SATURDAY - - - SEPT. 8, 1892

LOCAL BREVITIES.

Gov. Moody returned to Salem this morning.

Mrs. M. Neff, and Mrs. L. Neff, of Hood River, are at The Umatilla.

The family of Mr. J. C. Baldwin have returned to The Dalles from Tekoa.

Mr. and Mrs. C. W. Fairchild, of Grass Valley, are at The Umatilla.

The California, Oregon and Idaho stage manager Branner, is in the city.

Ladies in want of a domestic will hear of one by applying at THE CHRONICLE office.

A. E. Lake, of Wamic, returned last night from Portland. The new mill will soon follow.

F. M. Confer of Wapinitia, arrived on the night train from Portland and left for home today.

Leo Schanno will leave on Monday next to resume studies at Mount Angel college next week, on the 7th.

The river is still eight feet and 4-tenths above zero at The Dalles. The water seems to recede very slowly.

Old papers, suitable for carpets or shelves, can be had at this office for 25 cents per hundred. We have a large supply.

Mrs. J. A. Shepard, of Portland, was a passenger on the Regulator, and is visiting at her brother's, Mr. C. L. Phillips.

Overcoats were cheery this morning early, in the crisp autumn air; so fine as to challenge the admiration of the world.

Mr. Frank Taylor who has been visiting in The Dalles for the past week, returned to his home in Hood River this morning.

Joe and Gus Rogan left for Mount Angel college by steamer Regulator this morning, to commence student life next week.

S. W. Young, and Miss May Hannah, guests of Mr. and Mrs. C. W. Fairchild, of Grass Valley, arrived at The Dalles last night from Scio.

Mrs. Phillips, having concluded to retire from business, will dispose of her entire stock of millinery by auction, commencing next Tuesday.

A change of firm takes place in the house of E. Jacobsen & Co., as well as a change of the ad. Read the news in the ads., as well as other columns.

Business is very brisk in the city today; and the streets present a lively appearance because of so many people being in town from the country.

Mr. Phil Brogan left on the stage for home today. He expects to be living in his new home at The Dalles within sixty days, and a nice home it will be, too.

Miss Louise and Florence Ragnet, who have been visiting Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Garretson of The Dalles, left for their home in Oregon City via steamer Regulator, this morning.

School opens next Monday, and the boys will need new suits. We can fit them out complete. We have suits, with knee pants, for $2.00; youth's suits with long pants for $5.00, all beauties and in the prevailing colors. In extra pants we can give you the knee for 50 cents, and the long for $2.00. If they want hats or caps, we have them, a new lot, just arrived from the east, all the latest styles and colors. In shoes we offer you "The Waverly School Shoe" as a special, but we can give you a good shoe as low as $1.50. Our stock in all lines is full and complete. Come in and look it over.

PEASE & MAYS.

The Society for the prevention of cruelty to animals, should send an officer up this way to pull a few unmerciful drivers of the cowboy persuasion on The Dalles and Canyon city road.

The beach campers have made quite a profitable haul of merchantable rubbish along the city front this week. Their little piles of accumulated stores will ornament many a tepee and keep off the chilly blasts of sundry winds.

Five pounds of grapes on a vine three feet long, is what made a very handsome photograph at D. C. Herrins gallery this week. The fruit was grown by Mr. John Pashek, on Mill creek, and is only one more fact added to the list that Wasco cannot be beaten in the fruit line.

Conductor Coman, wife and two daughters, came up by U. P. R., last night, and returned by steamer Regulator today for a trip over the finest scenic route in the Pacific northwest. It will be a revelation, notwithstanding his almost daily run by rail between the same points.

It probably would not make very much if any difference with the republicans of Oregon should the Hon. W. D. Hare draw out of the party and challenge its leaders to discussion, as the Astoria Budget says he has done. But Mr. Hare himself says the story is a third-party-democratic lie. He has done no such thing.

Rev. Mr. Wigle called today, as he was in the city, and we were glad to hear from him of the wonderful success attending Dr. Vanderpool's operation upon a number of cancers on the neck and face of Mrs. Wigle, one of which was quite a large one. They came to Dufur June 14th, and are now almost ready to return to their home in the valley, Mrs. W. cured.

Farewell Party.

That the young people of The Dalles are determined to enjoy themselves, in spite of the threatened invasion of cholera, was plainly evinced last evening at the residence of Mrs. N. B. Sinnott, where a farewell party was given in honor of Roger B. Sinnott, prior to his departure for college. At an early hour the spacious, elegantly-decorated parlors were filled with young people. During the evening selections were given by some of the members of the mandolin and guitar club. Dancing was indulged in by all, and at the intermissions the people were favored by instrumental and vocal music. The renditions of Miss Almee Newman and Miss Winifred Mason were highly appreciated, as also was the vocal solo of Mr. N. J. Sinnott, accompanied by Mrs. J. S. Fish.

Refreshments were served during the evening. When the wee, sma' hours began to show themselves, the young people took their departure. The following young ladies and gentlemen were present: Misses Iva Brooks, Florence Lewis, Lillian Hinton, Allie Rowland, Etta and Clara Story, Grace Marden, Grace Campbell, Grace Mitchell, Ursula, Louise and Ione Ruch, Ruth Cooper, Almee Newman, Mable Mack, Etta Lewis, Winifred Mason, Annie and Laura Thompson, Caddie Booth, Rose and Nettie Mitchell, Alma Schmidt, Kate DeHuff; Messrs. Fred Clark, Frank French, John Booth, Frank Garretson, Ralph Rowland, Max Vogt, J. Byrne, Fred Wilson, Roger Sinnott, Martin Donnel, Nick Sinnott and Bert Phelps.

School Books at Jacobsen's. See ad. Archbishop Gross passed through today on the noon passenger for Pendleton.

The U. P. R. officials, Dickinson, Baxter and Bories, dined at The Umatilla today.

Mr. W. W. Gregory, who has been attending the camp meeting at this place, returned to his home in Centerville this morning.

A couple of nymphs du pave were fined $10.00 each by Recorder Menefee this morning for violation of city ordinance by equestrienne practices on the sidewalk on Front street. They paid the fines.

At the firemen's meeting last evening, twenty-three additional names were added to the list to be called in Portland on Monday. The name of Mr. Geo. Williams has been substituted among the delegates for Jackson Co., in place of Mr. Bettingen, who is a member of one of the other companies.

An elderly gentleman living near The Dalles, who is quite popular with the city people, gave out recently that cats were wanted on the farm. Soon they began to come to him in numbers from his friends, and wishing to remember the donors he named each cat for the friend who sent it. His stock now includes one each named Hugh cat, Dan cat, Frank cat, and finally one Sam cat. They all appear to be getting along nicely with the old original Tom cat.

Church Notices.

Double-Wedding.

Married. By Rev. A. J. Wigle at the residence of W. H. Taylor one and 1/2 miles south east of this city Sept. 2nd, 1892, James W. Clark, of Brownsville, Linn county, Oregon, and Ella Taylor of Wasco county. Also at the same place and same time by the same, Perry Morgan and Alice Taylor, of Wasco county.

Only the nearest neighbors were invited who were treated to a bountiful repast, prepared for the occasion. The evening was past in social conversation and music, and was altogether very enjoyable to all present. Quite a variety and number of useful and ornamental articles were presented to the newly married couple.

Stands at the Head.

Dr. George A. Bethune, state chemist of the state of Washington, has examined the various baking powders of the market, and speaks emphatically as to which he considers the best. He says:

A series of carefully made tests of the baking powders sold in this market shows that the Royal yields the largest percentage of leavening gas. This powder is also found perfectly free from any harmful or even objectionable ingredient; its constituents are of exceptional purity, so combined that the powder produces the purest and most wholesome food.

There is, therefore, no question but the Royal is the strongest, purest, and most wholesome baking powder in the market.
Geo. A. BETHUNE,
State Chemist and Assayer.

Peaches With a History.

Those peaches in THE CHRONICLE window today are of the Simpson yellow clingstone variety. Four of them weighed two pounds. They have a history dating back to 1842, when the father of J. M. and R. Simpson took the seed from Georgia to Tennessee. In 1840 seeds were taken to Missouri from Tennessee by J. M. and R. Simpson, and in 1845 they brought the seeds of the same fruit from Missouri and planted them in Polk county, Oregon. In 1866 W. J. Simpson brought the seed to Wasco county, and today we are presented with samples of the fruit which is all the more remarkable for its being seedling all along the line, and so certainly traced as not to be mistaken. They were raised by Mr. J. H. Covington, and as Mrs. Covington is the grand-daughter, the niece, and daughter, of those prominent in the production and reproduction of this fruit for eighty years past, and it has been like household words in the family, there can be no mistake about its history. It would be interesting to know whether, in any other locality, it has attained any greater perfection than it has here. The fruit is solid, highly flavored, rich in color and as "juicy as a peach" can well be. The tree from which these samples came grew in the sands that line the Columbia, just above The Dalles, but have been liberally irrigated. It is a subject worthy of the attention of fruit producers.

Kansas Horse Market.

Pacific Farmer. L. B. Rinehart and Dr. Deering, of Union, shipped four carloads of horses to the eastern market Monday morning, the former three and the latter one carload. Arch Johnson, the city marshal, has charge of the car belonging to Mr. Deering, and will take them to Kansas City. He is acquainted in that country, being a former resident, and will no doubt meet with success in disposing of the horses at good prices. Mr. Rinehart shipped one carload from Union and two from Huntington. He will stop at various places and try to dispose of his horses at wholesale, but, if he does not succeed, will go on to Murfreesboro, Tennessee, where he is well acquainted, having shipped horses there last season. The horses are all good, and should meet with ready sale in any market at good prices.

Dissolution of Co-Partnership.

Notice is hereby given that the firm of E. Jacobsen & Co. has been dissolved by mutual consent. O. S. Savage has this day sold his one-half interest in said firm to E. Jacobsen and said E. Jacobsen is now sole owner of the business and will continue the same at the old stand. He will collect all accounts due the firm of E. Jacobsen & Co. and pay all demands against said firm.
E. JACOBSEN,
ORRIS S. SAVAGE.

State Chemist and Assayer.

A Beau of 1829.

When grandpa went a-wooloo,
He wore a satin vest,
A trail of running roses
Embroidered on the breast.
The pattern of his trousers,
His linen, white and fine,
Were all the latest fashion
In eighteen twenty-nine.

Grandpa was a fine-looking young fellow then, so the old ladies say, and he is a fine-looking old gentleman now. For the past score of years he has been a firm believer in the merits of Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery. "It renewed my youth," he frequently says. It is the only blood purifier and liver invigorator guaranteed to benefit or cure, or money promptly refunded. It cures liver disease, dyspepsia, scrofulous sores, skin eruptions, and all diseases of the blood. For lingering coughs and consumption (which is lung-scurf in its early stages) it is an unparalleled remedy.

Notice.

The Dalles, Wasco county, Or., Aug. 23d, 1892. I hereby notify all business men, and the public generally, that I will not be responsible for any debts contracted by my wife, Mrs. F. J. Davis, she having left my bed and board.
Ed. DAVIS.

City taxes for 1892 are now due and payable within sixty days, at the office of the undersigned.
L. RORDEN, City Treasurer.
DALLES CITY, July 6th, 1892.

Stock Holders Meeting.

Notice is hereby given that the annual meeting of the stockholders of the Wasco Warehouse company will be held at the office of French & Co., The Dalles, Oregon, on Wednesday September 28th, 1892, at 3:30 p. m., for the purpose of electing directors for the ensuing year and the transaction of such other business as may come before it.
The Dalles, Oregon, Aug. 12th, 1892.
G. J. FARLEY,
Secretary Wasco Warehouse Co.

Saved His Child's Life.

A. N. Dillferbough, York, Neb., says: "The other day I came home and found my little boy down with cholera morbus, my wife scared, not knowing what to do. I went straightway and got a 25 cent bottle of Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy, and gave it according to directions. You never saw such a change in a child. His limbs and body were cold. I rubbed his limbs and body with my hands, and after I had given him the second dose he went to sleep, and, as my wife says, 'from a death-bed he was up playing in three hours.' It saved me a doctor bill of about three dollars, and what is better, it saved my child. I can recommend it with a clear conscience." For sale by Blakely & Houghton, druggists.

Notice.

Notice is hereby given that sealed proposals for the construction of a corral for impounding cattle will be received at my office until Saturday September 3d, 1892, at four o'clock, p. m., according to the plans and specifications prepared by the street commissioner and now on file in my office. The committee reserves the right to reject any and all bids.
By order of the committee on streets and public property.
FRANK MENEFEE,
Recorder of Dalles City.
Dated Aug. 31, 1892. 8-31-92

Auction Sale.

In pursuance of an order of the county court, of Wasco county, dated July 16th, 1892, I will sell at public auction at the stock yards of W. E. Saltmarsh & Co., Saturday, September 10th, 1892, twenty-five or more head of horses, mares and colts belonging to the estate of W. J. Meins. They are all gentle horses, some of them broke to work. They will be sold for cash or approved security. Sale to begin at 2 p. m. sharp.
J. C. MEINS, Administrator, of the Estate of W. J. Meins.
Dated, THE DALLES, Or., Aug. 23, 1891. 7.23d.wlm.

EDUCATIONAL.

Wasco Independent Academy, The Dalles, Oregon.

The next session of Wasco Independent Academy will commence on Monday, Sept. 5th. A full faculty of instructors has been secured with professor Brown of Chicago, Illinois, as principal. For catalogue or particulars, address, S. L. Brooks, Secretary.

A Travelling Man's Experience With Diarrhoea.

I am a travelling man and have been afflicted with what is called chronic diarrhoea for some ten years. Last fall I was in Western Pennsylvania, and accidentally was introduced to Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy. I ventured to make a trial and was wonderfully relieved. I would like now to introduce it among my friends. H. M. Lewis, 24 Freeman street, Cleveland, Ohio. For sale by Blakely & Houghton, druggists.

Stock Holders Meeting.

The regular annual meeting of the stock holders of The Cinnoscola Publishing Company will be held in the hall over THE CHRONICLE office at 8 p. m., October 14th, 1892. Directors for the ensuing year will be elected, and such other business as may properly come before said meeting will be transacted thereat.
