Not the Worst Girl in the World. Professor Chapman, of Bowdoin col-lege, told the following story at an alumni dinner: "I feel like the little alumni dinner: "I feel like the little daughter of a friend of mine in Portland. She had just mastered the art of expressing herself in intelligent sentences. One day she had done something for which her manna had to reprove her. The lady gave her daughter a sound lecture and then told her to go up stairs, alone, in her room, and ask God to forgive her for her error.

"In a few minutes she was surprised to see the baby come down stairs again appear in the sitting room and stand back with a great deal of seriousness, "'Well, did you go up and do what I told you?' asked the fond mother.

"Yes,' replied the guilty one, 'and God said, "Great Scott! Elsie Murray, I've known a great many worser girls than you.""—Boston Herald.

Robert Shaw, of Snow's Falls, Me., went to sleep in a field the other day, and when he awoke he was minus a good pair of trousers. Field mice, which swarm in Oxford county, had gnawed the garment into shreds and carried it away.
