LOCAL BREVITIES.

Dr. Clement Milward, of Grant, was in the city today.

Hon. W. Lair Hill was in the city today enroute to Seattle.

Mr. H. G. Knapp, of Buffalo, N. Y., is registered at the Umatilla house.

The Columbia is getting down to its boating level; but it is very slow about it.

Mr. L. Rorden, city treasurer, returned from his outing last evening by steamer Regulator.

Stages leaving the city this morning were all well filled. The Goldendale stage, arriving at noon had several passengers.

The weather today rather intimates to Summer: "Your back bone is about to give way; pretty soon your name will be mud."

The Rockland-Dalles ferry boat has been having more trouble with its cable, but today everything is all right for uninterrupted trips.

Mrs. E. P. Koontz left yesterday for Tacoma after having a pleasant time visiting her parents, and many friends on 5-Mile.

Persons having horses to sell will do well to correspond with J. S. Cooper, Chicago. For address see advertisement in another column today.

All parties holding numbers in the crayon, at D. C. Herren's gallery, are requested to be present Sept. 1st, at 2 p. m. at the gallery.

Mr. Wyndham, one of the best barbers in Portland, expects to take an interest in the Neptune baths of this city about the first of next month.

Mr. John Robinson has purchased a lot on Tenth street, west of Union, for which he paid $800.00, an advance of $100.00 in less than 30 days.

Master Chas. P. Lewis returned from his visit to Bayville. He was too busy on the ranch to go to Canyon city. He comes back weighing within two pounds of his father.

Water in abundance is found by digging a short distance almost anywhere on the Grand Dalles tract. Mr. Wheelton is excavating an old sink which he has every reason to believe will furnish an abundance of flowing water for the proposed glass factory, and other purposes.

A customer was hunting over files in the county clerk's office today in pursuit of some clue to the ownership of reparian rights not yet jumped in the county, when he said he guessed he'd have to give it up, and the man when lying went under "a consumed named" and he had forgotten what it was.

Rev. T. W. Atkinson, of Bickleton, was in attendance at the camp meeting last night, en route to Portland. He informs us that a ten days camp meeting is to be held at Bickleton beginning Sept. 8th. Bickleton is situated on the extreme spur of Simcoe mountains, on the eastern timber belt, north of Arlington in a very prosperous region.

An active boy can learn of a situation by applying at THE CHRONICLE office.

A private note from Prof. Smith informs us that he expects to be at home after this week.

As the steamer Regulator was leaving White Salmon for The Dalles yesterday a horse attached to a buggy left standing at the landing by Mr. Warner, took fright and ran away. A little girl seated in the buggy was thrown out, and the buggy dashed to pieces.

The Teachers Institute is still in session. Attendants at the session at the Court house last evening were rewarded with some excellent singing, and a very appropriate address of welcome by Mr. John Michell, responded to by Mr. C. L. Gilbert. A beautiful piece "Come to me, gentle dreams," by six young ladies of The Dalles, was the closing piece, a lecture by Prof. Bloss. The daily exercises in the brick school house, are devoted to the instruction of teachers.

Oregon Boys.

Thomas Mulkey, nominated for the legislature in Whitman county, by the democrats, is a son of the late Johnson Mulkey, of Corvallis, who crossed the plains in 1847, from Johnson county, Mo. He learned the printers trade in the Corvallis Gazette office, and spent fifteen years as a journeyman printer and publisher. He is at present engaged in farming. He never took an active part in politics, but has been a life-long democrat. The late M. F. Mulky, the wealthy attorney of Portland, was a brother, and Senator J. N. Dolph, is a brother-in-law.

James H. Price, republican candidate for secretary of state of Washington, was born at Oregon City, June 18th, 1847. His father had the first machine shop in the state of Oregon. During the war he served in the First regiment, Oregon infantry. He saw service out on the plains. On leaving the army Mr. Price went into railroad engineering and was a member of the corps which set the first posts on the first line out of Portland. He went to Washington in 1874 and was in the customs service on the sound for eleven years. He then served as a purser on the Oregon Railway and Navigation Company steamers for a year and a half. He is now serving his second term as sheriff of Pierce county. He is a brother-in-law of Senator Mitchell, of Oregon, and a uncle of the Duchess de la Rochefoucauld, of France. His wife is a relative of the vice-presidential democratic candidate, Adlai Stevenson.

The Columbus Souvenir.

The Dalles might feel a justifiable gratification should the design for the impression upon the half dollar Columbus souvenir coins come from a connoisseur of this city. Mr. Balf Johnson has succeeded in producing a very fine and appropriate design for the reverse side to the likeness. The model shows a ship of the style Columbus sailed in upon his voyage of discovery, with a statuette of the voyager on board giving his appearance when scanning the horizon for land. Inasmuch as these coins are bound to be preserved and cherished as souvenirs, the head upon them should be sketched and pictured and reproduced in but one way. The coin itself cannot legally be imitated, but the likeness thereon will doubtless be taken in some way as authentic, and, very likely, will appear more commonly than any other portrait during the great anniversary year. In the popular eye, at least, this design by Mr. Johnson might be taken to be the man Columbus.

Association Entertainment.

Denver has just concluded a grand and expensive entertainment of the Knights Templar, to the manifest benefit of the community. Kansas City is doing the same this week for the Knights of Pythias. The next in line will be the entertainment of the Sovereign grand lodge of Odd Fellows, which will convene in Portland on the 17th of September, which will be one of the grandest gatherings ever held in Oregon. The programme arranged for their entertainment shows the enterprise of the people of the consolidated city. One thousand dollars in prizes will be awarded for competitive drills, and excursions have been arranged in various directions. On Wednesday, the 21st, an excursion via Corvallis and Albany, and return to Portland has been arranged for. Following this, in line comes the Oregon Press Association meeting at The Dalles on the 4th of October. The Dalles isn't quite so big as Denver, or Kansas City, or Portland—but as a community it is proposed to show the press gang that we know a thing or two here about how to entertain, and when they get back to their sanctuaries the boys will just say: "The Dalles is all right." There's nothing small about The Dalles.

We are prepared right now to wager $5 against a hairpin that there are more people in Mars than there are in Belva Lockwood's party.

The true test of a baking powder is well known to every housekeeper. It is to try it making bread, cake, etc., and we are of the opinion that it will be impossible to remove from the minds of our housewives the conviction long ago formed from the application of this practical test, that the Royal does make the best, the most, and the most wholesome.

McKinley and the McKinley bill are so well thought of in Ohio that the governor will be able to manage the democrats in that state single handed, leaving other Buckeye orators at liberty to invade other states conquering and to conquer.

Our dear little daughter was terribly sick. Her bowels were bloated as hard as a brick. We feared she would die. Till we happened to try Pierce's Pellets—they cured her, remarkably quick.

Never be without Pierce's Pellets in the house. They are gentle and effective in action and give immediate relief in cases of indigestion, biliousness and constipation. They do their work thoroughly and have no bad effects. Smallest, cheapest, easiest to take. One a dose. Best liver pill made.

The Old Times are Not in It.

While at our other store at Big Island, Va., last April, I was taken with a very severe attack of diarrhoea. I never had it worse in my life. I tried several old-time remedies, such as Blackberry Wine, Paregoric and Laudanum without getting any relief. My attention was then called to Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy by Mr. E. C. Timley who had been handling it there, and in less than five minutes after taking a small dose I was entirely relieved. —O. G. BURROD, Harris Creek, Amherst Co., Va. ### To The Public.

I have no hesitancy in recommending Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy to the public, as I do to my friends and patrons. I used it myself after other well-known remedies had failed, and it cured me in a few minutes. I recommend it candidly and cheerfully upon its merits, not from a financial stand-point, because I have others in stock on which I make a larger profit, but because Chamberlain's is the best remedy I know of for bowel complaints. There is no doubt about it, it does the work—JAMES FONGY, Druggist, McVeytown, Penn. For sale by Blakeley & Houghton, druggists. d&w
