

National Republican Ticket.

FOR PRESIDENT, BENJAMIN HARRISON, of Indiana.

FOR VICE-PRESIDENT, WHITELOW REID, of New York.

FOR PRESIDENTIAL ELECTORS, J. F. CAPLES, of Portland. H. B. MILLER, of Grant's Pass. G. M. IRWIN, of Union. D. M. DUNNE, of Portland.

It is said that the Boston Transcript devoted to four lines to an account of the fight between Sullivan and Corbett, the Advertiser but seven, other papers making only a casual reference to the affair. These papers must feel terribly rebuked if they should chance to see the Oregonian, which for some days devoted about one-half of its reading columns to details concerning the two fighters. The Boston journals may be consoled, however, for an apparent lack of enterprise by the thought that no false account of the condition of the contestants had appeared in their columns, and the consequent assurance that if their readers had bet on the wrong man they had not been led to do so by misrepresentations on the part of their journals.

It looks as though a mess would be made of the capitol dome yet. It seems doomed to further delay on account of the non-arrival of the immense steel girder which is to surmount the eight columns and support the brick work. It was made in Cleveland, O., but from some unknown cause has failed to reach Salem, and the iron men have been laid off until it comes. This not only practically stops the iron work, but will also delay the brick masons. The heating arrangements are progressing satisfactorily, and the work of remodeling the hall of representatives is going along nicely.

Another stirring up of the Searles-Hopkins will case is promised. Lowell Mson Maxham has sued Edward F. Searles for $25,577, for services in looking after witnesses in the will case, "and particularly one George Williams, otherwise George Wilson, otherwise called Dearborn." It is understood Maxham's work was to keep Williams away from Massachusetts during the hearing of the probate will. Maxham worked with Searles in the upholstery business twenty-five years ago and the acquaintance has been kept up since.

Speaking of the wonderful storehouse of wealth that the Cascade mountains are, the Graphic says: Within this mighty range is found a magnificent lumber belt, unequaled in any other portion of the United States. The foothills are underlaid with immense veins of coals and vast deposits of iron. Further back, where the great peaks rear their lofty heights, are rich mines of gold and silver, copper and lead. Many portions yet await the advent of man, and the stony crags never echoed the miner's pick nor the hunter's rifle.

The Colfax Commoner says an open river to the sea is not agitated in eastern Washington from any love the people of that section have for Portland. Their only object is to secure water competition to seaboard so that all the railroads in the state shall be compelled by reason of this competition to charge reasonable rates of freight to and from all the coast cities. You don't have to go to Portland. Portland is not on the Columbia river, nor within ten miles of it.

The Voice, which is the chief organ of the one-idea partisan, pronounces President Harrison a friend of the rum traffic because he was the recipient of a keg of Scotch whisky, sent over by an American friend abroad. Intolerance might go a step further by denouncing the dying mistress of the White house for prolonging her life by taking some of this whisky against the ravages of tuberculosis.

A company has offered the sum of $40,000 to Klockmann and his partners for their mining claim in the Priest Lake country. A shaft has been sunk on the claim ten feet, and shows $15,000 worth of ore in sight. The owners have refused the offer.

To stamp out the free coinage movement Carl Schurz urges the election of Cleveland. In the west pretended friends of silver are asking the people to vote for Cleveland in order that bimetalism may be restored.

A new variety of wheat, the grains of which are almost twice as large as the ordinary kernels, and which has produced fifty-one bushels to the acre, has been grown this season near Moscow.

Don't be a spider and crawl in these days! Why not keep up with the nineteenth century? You would not buy a steam engine made like those of a century ago. Then why should you buy the old-fashioned, big, drastic pills that gripe and debilitate your system? As great improvements have been made in pills as in steam engines. Dr. Pierce's Pleasant Pellets are tiny, sugar-coated granules, or pills, are easiest to take, and never gripe or shock the system. They are purely vegetable and perfectly harmless. One little Pellet is a laxative, three to four are cathartic. They regulate and cleanse the liver, stomach and bowels—quickly, but thoroughly. They're the cheapest pill, sold by druggists, because you only pay for the good you get. They're guaranteed to give satisfaction, every time, or your money is returned. That's the peculiar plan all Dr. Pierce's medicines are sold on.

A Reliable Man.

M. J. Griner, a Justice of the Peace at Print, Michigan, says one bottle of Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy saved his life. He had been down with bloody flux for three weeks when he commenced using this medicine. It soon cured him, and he believes saved his life. He also says it saved the lives of three railroad men in that vicinity. Squire Griner is a reliable and conscientious man, and whatever he says can be depended upon.
