SATURDAY - AUGUST 20, 1892

LOCAL BREVITIES.

Deputy county clerk Ed. Martin left by the Regulator this morning to spend a few days at Collins' landing.

Mrs. Theo. Miller is quite dangerously ill at the residence of her son-in-law, Mr. Thos. Kelley, of The Dalles.

The busy sprinkling wagon is a sort of a squirt, but what would The Dalles be without its refreshing presence?

Ted Marks, an Oregon boy who has made his mark as a theatrical manager, dined at the Umatilla house today, on route east.

The Regulator landing is a great resort of evenings, and when the upholstered and cushioned seats are provided for visitors Sam Campbell will be there to pass the ice cream.

The East Oregonian reports the finding of coal on the Columbia river near Switzlers island. Indications are promising of a good supply of this much desired commodity.

Umatilla county will export about 3,000,000 bushels of wheat this season. In the face of this the statement that crops have failed this year in that section would seem unwarranted.

The Hope Prospector states that the rain of last week saved much valuable timber from being destroyed by forest fires. These have been unusually destructive in that section this year.

Mr. Jack Shephard, the old-time immigration agent of Oregon, at San Francisco, is at the Umatilla house. He is no longer locating immigrants, as that occupation has been superseded by "Oregon on wheels," etc.

A mountain of sand has covered the planking on the Goldendale road one place this side of Gilmores. It makes the road dangerous for teams coming this way, and almost impassable going the other way. A few days scraping would fix it.

A party of our crack sportsmen were out over the hills a short distance from the city yesterday and succeeded in getting five shots, one of which was particularly fine. It brought a spring grouse, which, for plumpness was almost equal to a five months turkey.

Judge Watkins, accompanied by his wife, left yesterday by steamer Regulator, expecting to spend some time at the home of Mrs. Watkins' mother in Hartland, Washington. Mrs. W. is quite feeble, but by the aid of her husband was able to walk from the carriage to the boat.

The racers "Nehalem," "Serrita," and "Mamie S," and the trotter "Anetta," left by steamer Regulator yesterday, in charge of Andy Allen and M. E. Welch, accompanied by riders and grooms, prepared to make the circuit for which they are booked, which includes City View, Salem, Independence, Walla Walla, La Grange and Baker City. When they return to The Dalles, which will be in time for the fair here, commencing October 11th, other favorite horses are expected to accompany them.

Mr. Bert Phelps is actively engaged in organizing a base ball nine to play at Grants on the 26th.

In parts of Garfield county where threshing has been done, barley has yielded from 15 to 60 bushels per acre, while the yield of wheat has been from 12 to 25 bushels. This will leave quite a surplus for export, notwithstanding the predicted failure of crops made some weeks since.

Mr. Hugh Glenn, the only member of the Elks living in The Dalles, left by steamer Regulator yesterday to attend the great clam bake of the B. P. O. E. at Clatsop on the 21st. It is hoped that he will return with a charter in his pocket to organize the Elks in The Dalles, where there is an abundance of good material.

The Stamford, Conn. Advocate, of the 11th, commenting upon things in The Chronicle says: "Charles E. Haight, a former Stamford gentleman, conducts a restaurant in that enterprising city and is a member of the city council. We find by the proceedings of a meeting of the city council that Mr. Haight has been empowered to take action relative to the impounding of cattle running at large in the city, especially cows with bells on them. The problems with which the municipal government of The Dalles has to wrestle are somewhat different from those which confront the Stamford borough board. One of them appear in a petition which is given below;" then follows Judge Watkins' appeal to the council, in full. So the Judge can see by this that his very readable article is abroad in the land upon its mission among dyspeptics.

A DEMONSTRATION AT GRANTS.

A Day to be Decorated With Featvity, Followed by a Grand Ball.

Grants, one of the Dalles young and thrifty neighbors on the east, has set apart Friday next as a day for general jollity, and reunion. The Dalles and Goldendale picked nines will meet on the diamond field to contest for a prize. The barbecue of two oxen, by one of the best caterers in the country, with condiments and sarves, will furnish a free dinner to all at one o'clock p. m. Speeches will be made by Editor John Mitchell, Hon. W. R. Dunbar of Goldendale, and J. B. Hosford, esq., of Moro. Various amusements will intersperse the afternoon programme, including a grand musical festival by members of the Goldendale and Dalles brass bands. The invitation, which is public, says: "The citizens of Grant extend an invitation to the ladies and gentlemen of Wasco, Sherman and Klickitat counties to their grand barbecue and ball on the above date. This entertainment, given by the citizens of Grant, will be one of the most enjoyable events ever held in the county. No expense will be spared to make everybody happy. Come one, come all. Bring your wives and little ones and your best girl. You are all welcome. Reduced rates will be given by the Union Pacific to Grant for the festival. Don't forget it—Friday, August 26, 1892. Walter M. Fraine, President of the day."

Baker County Squirrel Hunt.

Democrat. Polecats are becoming disagreeably numerous in the city and the trace they leave behind them is even more obnoxious than the smell emitted from the basement of the Hotel Warshawer under the most favorable conditions of the weather and the olfactory organs of those who are compelled to endure the nuisance.

STOPPED THE SHIPMENT.

Some People Never Learn Anything. Notably a Scoundrel Monopoly.

As a matter of fact, the steamer Regulator is appreciated here in The Dalles, better than in some other portions of the Inland Empire. The man of business would be considered too slow for anything, here; not to realize the difference between prices now, and prices before the Regulator started. Every dealer tributary, and every farmer, should realize these facts equally as well. There are some, this year in The Dalles, who have become converted to a realizing sense of the situation—persons who have involuntarily surrendered, heretofore—persons whom the railway company have presumed that they owned, body and soul; because, as shippers, they never questioned the methods as others questioned them. The policy of punishing shippers who may have broken away from the old regime, by sidetracking cars destined to them from the N. P. R., or by holding back unjust advances, or bona fide rebates, for from six to twelve or eighteen months, did its work effectually. There are men in business in The Dalles who would ship perishable goods around Cape Horn if necessary, rather than let the U. P. R. Co., have one pound of their freight. J. H. Shearer would let his wool rot in the warehouses before he would give the U. P. R. Co., a pound of it to ship. They lost by him alone this year, a cool fifteen thousand dollars. He is sending his wool direct to Boston by the all water route this year. But all this does not appear to have taught the management of the U. P. R. anything. They are this week duplicating the very same act that drove Mr. Shearer from them, and the party to this transaction is a shipper whose patronage is equally as valuable to a transportation company as that of Mr. Shearer. This gentleman started in to ship by the Regulator, this week, goods to be delivered in Portland to the Merchants Steamship Co., for the Canadian Pacific at Vancouver, B. C. The first lot left all right, then the U. P. R. Co. hatched up charges, and specifications, and issued writs, and served papers, and played thunder in general. They have stopped this shippers shipments this year, probably, as he would have it; but how about the next; and the next?

The Regulator has fixed the rates, and it is the duty of the public to stay by the Regulator.

Press Association Meeting.

Heppner Record. The Oregon Press association will meet some time in next month at The Dalles. The meeting will doubtless be made a source of pleasure and should be made a source of benefit, but if the meeting is conducted as they have been heretofore we fail to see where the benefit comes in, and they had just as well not meet at all except for pleasure.

Bears, Berries, Etc.

Prineville News. Bears and blackberries and picknickers are thick in the Cascades. Last week near one of the Prineville camps they got too thick and the ladies left the berries to the tender mercies of the bear, which ferocious animal "howled too fearfully awful." When the men came in from hunting they repaired to the scene and found the threatening tones to emanate from the tops of two trees that were being chafed together by the wind.

A Hard Corner.

The age of 30 is a hard corner for a woman to turn, and 35 is still harder. She feels that she is fast leaving her youth behind her. But there is no reason why a woman should be faded and passe at 35, or even 45. The chief cause of the early fading of American women is found in the fact that many of them suffer from some form of female weakness or disease that robs the face of its bloom, draws dark circles about the eyes, brings early wrinkles and sallowness, and stamps the face and figure with signs of ill-health. Dr. Prices Favorite Prescription will cure all these troubles, will bring back the lost bloom, and remove the pains and ailments which make women grow old before their time. Guaranteed to give satisfaction in every case, or price ($1.00) refunded.

To The Public.

I have no hesitancy in recommending Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy to the public, as I do to my friends and patrons. I used it myself after other well-known remedies had failed, and it cured me in a few minutes. I recommend it candidly and cheerfully upon its merits, not from a financial standpoint, because I have others in stock on which I make a larger profit, but because Chamberlain's is the best remedy I know of for bowel complaints. There is no doubt about it, it does the work—JAMES FONGY, Druggist, McVeytown, Penn. For sale by Blakeley & Houghton, druggists. d&w

The Old Times are Not In It.

While at our other store at Big Island, Va., last April, I was taken with a very severe attack of diarrhoea. I never had it worse in my life. I tried several old-time remedies, such as Blackberry Wine, Paregoric and Laudannum without getting any relief. My attention was then called to Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy by Mr. R. C. Tinsley who had been handling it there, and in less than five minutes after taking a small dose I was entirely relieved.
