72 Washington Street.

One of Barnum's Inducements.

About the time Blind Tom started out to show his wonderful gifts Macon developed a musical prodigy, though in a different line. In the alley back of Eads, Neel & Co.'s store was a blacksmith shop owned by a man named English, a quiet sort of a man and very popular in his business.

Of course such a precocious boy soon became known to Macon, and a mention of it fell under the eye of P. T. Barnum, who was then in his prime. The great showman sent an agent to Macon as fast as steam and coach could bring him. After a good deal of parleying the agent succeeded in securing young English, it being understood that his mother would accompany him.

There are a good many things in the animal kingdom which we do not yet know, or which we have only just discovered.

A good liniment for inflammation, rheumatism, swellings, etc., is olive oil well saturated with camphor.
