OFFICIAL PAPER OF DALLES CITY.
AND WASCOS COUNTY.

National Republican Ticket.

FOR PRESIDENT,
BENJAMIN HARRISON,
of Indiana.

FOR VICE-PRESIDENT, WHITELAW REID,
of New York.

FOR PRESIDENTIAL ELECTORS,
J. F. CAPLES, of Portland.
H. B. MILLER, of Grant's Pass.
G. M. IRWIN, of Union.
D. M. DUNNE, of Portland.

A short time ago the comptroller of the currency was asked if he thought any other than the present National banking system could be devised, which would equal security, and he replied, what almost every banker will indorse, that he knew of none. "During the year ending July 1, 1891," he added, "the losses by reason of failures of state banks, private bankers and brokers aggregated a larger amount than the losses of all creditors of all the National banks during the entire twenty-nine years of the existence of the new system. The failure of the new Oriental Bank in London recently, involved liabilities of over $23,000,000 which is in excess of the entire losses sustained since the National banking system was established. Other single failures in England have entailed losses greater than those experienced by the creditors of the National banking system during the whole period of its existence. While additional safeguards may be devised and the administration of the law improved, still the system as a whole and as at present administered, is superior to that of any other nation."

The ninth annual report of the bureau of statistics of labor of the state of New York, about which so much is being said, contains the result of a special investigation into the effect of the tariff on labor and wages. Commissioner Charles F. Peck distributed 8,000 blanks to as many wholesale establishments throughout the state, and of that number 6,000 were returned with full and correct answers. The period of investigation includes the year immediately prior to the enactment of the McKinley bill and the year immediately following its becoming a law. From tabulated statements accompanying the report, it appears that there was a net increase in wages of $6,377,925 in the year 1891 as compared with the amount paid in 1890, and a net increase of production of $31,315,130 in the year over that of 1890. An analysis of the table further shows that of the sixty-seven industries covered therein, 77 per cent of them show an increase either of the wages or product, or both, and that there were 89,717 instances of individual increases of wages during the year.

The announcement is unexpectedly made that Mr. William Dean Howells, foremost man of letters in America and co-editor of the Cosmopolitan, has resigned his editorial position and will apply himself exclusively to his writings. As Mr. Howells but recently accepted that position the report is surprising. In any event it is of moment to note that a man engaged in creating great works of literature is probably not doing his best by himself when he picks himself in an editor's chair. From the famous men of the old Spectator down, authors have found this out sooner or later. Mr. Howells' business is to make stories not to improve the quality of American magazines, even though there are enormous possibilities in that line of endeavor. Besides, in the act of quitting his job, to put it elegantly, Mr. Howells has acquired a new experience, run through a new gamut of human emotions and possibly found another thrilling incident to be embalmed in literature.

Senator Felton, of California, in an interview in San Francisco last week, predicted that the United States will have to go to war with the Chinese empire if the United States insists on a strict enforcement of the Geary registration law. The Chinese empire claims that law is in violation of international rights and ought not to be tolerated, and it will resent any strict enforcement of the same on the part of the United States.

Traveling men visiting the great Palouse country report a wonderful improvement in the volume of business being done there since the grain crop commenced to move. The wheat is not flowing into market very rapidly as yet, but every one seems to have plenty of money and there is a good feeling generally prevalent among the merchants.

The Nelson Miner says the supposed rich finds on the main fork of Sheep creek have vanished into thin air; the leads show a very fine quality of magnetic iron with a large percentage of disappointment.

Two doctors of an Eastern town, To learning much inclined, Were called to see a gentleman, Whose health was undermined. The first one used his stethoscope Upon his patient's neck. "I find," quoth he, "one lung is gone; You cannot live a week." To this the other wise M. D. Vehemently objected. "I see," quoth he, "as all may see, Your kidneys are affected." These wise men argued loud and long, Yet the patient owes recovery (Not to those doctors, but to Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery).

There are some patent medicines that are more marvelous than a dozen doctors' prescriptions, but they're not those that profess to cure everything. Everybody, now and then, feels "run-down," "played out." They're the will, but no power to generate vitality. They're not sick enough to call a doctor, but just too sick to be well. That's where the right kind of a patent medicine comes in, and does for a dollar what the doctor wouldn't do for less than five or ten. We put in our claim for Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery.

We claim it to be an unequalled remedy to purify the blood and invigorate the whole system. It's the cheapest blood-purifier, sold through druggists, no matter how many doses are offered for a dollar. Why? Because it's sold on a peculiar plan, and you only pay for the good you get. Can you ask more?

Those desiring Chinese laborers for any kind of work can secure them by calling on this firm. 9.10d&w

A Reliable Man.

M. J. Griner, a Justice of the Peace at Print, Michigan, says one bottle of Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy saved his life. He had been down with bloody flux for three weeks when he commenced using this medicine. It soon cured him, and he believes saved his life. He also says it saved the lives of three railroad men in that vicinity. Squire Griner is a reliable and conscientious man, and whatever he says can be depended upon. For sale by Blakely & Houghton, druggists.
