LOCAL BREVITIES.

Wm. B. Thune, of Mitchell, is in the city today.

Mr. Tracy, representing the Vancouver nurseries, is in the city.

Hon. F. A. McDonald and wife, of Seattle, are visiting in The Dalles.

S. P. Haines of Buffalo, and Mr. and Mrs. E. E. Stockwell, of New York, are at the Umatilla.

Mr. W. E. Garreston is visiting with the family of Hon. Peter Pacquet, at Oregon City.

It is in again today. Page 7, col. 5, Oregonian. Keep your eye on Handbury, until Nov. 15, 1892.

J. G. Julien, and Mrs. W. E. Morris, of Hay creek, and Mr. N. Froeber, of Wasco, are in the city.

Scandinavian Lutheran services will be held by Rev. A. Dolven tomorrow at 3 p. m. at the Lutheran chapel on Ninth street.

The amount of moisture in The Dalles the past few days was not sufficient to check the rounds of the sprinkling wagon.

Judge Blakeley and wife are still in Portland, also Justice Schutz, taking in the Sovereign Grand lodge of Odd Fellows.

Hon. C. W. Cartwright arrived in the city last evening from Hay Creek. His imported sheep reached their destination in fine condition.

J. W. Gilman of Fossil, is in the city. Mr. Gilman is a member of the famous Gilman & French Stock company, known all over the Inland Empire.

Rev. A. C. Spencer writes to Leslie Butler that he is nicely located as pastor of the M. E. church at Salamanca, N. Y., and is well pleased.

Wheat is king at the East End this week. A long string of teams at the warehouses, awaiting their turn to unload, is a fine subject for a picture.

Mr. Malcolm MacInnes, assistant secretary of the agricultural society, may be found at the office of Wm. Butler & Co., corner of Second and Jefferson streets, The Dalles.

An advertisement for proposals for disinterring the remains of twenty-six soldiers at Fort Colville, filled the space of the ad. for bids on the Cascade canal in the Oregonian yesterday.

Francis Conlin and Elizabeth Agnes Lyman, have permission of the state authority to become linked in the bands of matrimony, license to that effect having been issued by the county clerk.

Another offender was locked up by Deputy U. S. Marshal Jameson last night for selling liquor to Indians. He gave his name as Henry Meir, late of Utah, a member of the Juvenile Temple.

Collector Taylor of Astoria has filed a libel against the steamer Wilmington on account of the 400 cans of opium captured on board. The "stuff" was found among the cargo, and was without stamps or marks, and was not manifested.

The Wool Shipped.

Seeing the last of his 550,000 pounds of wool safely shipped on board the American ship Tillie E. Starbuck, for Boston, by the all-water route from The Dalles, which includes the steamers Regulator and Dalles City, Mr. J. H. Shearer and wife left for home last evening. They expect to leave for the east in time to see the wool arrive in Boston. This has been a very important matter for The Dalles. It is the closing of a season of unprecedented interest in the wool traffic of the Inland Empire, and as the shipments of Mr. Shearer by the Starbuck will go to the credit of the wool producers of the Inland Empire, it will add another laurel to the wreath that places The Dalles in the very front rank of most desirable markets in the United States for purchasing the best grade of fleeces.

The First Steamboat.

It may be interesting in these days to note that the first steamboat to make a landing at The Dalles, was the James P. Flint, built by the Bradfords in 1851, and at least one of the crew is still a resident of The Dalles. He was master of the steamer Mary in 1856, at the time Wright and Steptoe were taken to the Cascades to drive off the Indians after the famous massacre of March 26th. The James P. Flint made her landing at the mouth of Mill creek, with but a few Indians on the bank to greet her.

Our District Fair.

We are pleased to observe that farmers generally are preparing for the coming fair in The Dalles October 11th. Mr. Malcolm MacInnes, assistant secretary, is prepared to answer all inquiries needed by intending exhibitors. Let us all join in making the fair a decided success. It was put off from September to October purposely, to meet the period of leisure on the farm.

Weather Forecasts.

SAN FRANCISCO, Sept. 21.—Fair: partly cloudy and cooler weather.

Light frosts may be expected in exposed places.

MARRIED.

In this city, Tuesday, Sept. 20th, at the residence of Hon. E. N. Chandler, by Justice J. C. Clark, Miss Adeline C. Freeman and Mr. Ephraim Pittman, all of Wasco county.

Charming people, these exceptional people! Here's a medicine—Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery, for instance, and it's cured hundreds, thousands that're known, thousands that're unknown, and yet your's is an exceptional case! Do you think that that bit of human nature which you call "I" is different from the other parcels of human nature? "But you don't know my case." Good friend, in ninety-nine out of a hundred cases, the causes are the same—impure blood—and that's why "Golden Medical Discovery" cures ninety-nine out of every hundred. You may be the exception. And you may not. But would you rather be the exception or would you rather be well? If you're the exception it costs you nothing, you get your money back—but suppose it cures you? Let the "Golden Medical Discovery" take the risk.

AT THE EXPENSE OF TRUTH.

The Kind of Songs That Tighten The Grip on Bunch Grass Land.

We do not reproduce the following as a literary curiosity, nor because it is particularly interesting, nor that it contains the merit of truth, but as a specimen of "Home Amusement" which acts as a boomerang, in this: that in its recollection it hits the sender. THE CHRONICLE last week showed that certain eastern capitalists had peremptorily "eat down upon" further loans of money upon real estate securities in Wasco and adjacent counties, for no other reason whatever than the published reports of last June concerning crop failures in the Inland Empire. Reports that may possibly have been justified, at the time, but which should have been corrected later on, when the evidences showed conclusively that the crop would be up to the average with the exception of a few isolated cases. In spite of all reports to the contrary, more wheat, and that of finer quality than any previous year in history of farming operations in Eastern Oregon, is finding its way to market, and on the U. P. R. line from 100 to 125 car loads daily reach Portland. Barley and rye are equally as good as wheat; oats may be a little off, and the same may be said of potatoes in some localities, but not generally. So to sum it all up bunch grass land people have nothing to complain of this year; in wool, wheat, rye, barley, fruits and vegetables, the world over are invited to a comparison. But to the funny business. This poem purports to have been written by some webfoot, who "strayed away up to Weston," and with "four brothers of us" was having a good dinner, lots of fun, and a family reunion at the home of his sister. "This country is not so dry as Morrow county," says this sprig of literary genius. "I am at work driving header wagon. I heard a faint voice from Morrow county singing a song this morning, and as he sang very slow, I wrote it down and send you a copy for the Gazette."

A BUNCHGRASS LAND LIE.

(Tune Beulah Land.)

We're in a land of drouth and heat
Where nothing grows for man to eat.
The winds that blow with burning heat
O'er all this land, are hard to beat.

CHORUS.

O, bunchgrass land,
Poor bunchgrass land,
As in its burning soil we stand
And look away across the plains
And wonder why it never rains.
But Gabriel calls with trumpet sound
And says, "The rain has passed around."

The farmers go into their corn,
And there they stand and look around;
They look and then they are so shocked
To find the shoot has missed the stock.

We have no wheat, we have no oats,
We have no corn to feed our shoats;
Our chickens are too poor to eat,
And pigs go squealing through the street.
Our horses are the broncho race,
Starvation stares them in the face.
We do not live, we only stay
And are too poor to get away.

A Little Better Than Expected.

The bureau weather report from Portland yesterday admits a proposition in words like this concerning Eastern Oregon crops: "It seems that grain generally is turning out a little better than expected." "In portions of Marion and Malheur counties," continues the report for Eastern Oregon, "the first and second crops of hay have been very bountiful; better than for five years past." Thanks, awfully.

Committees on Entertainment.

A Traveling Man's Experience With Diarrhoea.

I am a traveling man and have been afflicted with what is called chronic diarrhoea for some ten years. Last fall I was in Western Pennsylvania, and accidentally was introduced to Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy. I ventured to make a trial and was wonderfully relieved. I would like now to introduce it among my friends. H. M. Lewis, 24 Freeman street, Cleveland, Ohio. For sale by Blakeley & Houghton, druggists.

City taxes for 1892 are now due and payable within sixty days, at the office of the undersigned.

L. RORDEN, City Treasurer.

DALLES CITY, July 6th, 1892.

Saved His Child's Life.

A. N. Dillferbough, York, Neb., says: "The other day I came home and found my little boy down with cholera morbus, my wife scared, not knowing what to do. I went straightway and got a 25 cent bottle of Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy, and gave it according to directions. You never saw such a change in a child. His limbs and body were cold. I rubbed his limbs and body with my hands, and after I had given him the second dose he went to sleep, and, as my wife says, 'from a death-bed he was up playing in three hours.' It saved me a doctor bill of about three dollars, and what is better, it saved my child. I can recommend it with a clear conscience." For sale by Blakeley & Houghton, druggists.
