LOCAL BREVITIES.

Messrs. Wm. Copeland and J. B. Yeagley of Checto are in the city.

Messrs. A. R. and Wm. Lyle, and C. McPherson, of Cross Keys, are in the city today.

The weather forecasts today indicate light rains with nearly stationary temperature.

Miss Gertrude Meyer returned to her school duties in Portland, after a vacation spent with friends in this city.

Dufur is represented in the city by Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Frazer, Miss Ingraham, and Messrs. Wm. and N. Kelsay.

Mr. Josh French believes in lots of manual exercise, and is today assisting the workmen at pipe laying on Washington street.

Mayor Harrington of Pillar Rock, is up for an inspection of his cannery interests at Seufert's today, and will be at the Umatilla tonight.

Mr. and Mrs. A. W. Brenner returned from Portland today. While away Mr. Brenner was under treatment of an aurist and returns much improved, but Mrs. B. is now ill, and their stay in the city will depend upon her condition.

Mr. Lovejoy left by the steamer Regulator today with the fruit samples prepared by Mrs. Dr. Ingalls for the Portland exposition and worlds fair. Prof. Lorant also left this morning, but his collection will not be forwarded to Portland until further advices from Mr. Sargent.

Mr. McNeil, foreman of Mr. Hugh Glenn's work in The Dalles, has contributed some superb samples of apples for the Portland exposition and worlds fair. If Wasco does not again take the sweepstakes purse for elegance in the display of fruit this year, we shall miss our guess muchly.

A Mr. Geo. Berry was taken off the train here this morning, on a dispatch from Pendleton, and detained for a warrant from the sheriff of Umatilla county. He was accompanied by a wife and child, and was identified by a couple of bull dogs in his possession. No particulars up to the hour of going to press.

An insane man, name unknown, but who claims to hail from Cour d'Alene, gave Marshal Maloney a troublesome chase to capture him yesterday. He took refuge on the trestle below Union street, and fired railway spikes at one of his pursuers until he escaped below the shops, where he was captured. He will have an examination to decide upon the cause of his strange actions in The Dalles.

The marriage ceremony of Miss Almina Calef and Mr. Isaac Pitblado will be solemnized at the First Methodist church in Portland this evening. Miss Calef was formerly a student in the academy in this city, and has many friends among the young people here, who will extend to her their best wishes. Among the bridesmaids will be Miss Mabel Williams, of this city, and Miss Ethel W. Grubbs, of Portland.

The republican county central committee will hold a meeting at The Dalles on Saturday next in McKinley hall, the Chronicle building.

Hon. F. P. Mays spent a few days in The Dalles. His family is still at Cloud Cap Inn, but expect to return to Portland this week.

Mr. F. T. Sargent of Wapinitia, has changed his residence to The Dalles, chiefly on account of the superior educational facilities attainable here.

F. Johnson, of Mountain Home, Idaho, the desert region which has been made to blossom as the rose by irrigation on a large scale, is in The Dalles today.

Mr. Jas. Benson, of 5-Mile, has contributed to the Wasco collection of fruit for the Portland exposition and worlds fair, peaches which measure 1 1/2 inches in circumference.

Mr. Manley, who came in yesterday with another load of wheat, says the shower was quite a brisk one on the road, completely saturating an ordinary coat.

Mr. J. O. Mack has returned from the Salem fair. He says it was the best exhibition ever given by the state, and if the articles could be taken to Chicago next year, would of themselves make a creditable display for Oregon.

Mr. H. Corson, an old-time and highly-respected citizen of The Dalles, is reported seriously ill. About two years ago Mr. Corson was practically paralyzed, and has never since fully recovered from that affliction.

The potato crop has been reported short in spots; but the prospects are that the reports will prove to be too previous, according to the work of the clouds yesterday and today, as was the case with grain last June.

Mr. Frank Roach returned from Portland this morning. He says the rain yesterday did not in the least interfere with the Sovereign Grand Lodge procession, and the consolidated city showed off in its gayest attire, the admiration of all guests and residents.

Another important industry is to be added to the list of manufacturing in Spokane, which will be a large paper mill, to be operated by a St. Paul company, of which Mr. J. B. Streeter, of that city, is at the head.

Mr. Charles N. Wait, secretary of the democratic state central and campaign committees, 125 First st. Portland, wishes us to say that all democrats visiting Portland are invited to call and confer with members of the committee in regard to matters in their respective localities; and, it is presumed, receive an antidote for THE CHRONICLE'S doctrines of national preservation.

In calling attention to the elaborate display of Dress Goods and Cloaks, in the handsome show windows at Pease & Mays today, Mr. Pease desires us to say that the credit of the nice arrangement is due to Mr. Briggs' taste. One window is devoted wholly to Dress Goods and one to Cloaks, which the ladies cannot help but admire, and which seems to say: For further inspection "Please step inside."

Frank G. Lentz, a Pittsburg wheelman who is making a tour of the world, will pass The Dalles some day this week. He left Spokane at 8:30 Saturday morning, via Texas ferry, Walla Walla and Pendleton. At Hood River an effort should be made to get him to make a detour and take in Cloud Cap Inn, over twenty-seven miles of the best road in the United States.

Read the announcement of Pease & Mays.

The Young Americans returned to papa's this afternoon.

Mr. C. P. Heald, of Hood River was in the city yesterday on official business.

Mr. Lem Burgess left the city yesterday for his sheep ranch with his winter supplies.

Mr. Orin Kinersly returned at noon yesterday from a jaunt over in Kllickit county.

Steward J. J. Wiley, who has been on the sick list for nearly a month, is again able to take his position.

Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Crossen and daughter Emily, returned yesterday from San Francisco.

The chilly atmosphere of the last three days is particularly severe on the familiar housefly.

There are no rrr in Campbell's name, but the oysters served at the Columbia Candy Factory prove that the words Brothers and September supply all deficiencies lacking to the delicate bivalve.

Mr. W. H. Smith, formerly of The Dalles, but now a resident of Portland, in the city on a visit among old friends this week, has returned to the consolidated city.

Mr. Kelley has returned from Portland, but he left the pacer there. He was only passed once on the road, and then by a two-minute horse, driven to a pneumatic sulky.

A party of young ladies were out on Ninth street, also one on Fourth street last night, hammering the nails down in the sidewalks, using rocks for hammers. This ought to move property holders to a sense of duty.

Judge Bennett's office during his absence, is presided over by Mr. N. J. Sinnott in a very urbane manner. From the salutation of the reception and recognition Nick gives one on entering the office, it is plain to be seen that he belongs to the courteous class from which comes the polite host.

A letter from Harry Liebe, dated at Aix-la-Chapelle, Sept. 4th, states that since the cholera epidemic broke out in Europe every means of precaution is taken by the board of health officers to keep the disease from spreading, and to prevent the advance of this dread disease to the yet-uninfected districts. It is reported that up to this time 150,000 of the inhabitants have died from the cholera in Russia. "The people here," he adds, "have lost the nervous apprehension which prevailed at the outset of the cholera news."

Charming people, these exceptional people! Here's a medicine—Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery, for instance, and it's cured hundreds, thousands that're known, thousands that're unknown, and yet your's is an exceptional case! Do you think that that bit of human nature which you call "I" is different from the other parcels of human nature? "But you don't know my case." Good friend, in ninety-nine out of a hundred cases, the causes are the same—impure blood—and that's why "Golden Medical Discovery" cures ninety-nine out of every hundred. You may be the exception. And you may not. But would you rather be the exception or would you rather be well? If you're the exception it costs you nothing, you get your money back—but suppose it cures you? Let the "Golden Medical Discovery" take the risk.

Birthday Party.

A very pleasant party was given at the residence of Mr. and Mrs. Geo. A. Liebe to their daughter Lena on Saturday, the 17th of Sept., it being her 13th birthday. The afternoon was delightfully passed in playing and social intercourse. Many beautiful presents were received.

Those present were: Edna Glenn, Pearl Williams, Gussie Meins, Hattie Cram, Lena Thompson, Grace Glenn, Clara and Julia Nickelsen, Nettie Freden, Ida Burdett, Emma Ostland, Lizzie Bonn, Pearl Joles, Bessie and Lena Vogt, Rosemary Baldwin, Mary McInerney, Dora Nielsen, Emma Ulrich, Annie Stubling, Valasca Liebe, Mrs. Hess and daughter Minnie, and Bertha and Daisy Botehulr.

How to Change an Address.

Many people do not seem to understand the inconvenience they put publishers to when a change of address is desired, by not giving full particulars. The name of the individual addressed and the present post office is as necessary for a correct change as that the post office to which the change that is desired should be given. For instance: Mr. G. B. Simpson, until lately Supt. of Wells, Fargo & Co., Omaha, having changed his residence to St. Louis, writes a model letter, as follows:
THE CHRONICLE, Dalles City, Or.
ST. LOUIS, Mo., Sept. 15.—Please have THE CHRONICLE that is now addressed to me at Omaha, Neb., addressed to me as Supt. Wells, Fargo & Co., St. Louis, Mo. and oblige, yours truly,
G. B. SIMPSON, Supt.

Carved Tree Records.

Twenty-eight years ago the past summer Dr. Hugh Logan, of this city, then a boy living with his father at Warm Springs agency, accompanied his father, Lieut. James Halloran, and Dr. W. C. McKay, on a tour into the Cascade mountains, in search of "a mountain of salt," reported to exist, by the Indians. This season evidences of their visit were discovered by Mr. W. E. Campbell, who retraced yesterday from a surveying expedition in the same locality. In the vicinity of some hot springs, in township 9 S., 7 E., Mr. Campbell came to a tree, which has engraved upon it five names and dates, as follows:

HUGH LOGAN, July 31, 1864. Wm.
LOGAN, Lieut. HALLORAN, W. C.
McKAY, Aug. 11, 1864. R. W.
CRANDALL.

The date opposite the name of Mr. Crandall Mr. Campbell was unable to decipher, on the scrap of paper upon which he had copied it, when he got back to camp. The feeling is described as somewhat peculiar to find familiar names away out in the wilderness like this. Speaking to Dr. Logan about the register, today, he distinctly remembered the circumstances. His father was lost by the sinking of the steamship Brother Jonathan the next year. Dr. McKay is still living in Umatilla county. Lieut. Halloran disappeared from the active stage of life many years ago and his fate is unknown at this time.

Stove Wanted.—A good cook stove. State size and price. Address, Spove, P. O. Box, 351, The Dalles. 9.20dtwt

The Columbia didn't have a ripple on the surface Sunday, from the Cascades to The Dalles, and the fast steamer Regulator was given a chance to test her steaming qualities. One sail, the Julia going down with a picnic party after cord wood at Chenoweth, and half a dozen smaller crafts were all that were met by the way to divert the attention of tourists and excursionists on board.

A Horse on the Melon Man.

Long Creek Eagle. "See here Pat, why didn't you give me a complimentary notice when I brought that wagon load of fine melons to Long Creek the other day," was a question propounded to ye editor a few days ago. We replied by saying, "why didn't you compliment the shop with one of the melons?" Seeing the point, our friend had nothing more to say.

For sale or trade at a bargain a hotel of 28 rooms in Albina, doing a good business. No saloon connected. Near the shops with good paying boarders. Reasons for selling other business.

Stock Holders Meeting.

The regular annual meeting of the stock holders of THE CHRONICLE Publishing Company will be held in the hall over THE CHRONICLE office at 8 p. m., October 14th, 1892. Directors for the ensuing year will be elected, and such other business as may properly come before said meeting will be transacted thereat. V. G. BOLTON, secretary. 9.2td

A Traveling Man's Experience With Diarrhea.

I am a traveling man and have been afflicted with what is called chronic diarrhea for some ten years. Last fall I was in Western Pennsylvania, and accidentally was introduced to Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhea Remedy. I ventured to make a trial and was wonderfully relieved. I would like now to introduce it among my friends. H. M. Lewis, 24 Freeman street, Cleveland, Ohio. For sale by Blakely & Houghton, druggists.

City taxes for 1892 are now due and payable within sixty days, at the office of the undersigned.

L. RORDEN, City Treasurer.
DALLES CITY, July 6th, 1892.

Saved His Child's Life.

A. N. Dillerbough, York, Neb., says: "The other day I came home and found my little boy down with cholera morbus, my wife scared, not knowing what to do. I went straightway and got a 25 cent bottle of Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhea Remedy, and gave it according to directions. You never saw such a change in a child. His limbs and body were cold. I rubbed his limbs and body with my hands, and after I had given him the second dose he went to sleep, and, as my wife says, 'from a death-bed he was up playing in three hours.' It saved me a doctor bill of about three dollars, and what is better, it saved my child. I can recommend it with a clear conscience." For sale by Blakely & Houghton, druggists.
