"God Owns the Church."

A small New Yorker, while on a visit to his aunt, who lives in a New Hampshire town, was taken to church and Sunday school. As he entered the church his aunt said:

"Now, Georgie, you must remember to be very quiet while in church. You know that it is God's house, and he would not like it if you did not behave well."

The young man heeded this admonition and was quiet as a lamb.

Later he was taken into the Sunday school room. Then again he was cautioned.

"You must be very good while you are here, Georgie," said the aunt, "because Eliza Brown, the superintendent, does not like little people who make any noise."

Again the caution was well received, and young George was a model of propriety.

When he reached home his mother inquired how he had liked the church and if he had been a good boy.

"He behaved beautifully," said the aunt, and the mother was much pleased.

Young George said nothing just then, but a little later he amused everybody by remarking, "The church belongs to God, but the Sunday school belongs to Eliza Brown." - Chicago News.

THE DALLES,

Wasco County, Oregon,

The Gate City of the Inland Empire is situated at the head of navigation on the Middle Columbia, and is a thriving, prosperous city.

ITS TERRITORY.

It is the supply city for an extensive and rich agricultural and grazing country, its trade reaching as far south as Summer Lake, a distance of over two hundred miles.

The Largest Wool Market.

The rich grazing country along the eastern slope of the Cascades furnishes pasture for thousands of sheep, the wool from which finds market here.

The Dalles is the largest original wool shipping point in America, about 5,000,000 pounds being shipped last year.

ITS PRODUCTS.

The salmon fisheries are the finest on the Columbia, yielding this year a revenue of thousands of dollars, which will be more than doubled in the near future.

The products of the beautiful Klickitat valley find market here, and the country south and east has this year filled the warehouses, and all available storage places to overflowing with their products.

ITS WEALTH.

It is the richest city of its size on the coast and its money is scattered over and is being used to develop more farming country than is tributary to any other city in Eastern Oregon.

Its situation is unsurpassed. Its climate delightful. Its possibilities incalculable. Its resources unlimited. And on these corner stones she stands.
