall oats are heavy and well filled. The hay crop is being harvested rapidly; in portions of Sherman county it is the best crop in many years. In Sherman county grapes are plentiful.

Montana's Congressman.

Helena Independent. The Butte Inter-Mountain favors a public reception to the Hon. W. W. Dixon on his return to Montana. He certainly deserves it. On the question Montana is most interested in, the free coinage of silver, Mr. Dixon has been staunch and true. He never dodged nor paired with another free coinage man and killed two votes, in order to curry favor with eastern leaders of the party, and he made an honest endeavor to settle the mineral land controversy in the interest of the people. He has been in every respect a model representative and has won the esteem and gratitude of our people, regardless of party.

Washington's Mines.

West Coast Trade: The interest manifested in mining circles and by mining experts generally regarding the mines of Washington is very flattering, and the extensive and valuable exhibit which will be prepared for the world's fair will awaken the interest in our mining resources still more, and lead to development which will soon place Washington at the head of the column of mining states. With the improved machinery now being used and the completion of railroads to the various mining districts, this development will be more rapid than that of any previous country.

Seasonable Advice.

Milton Eagle. Now is the time of year when everybody should be cautious in regard to fire. A small spark dropped in the right place in our town would do untold damage, and perhaps render many homeless. Rubbish should be cleaned up from back yards not only on account of being combustible but as a sanitary measure.

A NEW GLACIAL FIELD.

What The Idaho Geologist Has Discovered in That State.

A SERIES OF GLACIAL LAKES.

The Richest Burial Casket Ever Seen on This Continent.

A GOLDEN ANGEL DECORATION.

Desperate Fighting Among Tabor's
Family for the Filthy Lucre Left Behind.

BOISE CITY, Aug. 17.—J. Schemerorn, geologist and mineralogist, who is working in the interest of the exhibit at the worlds fair, writes under date of August 8th that he has discovered an immense glacial field in central Idaho, beneath which there is a series of glacial lakes. The field probably covers an area nearly as great, though not so thick, as the great glacial field of the Alps. The glaciers are located about 25 miles southeast of Shoup, amid a number of high peaks not down on the maps.

A Rich Man's Coffin.

DANBURY, Aug. 17.—The body of Russell Benedict, who died at Marienbad, Austria, July 25th, reached here yesterday, in what is probably the richest burial casket ever seen on this continent. The box is of solid silver and is elaborately embellished with gold. On the top is a gold crucifix two feet long. The casket is carried by means of eight gold handles, and is supported by six lions' legs, and festoons of gold flowers are draped around it. On each of the four corners is a golden angel six inches high. It is not known how much the casket cost. Mr. Benedict was a very wealthy man, who had lived many years in Austria. He was born in this city.

The Terrible Tabor.

Hudson, Mich., Aug. 17.—Miss Jennie Tabor's arrest has caused one of the most startling sensations. Twenty dynamite cartridges were found in the top of the parlor organ at the Tabor homestead, three miles northwest of Hudson. There was trouble over the property among members of the family, and the suspicious of the younger brother being aroused, he instituted a search, which resulted in the discovery. The Tabor family, one of the best known and wealthiest in the state, a year ago consisted of Henry Tabor, his wife and three children, Josie, Jennie and Harry. Josie is now Mrs. J. H. Elmore and lives in Hudson. Jennie, although somewhat eccentric, has moved in the best society and has been much sought after. She was her father's favorite and it was generally understood that she would fare best in the division of his estate. Her mother was opposed to this, believing that all the children should be treated alike. A family quarrel ensued, which was suspended for a time, about a year ago, when the widow was adjudged insane and was sent to the asylum for dangerous insane criminals at Iona. The case will now get into the courts.

Waiting to be Ruined.

John Day Sentinel. The men who think that a railroad is going to ruin this section are not quite all dead yet. Fortunately, there is a large majority who are willing to have the country that way. We are among the number and are eagerly awaiting the snort of the iron horse.

"Each Spoonful has done its Perfect Work."

Is the verdict of every woman who has used Royal Baking Powder. Other baking powders soon deteriorate and lose their strength, owing to the use of inferior ingredients, but Royal Baking Powder is so carefully and accurately compounded from the purest materials that it retains its strength for any length of time, and the last spoonful in the can is as good as the first, which is not true of any other baking powder.
