FRIDAY - SEPTEMBER 2, 1892

LOCAL BREVITIES.

Mr. T. Saunders of Wapinitia is now located at The Dalles.

The Dalles city water company have $4,000 to loan. See advertisement.

Bathing in the Columbia is not such a luxury at The Dalles this fall as it was last summer.

Mrs. Ward and Mr. Kerns returned from Portland by steamer Regulator last evening.

Canoe riding on the Columbia, at The Dalles, is now a favorite pastime with our young men.

Cates & Allison make daily shipments of ice to Grant, for Messrs. McIntosh, McLeod, and others.

Several marriage licenses, issued this week, indicate the usual fall rise in the matrimonial market.

Nich. J. Corish has safely reached his home in Ireland. He found his mother alive, but there is little hope of her recovery.

Mr. W. C. Woodworth, of Salem, is visiting in The Dalles. He came through from the capitol city yesterday forenoon.

Old papers, suitable for carpets or shelves, can be had at this office for 25 cents per hundred. We have a large supply.

J. O. Mack will have something to say in his new ad. to-morrow, to which we might add a word by saying "ne plus ultra."

Mrs. J. J. Wiley returned from her visit to friends in the Willamette valley, and on Shoalwater bay, by steamer Regulator last evening.

Several more lots belonging to the city will be offered for sale, at no distant day, at public auction, for the benefit of the water works fund.

Collectors today found collections easy, and there was quite a rush for the banks just before 3 p. m., with liberal deposits for the day.

The parlors of Mr. and Mrs. Morgan, on Union street, bore a very lively appearance last night from 9 to 12 o'clock, at the reception given to the teachers of The Dalles public schools.

Mr. and Mrs. Montgomery and Mr. Chas. Humbert, and his sisters Emma and Fannie, left by steamer Regulator this morning for a visit to Clatsop. They have chosen the best season for the trip.

A. E. Lake, whose sawmill was destroyed by fire on the 4th of July, left last night for Portland, with an order through Filloen & Co., for all new machinery to replace the mill, and make it better than ever.

Capt. J. W. Lewis of The Dalles U. S. land office, has returned from his trip very much benefited. While absent he visited the capitol city, Salem, and brings with him cheering words to ye scribe, from old-time friends, Phil. Metschan, Maj. Frank E. Hodgkin, et al.

At the drawing for the life-size crayon at D. C. Herrin's gallery, the prize was awarded to Mrs. J. M. Huntington.

The list of passengers by steamer Regulator increases daily. The fare is just as advertised, from the start.

Soda water is recommended as an antidote for cholera. C. L. Phillips beet will soon be going off like hot cakes.

W. J. Marden has a vacation of ten days, beginning with this evening. He will make a visit to the metropolis, and perhaps to the city by the sounding sea.

A troop of sharpshooters, returning from practice to make up a team to send to England to compete for the medal, passed through The Dalles today, to their various posts inland.

A trio of tin horn gamblers attempted to put up a job on a countryman last evening, but the vigilant eye of city Marshal Malone's tricked them, and they left the city as silently as they came here.

Mr. C. R. Bone of Grant, received a new buckboard from Portland yesterday, and a team of horses from Hood River, and with the combination thus formed struck out this morning over Klickitat hills for Goldendale.

The Tennessee Jubilee Singers will give one of their first-class entertainments at the Armory tomorrow evening. They come recommended by the press, and will doubtless afford a pleasant evening to those who attend.

If teamsters continue their petty annoyances, and repeated obstruction of the stages on the roads south of The Dalles, Deputy U. S. Marshal Jameson will soon be compelled to divert his attention to a class of offenders against the whites. It is a criminal act to detain the U. S. Mail willfully, feloniously, and without cause.

The old original Tennessee Jubilee Singers will give one of their famous concerts in Armory hall, Saturday eve., Sept. 3d. The feature of the evening will be the old fashioned southern camp-meeting melodies and slave songs that originated in the south. This is a first-class company, composed of colored ladies and gentlemen. Go and hear them. Admission 25 and 50 cents.

Those apples in THE CHRONICLE bow window today, represent the size of some peaches brought in this morning from Creighton's fruit farm, on 3-Mile. The peaches were transferred to Mrs. Dr. Ingalls, by Mr. Hubbard, to be preserved by her process, along with some superb specimens of other varieties of Wasco county fruit which is to go into the exhibit at Portland in the exposition, and after carrying off the first prizes there, as was done last year; will then go to Chicago, as an invitation for people to come to Oregon, particularly to this Inland Empire, where they may find an unlimited wealth of natural, undeveloped resources, awaiting practical development. Three of the peaches above referred to weighed thirty-two ounces. They measured each 10½ inches in circumference.

Hose Co. Meeting.
The members of Columbia Hose Co., No. 2, are requested to meet at the council rooms Saturday evening, at 8 o'clock sharp. By order H. J. MAIER, President.

$4,000 to Loan.
In sums to suit, on improved inside property. $4,000 of Dalles City water funds apply to HUGH CHAMBERLAIN, Secy. Dalles Water Com.

THE PRESS ASSOCIATION.

Suggestions from Mr. E. C. Pentland.
Late Secretary.

Mr. E. C. Pentland, well and favorably known in this city, lately secretary of the Press association, in a private letter to Mr. S. L. Brooks, offers some suggestions respecting the coming meeting of the Oregon press association in this city. The Mountaineer, commenting upon the letter, says:

Mr. Pentland's letter should be acted upon. There is no board of trade or chamber of commerce here, and therefore the public interested in the growth of the city and future prosperity of the Inland Empire should take the matter in hand. In the first place a committee of invitation should be appointed, and also one on reception. The duty of the first should be to write to each editor requesting his presence at The Dalles on the occasion, and when they arrive the second committee should see that they are properly received and places provided for them during their stay in the city. These editors must visit the Cascade Locks and be shown the importance of a boat railway as a permanent means of overcoming the obstacles above this city. Perhaps the services of Senators Dolph or Mitchell or Representatives Hermann or Wilson could be secured to present the matter in an intelligent manner and show the benefits of an open river and how this great work can be accomplished before congress. This requires money, but our city is wealthy, and it would do more to make known our natural advantages than any other method that could be employed. By the use of such means the editors of the state will be educated to the importance to the Inland Empire of opening the Columbia river, and they will go back to their duties and give publicity of this knowledge to their readers. If the people of The Dalles desire these brain-workers and brain-molders to enjoy their trip, they must provide for their entertainment, and that in a liberal manner. In order to do this properly no time is to be wasted, and a public meeting should be called at once. We must arouse ourselves from the usual lethargy, and begin work immediately.

The First Anniversary.

One year ago today, at one o'clock p. m., the dread alarm of fire startled the people of The Dalles, and a fight against the elements began which lasted until after the shades of evening, and which can never be forgotten by any person who participated in it. A vast amount of property was consumed, business destroyed, homes laid waste, and desolated blocks, covered with wreckage, was all that was left to mark the once beautiful site of fifty-one half of the city. The scene has changed day by day, until the blackened spots in many places are dotted with new and handsome structures, residences and church edifices restored, business places resumed; and the wealth of The Dalles and the pluck of her citizens re-established. The shade trees, which were the pride of the inhabitants and which went up with the rest in the great holocaust, have not been replanted in proportion to the construction of buildings, but before another year very much more attention will be paid to this particular branch of ornament, and at the present rate of progress the last vestige of the disaster may be totally obliterated in three years.

Preparations Being Made for Attending the Veteran Parade, Monday.

Another meeting of firemen was held at the common council chamber last evening, at which there was a large attendance to further consider the matter of preparations for attending the Veteran parade in Portland on Monday next. The officers presided who were in attendance at a previous meeting. The following delegates were appointed:

East End Hood and Ladder Co.—J. L. Kuck, A. J. Moses, Wallace Fargher. Jackson Engine Co.—A. Bettinggen, John Crate, H. Clough.

Columbia Hose Co.—Ed. Williams, Sam. Campbell, H. Master. Mt. Hood Hose Co.—I. J. Norman, C. L. Phillips.

In addition to the above, going as delegates, the following volunteers from Jackson Engine Co. will attend: Frank Roach, H. Whitmore, Al Kilind, F. W. L. Skibbe, G. Norwak, E. Schutz, W. Hill, Isaac Perry, Jim Wood, Geo. Williams, B. Williams, W. H. Butts, Alex. Hugenin.

Another meeting will be held tonight, at the same place, to further consider the subject. It is hoped that a delegation of at least sixty will go. The Dalles will stand a good chance of getting the next annual parade, if they take an interest in this year's meeting, such as the present appearances indicate they will take.

We are informed that this will be the first outing of The Dalles fire department since 1863. If so they certainly deserve it; and that it will be one of enjoyment to all, and of benefit to the department, none can gainsay. Remember the meeting tonight.

Imported Bucks.
The trip of Senator Charles Hilton to California matured in the purchase of forty-one blooded Spanish Merino bucks. They arrived by steamer Regulator last evening, and were greatly admired by all who saw them passing through the streets to the stock yards from the boat, for shipment to the ranch in Gilliam county. Senator Hilton arrived on the noon train yesterday.

At the stock yards yesterday also arrived, from Omaha, via U. P. R., sixteen head of blooded Spanish Merino bucks, and six ewes, purchased by Hon. C. W. Cartwright, of Crook county. With such stock as this coming into the Inland Empire, it is not to be wondered at, that The Dalles is acquiring a solid reputation abroad, from Pacific to Atlantic ports, as being the best market in the United States in which to buy wool.

Notice.
Having accepted a position in the U. S. land office, my office hours at my own office in the Ruch building will be from 7 to 9 a. m. and from 4 to 8 p. m. J. M. HUNTINGTON.

A Beau of 1829.

When grandpa went a'wooling,
He wore a satin vest,
A trail of running roses
Embroidered on the breast.
The pattern of his trousers,
His linen, white and fine,
Were all the latest fashion
In its eighten twenty-nine.

Grandpa was a fine-looking young fellow then, so the old ladies say, and he is a fine-looking old gentleman now. For the past score of years he has been a firm believer in the merits of Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery. "It renewed my youth," he frequently says. "It is the only blood purifier and liver invigorator guaranteed to benefit or cure, or money promptly refunded. It cures liver disease, dyspepsia, scrofulous sores, skin eruptions, and all diseases of the blood. For lingering coughs and consumption (which is lung-scrofula in its early stages) it is an unparalleled remedy."

Notice.
The Dalles, Wasco county, Or., Aug. 23d, 1892. I hereby notify all business men, and the public generally, that I will not be responsible for any debts contracted by my wife, Mrs. F. J. Davis, she having left my bed and board. S. 24d57w1 Ed. DAVIS.

The Dalles, Oregon, Aug. 12th, 1892. G. J. FARLEY, Secretary Wasco Warehouse Co. tds.12 w

Saved His Child's Life.

A. N. Differbough, York, Neb., says: "The other day I came home and found my little boy down with cholera morbus, my wife scared, not knowing what to do. I went straightway and got a 25 cent bottle of Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhea Remedy, and gave it according to directions. You never saw such a change in a child. His limbs and body were cold. I rubbed his limbs and body with my hands, and after I had given him the second dose he went to sleep, and as my wife says, 'from a death-bed he was up playing in three hours.' It saved me a doctor bill of about three dollars, and what is better, it saved my child. I can recommend it with a clear conscience." For sale by Blakely & Houghton, druggists.

Notice.

Notice is hereby given that sealed proposals for the construction of a corral for impounding cattle will be received at my office until Saturday September 3d, 1892, at four o'clock, p. m., according to the plans and specifications prepared by the street commissioner and now on file in my office. The committee reserves the right to reject any and all bids. By order of the committee on streets and public property. FRANK MENEFER, Recorder of Dalles City. Dated Aug. 31, 1892. 8-31-9-3

A Traveling Man's Experience With Diarrhoea.

I am a traveling man and have been afflicted with what is called chronic diarrhoea for some ten years. Last fall I was in Western Pennsylvania, and accidentally was introduced to Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy. I ventured to make a trial and was wonderfully relieved. I would like now to introduce it among my friends. H. M. Lewis, 24 Freeman street, Cleveland, Ohio. For sale by Blakely & Houghton, druggists.

Stock Holders Meeting.

The regular annual meeting of the stock holders of THE CHRONICLE Publishing Company will be held in the hall over THE CHRONICLE office at 8 p. m., October 14th, 1892.
