STATE PRESS ASSOCIATION.

The Washington State Press Association, which is to meet at Spokane on the same day that the Oregon Press Association is to meet in The Dalles, Tuesday next, is causing as much or more comment throughout the state as it is here, referring to which the Review says: "It has already advertised this city widely. In entertaining the newspaper men in a fitting manner the city will not only do what is right and proper, but will also receive an amount of advertising that will be of almost inestimable value to the city. Nearly every paper in the state will contain an account of the proceedings and the manner in which the guests are entertained, and upon the impression made upon these men next week will depend largely the fame which our city will enjoy abroad for some time to come. It is, therefore, proper that no pains be spared to make the occasion an enjoyable one for the city's guests."

The New York Herald says: "The business of the country is in a provokingly healthy and flourishing condition. Business failures for the first half of the present year have been one thousand fewer in number and forty million less in gross liabilities than they were during the corresponding period of 1891." This sustains Pecks report; furthermore, new industrial enterprises for manufacturing iron, cotton, and woolen fabrics are going into operation in various sections, and while the margin of profits is small, business is on a solid foundation, and the outlook in every direction is hopeful and encouraging. The grain crop is promising, money is abundant and collections are easy. In the face of such a condition of things the calamity howler must remain silent. His howling will scare nobody, not even himself, for he is too smart not to realize that the country is in a marvelously prosperous condition and likely to continue so.

John I. Blair of Blairsville, N. J., who is reported to be worth all the way from $50,000,000 to $150,000,000, has never sold a share of stock in any enterprise with which he has been associated, and has a money invested in scores of railroads some of which he absolutely controls. His hand covers the Oregon Pacific, the Astoria and Albany, and is in the Astoria and Portland. The greatest fault he has is in not trusting his agents straight through with any scheme after it is started. But he generally gets there—give him his own time for reflection over it.

Whiskey men interviewed in Portland on the tariff, say the liquor trade has increased so largely during the past few years that it is difficult to tell whether the McKinley bill has had any effect on it or not. VanSchuyver says: "The government and the manufacturers of liquors are benefitted by the law, as the government receives the revenue, and there is a better demand for the products of the domestic manufacturers."

The Chinese of Oregon have about concluded to submit to the Geary act. There are 107,475 Chinese in the United States. California has 72,472 of them, while 24,372 more are scattered throughout the west. There are less than 7,000 in the Atlantic states and but 3,789 in the Central states. They now know that if they fail to comply with the act they will be sent back to China after May 5th next.

Rev. Samuel Longfellow, like Henry Wadsworth Longfellow, his brother, was a verse maker and once compiled a collection of hymns for publication. When he asked a fellow parson to suggest a title for the work, the friend thought it might be called a Sam-book.

The Portland police have got the clever bill-raiser who has been altering the denomination of paper money so skillfully of late in the Pacific northwest. His name is James Parker. Evidence sufficient to send him to the pen has been secured.

The late Bishop Medley of New Brunswick, was an ardent believer in free churches. It was once said of him that he believed churches should be dedicated to God rather than to pewholders.

A Reliable Man. M. J. Griner, a Justice of the Peace at Print, Michigan, says one bottle of Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy saved his life. He had been down with bloody flux for three weeks when he commenced using this medicine. It soon cured him, and he believes saved his life. He also says it saved the lives of three railroad men in that vicinity. 'Squire Griner is a reliable and conscientious man, and whatever he says can be depended upon. Gone mad—the person with bad blood who's not taking Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery. You are bereft of judgment and good sense if you allow your blood to get out of order, your liver sluggish—life dull, everything blue, for you may soon find out that you're in the grave—or next to it—because you did not procure the G. M. D. soon enough, and some dread disease, may be influenza or consumption, may be typhoid or malarial fever, has taken you. Consumption is Lung Scrofula. For Scrofula in its myriad forms, and for all Liver, Blood and Lung diseases, the "Discovery" is an unequalled remedy. Everybody, now and then, feels "run-down" "played-out"—with no power to generate vitality, in fact, just too sick to be well. That's where the right kind of medicine comes in, and the "Discovery" does for a dollar what the doctor wouldn't do for less than five or ten.

We claim that nothing like it has been discovered for a blood-purifier. It's guaranteed by the makers. Your money is returned if it doesn't benefit or cure you.

A Traveling Man's Experience With Diarrhoea.

I am a traveling man and have been afflicted with what is called chronic diarrhoea for some ten years. Last fall I was in Western Pennsylvania, and accidentally was introduced to Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy. I ventured to make a trial and was wonderfully relieved. I would like now to introduce it among my friends. H. M. Lewis, 24 Freeman street, Cleveland, Ohio. For sale by Blakely & Houghton, druggists.
