The working of the tariff is a wonderfully economical argument in favor of the McKinley law. The United States government is now collecting not a dollar more than is actually needed to meet the expenses of the government and leave a respectable balance. Our receipts for the last fiscal year were in round numbers $354,000,000 and our expenses were $345,000,000. Of the receipts $178,000,000 was contributed by the customs duties under the McKinley law. Instead of the balance each year growing larger it is actually growing less. Our balance for the fiscal year 1891 was $37,000,000. Our balance for the fiscal year just closed was only $8,000,000. These are the indisputable facts; and, to be consistent, it stands our democratic friends in hand to show us how they propose to reduce duties any with this situation confronting them. They profess to favor the collection of tariff duties of sufficient revenues to meet the wants of the government, and yet the slightest reduction in tariff duties will necessarily come from the small surplus of only about $8,000,000 which we now have to go on.

A New York dispatch says nothing can now save the metropolis from the great plague but the absolute compliance on the part of every member of the community with the instructions of the board of health and quarantine authorities. The danger is real; it cannot be overestimated. Newly infected steamships arrived in the harbor on Saturday, as anticipated, with awful stories of death and suffering. They were the Rugia and Normania, both from Hamburg. The Herald's Munich cable has an interview with Prof. Schwenniger, one of the most celebrated doctors, upon the subject of cholera, in which he says, in healthy places, clean towns, and among the well-nourished, the malady will amount to but little. In that case there may be ten, or only one cholera case, according to the size of the population, but not thousands, as in Hamburg. If you become ill, drink, as hot as ever you can, grog, camomile tea, or no matter what, provided it is hot. Then, if your limbs grow cold, plunge into a steaming hot bath. Should these produce no effect then place yourself in the hands of God, for those are the only remedies known to be efficacious. The doctors can do nothing, but don't be afraid of cholera.

As the state flower for our sister across the Columbia, the rhododendron wins. Now if the Western Washington supporters of that flower will kindly send us over a few thousand chromo pictures of the blossom, the people of the Inland Empire may inform themselves respecting the beauties of the floral emblem.

Grand Master Sweeney has expressed himself somewhat vigorously upon the brutality of the New York militia in dealing with the strikers, but so far as known, he has not yet pronounced an opinion upon the striking switchman who held him up against a telegraph post, blacked his eye, and otherwise disfigured his countenance.

A St. Louis man describes the honeymoon as "that state of ecstatic idiosyncrasy that will cause a supreme judge to shin up a shellbark hickory in his bathing suit to harvest a hornet's nest for his innocent little tootsie wootsie." His preference of a hornet's nest as a refuge from the innocent little tootsie wootsie comes later.

One of the many incidents related to illustrate Rose Terry Cooke's lovely disposition in this: She had a bed of particularly choice strawberries. An invalid friend fancied one year that those berries agreed with her better than any others. Mrs. Cooke therefore saved every berry that season for her friend.

The nebula in Orion is a fine telescopic object now. The great black space in the nebula is known among unpoetic star-gazers as the coal hole. No star has ever been seen in this hole in the universe.

It is stated that two men out of every three use tobacco. This theory receives a rude shock when you try to borrow a cigar at a horse race.

It disappears—the worst forms of catarrh, with the use of Dr. Sage's Catarrh Remedy. It's mild, soothing, cleansing and healing properties effect a perfect and permanent cure, no matter how bad the case, or of how long standing. It's a remedy that succeeds where everything else has failed. Thousands of such cases can be pointed out. That's the reason its proprietors back their faith in it with money. They offer $500 reward for a case of catarrh which they cannot cure. It's a medicine that allows them to take such a risk. Doesn't common sense lead you to take such a medicine? "An advertising fake," you say. Funny, isn't it, how some people prefer sickness to health when the remedy is positive and the guarantee absolute. Wise men don't put money back of "fakes." And "faking" doesn't pay.
