LOCAL BRIEVITIES.

H. C. Rooper and family left for home at Beaverton this morning.

The Inland Star is the name given to Mr. Kennedy's new steam launch.

Dr. Logan visits Astoria and Clatsop tomorrow. He left by the afternoon train today.

Mr. F. M. Bixby, the new quill driver of the Wasco News, called today en route to Portland.

The world's wonder is a double calf, born in Klhikittat county, now on exhibition in The Dalles.

County clerk J. B. Crossen leaves for San Francisco on business this afternoon. Mrs. Crossen will return with him.

Assistant Superintendent A. J. Borie, who has been in The Dalles for several days, returned to La Grande yesterday.

The crowd which attended the Grant celebration yesterday returned on the early morning train. The dance was enjoyed.

The work train, which moons and nights in The Dalles, is employed in filling trestles between Crates point and Chenoweth.

Mr. V. H. Brown the piano tuner and repairer, will be in this city in a few days. Leave your orders at E. Jacobson & Co's. music store.

It is said that a match game of base ball, for a prize, will be played in this city soon between the Goldendale and Dalles clubs.

Now that the switchmen's strike is off, the question worrying the men who went out is whether the railroad will take them back.

The base ball game at Grant was not played yesterday as the Goldendale club failed to come to time. The game was forfeited to The Dalles nine.

The Seattle canal scheme, it is expected, will aid the democracy in electing J. N. Sniely, of Yakima, governor. It will be a sectional fight.

A lamp explosion at the residence of W. H. Butts, caused a fire alarm last evening. Fortunately the services of the department were not needed.

Congressman Ellis is in Portland, having passed through The Dalles last evening. He is not able to walk, but gets about very well on crutches.

W. H. Wells and family, of Sheras bridge, were passengers to Portland by steamer Regulator this morning. They will extend their visit to Puget sound.

A. Faragher, the Portland cattle dealer, is at the Umattilla house; also Mr. H. R. Duniway, the Portland lumber dealer, and A. E. Lyle, of Hay creek.

In consequence of the mania for a terminus at the mouth of the Columbia, Tanzy Point has been rubbed off the Clatsop county map and Terminus substituted.

Mosler is well represented today by the arrival in town of L. C. Baker, Robt. Denemore, Frank Ladene and J. Fredrick, well known farmers of that vicinity.

The Christian church edifice, at The Dalles, will be 39x61 feet in size, handsomely proportioned. The lot upon which it is to be built was donated by Mr. Geo. Miller.

Among those at Cloud Cap Inn this week are United States district attorney Pierce Mays and family, of Portland. This is really the best season to visit Cloud Cap Inn.

Among those registered at the New Columbia today are Prof. Johnson, of the state university, W. J. Woodford, of Portland, C. P. Ragsdale, of Moro, and A. Hurd, of Devils Lake.

Walla Walla made her first shipment of fruit to the east this week, in a car load of exceedingly fine pears. The result of the experiment will be watched with much interest by the fruit growers of that region.

The first carload of new wheat to reach a coast shipping point from the Oregon Inland Empire, was hauled from Pendleton to Tacoma this week. Taken as an object lesson this is an illustration more forcible than words favoring an open Columbia river.

Mr. McMullen, of this city today shipped a box of sample peaches to his father in Wisconsin. It is safe to predict that every peach in that box, if the package reaches its destination in order, will cause longings in the minds of those who partake of the fruit, to cast their lines in such pleasant places as The Dalles.

The Hood River Glacier of today, referring to the Grant barbecue and celebration on the location of a distillery at that point, notes the fact that "a short time ago the general sentiment of the county was such that all saloons were refused licenses, and that the sale of liquor was considered as if no doubt is, an unmitigated evil, but that the establishing of the industry of manufacturing this self-same liquor for some one else to drink is heralded with the blare of trumpet and the concomitant speech making necessary in this land of the free." On the same page 175 names of Hood River citizens appear appended to a petition to the Wasco county court for a license to sell.

Church Notices.

Christian church services in the court house at 3 p. m. Sunday. Elder J. Dillard Holman will preach.

Congregational church services in the court house Sunday a. m. at 11 o'clock; Sunday school at 12:15; Young Peoples Society of Christian Endeavor at 6:30 p. m. All cordially invited.

Union services at the court house Sunday evening at 8 o'clock. Preaching by Elker Jenkins.

THE MCCOY DITCH SCHEME.

Not One Clause Acceptable to the Hood River People.

That citizens of Hood River adopt the position of THE CHRONICLE, on the subject of a corporation grasping all the rights of the public to the waters of the Inland Empire, is pretty clearly attested by the proceedings of the citizens of school district No. 2, assembled at their school house last Wednesday evening to consider the proposition of G. W. McCoy of Portland to construct an irrigating ditch and furnish water to the farmers of the valley. A. F. Blythe was elected chairman and J. V. Armer secretary of the meeting. After the chairman had stated the object of the meeting the secretary read the blank contract furnished by Mr. McCoy.

On motion, the secretary was asked to read the contract a second time for the important points to be discussed between the reading.

The main points of the contract were then thoroughly discussed, no part of the contract finding favor with the audience. The features of the contract most objectionable were the clauses embracing the agreement for ninety-nine years, the mortgage of the lands to be irrigated for that length of time, the giving to towns the precedence in the use of water when by any means the supply is limited, giving the company sixty feet right of way over lands irrigated and the right to come upon the land and say how the water shall be used, and the surrender of all rights, whether riparian or otherwise, in existing water courses to the company. This latter clause was most objectionable.

The contract as a whole, was rejected by unanimous vote. On motion it was decided to have the proceedings of this meeting published in the Glacier. On motion it was decided to meet at the same place Saturday evening, Sept. 3d, to further consider the water question.

BRIGHTER DAYS DAWNING.

The Beginnings at The Dalles Foreboding Future Prosperity to all.

We are more than gratified, at being told today by Manager Dunham, of the Columbia River Fruit Co., that before fruit ripens in The Dalles another year, that company will have a cannery constructed here, capable of putting up in first class Eastern style, all the surplus fruit of their farms, and possibly some of the surplus of other producers. This is what the country needs. Mills to grind our wheat into flour; factories to work up our surplus wool in cloth; our surplus leather into boots, shoes, belting, harness, etc., our coal and iron, minerals and precious metals into articles of daily utility—and the day is not far off when these will come, after the commencement, even in small beginnings. This year has witnessed unprecedented prosperity to all in the vicinity of The Dalles, engaged in wool, fruit and grain production, because of the liberal course to shippers pursued by the Dalles, Portland and Astoria Navigation Co., aided by the best investment ever yet made by the state to the people, in the construction of the little portage railway at the cascades. It is the Hope of THE CHRONICLE that the human mind, which sometimes defies analysis from its stupid stubbornness, may see, from the things here apparent, the necessity for continuing these good works, and that the assembly which is to meet in Salem next January will be one of such wisdom as shall provide another portage at the dalles, in order that the productions of our neighbors to the east of us may no longer be compelled to seek the thousand mile circuit to the coast with their wheat, etc., for shipment to foreign ports.

EDUCATIONAL.

FOR PURE FOOD.

Laudable Action by Boards of Health Upon the Baking Powder Question.

Boards of health can engage in no more commendable action than the examination of our food supply and the instruction of the public as to those articles which are found to be pure and wholesome, and which, therefore, consumers should use.

Action of this kind with the baking powders is particularly opportune. There are quantities of baking powders in the market, to use which is certain detriment to the health of the consumer. They are made from alum, or improperly compounded from other chemicals, so that they leave a strong alkaline residuum in the food. Many of these powders, having proved unsalable in the east, have been collected by the manufacturers from the dealers with whom they were left, on commission, and shipped to the Pacific coast. In the effort to gain a foothold in this market, unscrupulous manufacturers of these cheaply made, low grade baking powders have indulged in extravagant statements, both with reference to their own and other brands, claiming the most improbable endorsements for theirs and defaming the brands best known and longest used upon the Pacific coast.

The following extracts, from the reports of some of our well-known health authorities, will be of particular interest:

The state chemist of Washington, Prof. G. A. Reihm, says: "There is, therefore, no question but the Royal is the strongest, purest and most wholesome baking powder in the market."

The Seattle board of health says: "Finding in analysis that it is made of the highest grade of cream of tartar and bicarbonate of soda, and is entirely free from any adulteration, we heartily recommend the Royal baking powder for its great strength, purity and wholesomeness."

The Tacoma board of health says: "In our judgment, the Royal is the best and strongest baking powder before the public. We confidently recommend it because of its purity and care of preparation."

The Spokane city board of health reports: "There is certainly no baking powder known to us equal to the Royal for strength and uniform quality, and we recommend it for its absolute purity and wholesomeness."

The board of health of the city of San Francisco, after extended tests, said of the Royal, "that it is absolutely pure and healthful, composed of the best ingredients, of the highest strength and character;" the health officer of Los Angeles reported that "it was clearly demonstrated and proven that the Royal baking powder is pure and wholesome, and that it stands, as far as strength and purity are concerned, at the head of the baking powders of the United States;" while the state chemist of California, Prof. Rising, found the Royal superior in strength and purity to all other brands.

A Reliable Man.

M. J. Griner, a Justice of the Peace at Print, Michigan, says one bottle of Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy saved his life. He had been down with bloody flux for three weeks when he commenced using this medicine. It soon cured him, and he believes saved his life. He also says it saved the lives of three railroad men in that vicinity. "Squire Griner is a reliable and conscientious man, and whatever he says can be depended upon." For sale by Blakeley & Houghton, druggists.

Needs Expounding.

It was the Washington Independent which developed the only advocate in the Inland Empire to display hostility to an open river. The editor of that paper is now a candidate for the Washington legislature on the democratic ticket. In a late issue of his paper he says:

For the sake of the great mass of our laboring men, women and children who have laid the foundation of a great state against whose granite walls 1,500 millions of the mighty Pacific dashes her crooked foam, let us arise as one man and hurl every boodling candidate to the dust of defeat and support men for the legislative offices who have the nerve and ability, if necessary, to grapple in death struggles with our enemies on the floors of our state house and prove to the world that the common people of Washington have rights and dare maintain them in just demands.

If Bro. Mays was left to interpret that expression on the stump he would perhaps say that it meant a vote for himself. The people, however, will interpret the sentence differently, and snow him under on election day with clean white ballots.

Our dear little daughter was terribly sick. Her bowels were bloated as hard as a brick. We feared she would die. Till we happened to try Pierce's Pellets—they cured her, remarkably quick.

Never be without Pierce's Pellets in the house. They are gentle and effective in action and give immediate relief in cases of indigestion, biliousness and constipation. They do their work thoroughly and have no bad effects. Small, cheap, easiest to take. One a dose. Best liver pill made.

Saved His Child's Life.

A. N. Dillibrough, York, Neb., says: "The other day I came home and found my little boy down with cholera morbus, my wife scared, not knowing what to do. I went straightway and got a 25 cent bottle of Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy, and gave it according to directions. You never saw such a change in a child. His limbs and body were cold. I rubbed his limbs and body with my hands, and after I had given him the second dose he went to sleep, and, as my wife says, 'from a death-bed he was up playing in three hours.' It saved me a doctor bill of about three dollars, and what is better, it saved my child. I can recommend it with a clear conscience." For sale by Blakeley & Houghton, druggists.
