

National Republican Ticket.

FOR PRESIDENT, BENJAMIN HARRISON, of Indiana.

FOR VICE-PRESIDENT, WHITELAW REID, of New York.

FOR PRESIDENTIAL ELECTORS, J. F. CAPLES, of Portland. H. B. MILLER, of Grant's Pass. G. M. IRWIN, of Union. D. M. DUNNE, of Portland.

THOSE INFLUENCE CLUBS.

The husbands, fathers and brothers of America are a little curious as to the plan of attack to be pursued by that aggregation of New York mothers, wives and sisters, which has lately gone in for politics in what is known as the Frances Folsom Influence club, as its members are home women who want to take part in the struggle by exercising a gentle influence upon the voters with whom they come in contact in the quiet paths of domestic life.

But how is that influence to be applied?

It can be taken for granted that the ladies will not wield influence as it is wielded at certain ward elections; by the persuasive eloquence of $2 bills. And they are not likely to make stump speeches. It is this dark uncertainty as to the methods they will pursue that ought to fill the anti-Cleveland voters of New York city with profound apprehension. What insidious and subtle devices they may employ can only be imagined. They may even adopt by-laws giving such instructions as these:

No member will permit her husband to smoke in the parlor until he swears to vote for Cleveland. No member will allow her daughter to receive attentions from a republican. All members will consider it a duty to go through their husbands' pockets regularly at night until the latter have declared allegiance to the democratic platform.

A certain lecture on tariff delivered at 3 a. m., will be found very efficacious if your husband is sleepy.

Demand exorbitant sums for clothing, on the plea that protection raises prices. If your husband comes home late, weep copiously until he tells you what kept him. Then say that if he had been at a democratic rally you wouldn't have cared.

In short, there is no knowing what subtle, insidious and dangerous kinds of influence these clubs may exert. Until the Frances Folsom Influence club, announces a definite policy New York voters will be wary and exceedingly reserved.

While theATTLE headed members of the people's party are talking about Wall street domination of the United States and consequent oppression of the rest of the country, the business of the stock exchange, the central feature of that money centre, is so dead-alive that the institution is having all that it can do to run itself at anything like a fair pace. The American people are becoming more and more independent of Wall street, and its operations, and the absurdity of charging that a few thousand persons are tyrannizing over many millions of freemen is more apparent now than ever before.

Conrad Jordan of Salisbury, Md., who died a few days ago, was an eye witness of some of the great events of the first Napoleon's time. When only 8 years old he saw the famous battle of Leipsic, and a few years later was with Napoleon at Waterloo. He was a son of Marshal Jordan.

There doesn't seem to be much danger of a fusion of the democrats and peoples party in Minnesota. Ig. Donnelly, the peoples candidate for governor, is getting an average of three columns of abuse a day from the democratic St. Paul Globe.

Free silver is the price of Colorado's electoral vote this year, and either way it is in a limited demand.

Texas Railway Commission Suits. DALLAS, Aug. 23.—In a decision in the case of the railroads against the Texas railroad commissioners, Judge McCormick has decided every point in favor of the railroad companies, and granted an injunction against the commissioners, restraining them from establishing the proposed rates. These rates as proposed by the commission, the railroads claimed would compel them to run the roads at a serious loss.

Too Much For Oscar. NEW YORK, Aug. 23.—When asked why her husband, Mr. Wilde, did not return to America with her, Mrs. Lealie, as her many acquaintances persist in calling her, replied: "The climate does not agree with Mr. Wilde. It is too exhilarating. His nature needs repose. I hope he will be so far recovered as to join me later. He is a very capable man, but our climate acts peculiarly on him."

It's a sign that you need help, when pimples, blotches, and eruptions begin to appear. Your blood needs looking after. You'll have graver matters than pimples to deal with, if you neglect it. Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery prevents and cures all diseases and disorders caused by impure blood. It invigorates the liver, purifies the blood, and promotes all the bodily functions. For all forms of scrofulous, skin and scalp disease, and even Consumption (which is really lung-scrofula) in all its earlier stages, it is a certain remedy. It's the only one that's guaranteed, in every case, to benefit or cure, or the money is refunded. It's a matter of confidence in one's medicine.

It is the cheapest blood-purifier sold, through druggists, because you only pay for the good you get. Can you ask more? The "Discovery" acts equally well all the year round.
