

National Republican Ticket.

FOR PRESIDENT, BENJAMIN HARRISON, of Indiana.

FOR VICE-PRESIDENT, WHITELEW REID, of New York.

FOR PRESIDENTIAL ELECTORS, J. F. CAPLES, of Portland. H. B. MILLER, of Grant's Pass. G. M. IRWIN, of Union. D. M. DUNNE, of Portland.

Walla Walla is alive today with horse-men. The Dalles is represented largely. Seventeen races have been arranged for, and there will be many special features to attract the attention of the public. From among those will be the introduction of the celebrated bike sulky, popularly known as the pneumatic tire. It was in one of these vehicles that Nancy Hanks recently lowered the world's record. Bicycle races between heats will be another feature of the meeting. Purses amounting in all to $5,500 will be paid the winners in the running, trotting and pacing races. Some well known western horses are on the track, the owners of stables from The Dalles to California are there. There will be no long and tedious delays between races and one heat will follow another at intervals of not more than ten minutes. To do this the trotting and pacing heats of the same day will be "sandwiched." Mr. J. O. Mack is there "pulling" for the fair at The Dalles next month.

The latest evil for which the tariff is held responsible is the cholera. The Chicago Herald proves it to its complete satisfaction by a chain of reasoning something like this: "Protection increases the prosperity of American wage earners, and thus makes our country a very attractive one for the poverty-stricken masses of Europe. Some of the latter, coming from the pestilential centers of the Old World bring with them the germs of the disease. Hence the tariff brings the cholera!" The remedy is easy. Elect Cleveland, pulverize the tariff system, pauperize American workmen, and no foreigners will come here. They will prefer to starve at home. Hurrah for free trade and poverty!

The late Daniel Dougherty was once surprised by a visit from an aged gentleman who called himself the Emperor of the French. He was insane, but Mr. Dougherty listened patiently to a recital of imaginary grievances. He investigated the case, ascertained that he had gone crazy over some financial complications, looked into it and succeeded finally in obtaining a decree for $5,000 a year for his demented visitor.

Stevenson and Reid still continue to occupy the center of the stage, while Cleveland and Harrison hold prominent places in the wings. Stevenson's speeches show that he knows about as much regarding the tariff as he does about how it feels to wear a blue uniform. It is safe to predict that he won't exhibit himself as the man who put down the rebellion.

The authorities have at last decided which of the portraits of Christopher Columbus is to be reproduced upon the Columbus souvenir coins. If Columbus did not look like the man whose likeness is stamped upon these coins, nobody of this generation will be to blame.

The enthusiasm with which the defeated John L. Sullivan is received is apparently more pronounced than that which used to greet John L. Sullivan, the champion. Public sentiment knows a good thing when it sees it.

A gold and silver statute worth $300,000 will be on exhibition at the Columbus fair. The most artistic sculptors living will despair of doing anything of equal value.

If an unsophisticated civilian and clergyman can find gambling houses in active operation it certainly ought not to be impossible for Chief Spencer.

A prophet of Java has been paid $400 a year for the last fifteen years "for not predicting a tidal wave which will sweep clear over the island."

Commenting upon the advantages of the Inland Empire and referring to a recent article in THE CHRONICLE, the East Oregonian speaks of Mr. Chas. Cunningham, of Umatilla county, who has 21,000 head of sheep, 4,000 of which are thoroughbred bucks worth at least an average price of $10 a head, while his other sheep cannot be bought for less than $3 a head. Here is one man having $91,000 invested in sheep alone, nor saying anything about land, of which he owns at least 11,000 acres. Mr. Cunningham came to Umatilla county twenty years ago without money or friends, and at first herded sheep.

A DEAD SHOT right at the seat of difficulty, is accomplished by the sure and steady aim of Dr. Sage's Catarrh Remedy. Don't fool around with a pop-gun, nor a "flint-lock," when this reliable "Winchester" is within reach!

Dr. Sage's treatment of Catarrh in the Head is far superior to the ordinary, and when directions are reasonably well followed, results in a permanent cure. Don't longer be indifferent to the verified claims of this unfailing Remedy. The worst forms of Catarrh disappear with the use of Dr. Sage's Catarrh Remedy. Its mild, soothing, cleansing and healing properties effect a perfect and permanent cure, no matter how bad the case, or of how long standing. It's a remedy that succeeds where everything else has failed. Thousands of such cases can be pointed out. That's the reason its makers back their faith in it with money. They offer $500 reward for a case of Catarrh which they cannot cure.

It's a medicine that allows them to take such a risk. Doesn't common sense lead you to take such a medicine? "An advertising fake" you say. Funny, isn't it, how some people prefer sickness to health when the remedy is positive and the guarantee absolute. Wise men don't put money back of "fakes." And "faking" doesn't pay.

A Reliable Man. M. J. Griner, a Justice of the Peace at Print, Michigan, says one bottle of Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy saved his life. He had been down with bloody flux for three weeks when he commenced using this medicine. It soon cured him, and he believes saved his life. He also says it saved the lives of three railroad men in that vicinity. 'Squire Griner is a reliable and conscientious man, and whatever he says can be depended upon.
