FOR PRESIDENT, BENJAMIN HARRISON, of Indiana.

FOR VICE-PRESIDENT, WHITE LAW REID, of New York.

JUPITER'S NEW SATELLITE.

Controversies between astronomers as to the rightful claimants for the honor of the discovery of Jupiter's new satellite clearly indicate that it was a letter sent to Lick observatory by D. E. Cartwright of Detroit, in 1891, that directly inspired the discovery of the fifth satellite by Professor Barnard. In 1890 Cartwright opened a correspondence with the Harvard college observatory, but no explanation was obtainable. Further observation was deferred until the opposition of the following year, 1891, when a recurrence of the phenomena of 1890 disclosed the fact that this unusual occurrence could be accounted for in no other way except by allotting to Jupiter a satellite in addition to the four already known. After considerable discussion they decided the new satellite was a fact, and over a year since wrote Professor Holden, of Lick observatory, assigning the position which the observation of Professor Barnard verified. Cartwright has preserved the letters from Lick and Harvard college observatories in response to his communications calling attention to the new satellite.

The republicans of South Carolina, adopted a platform yesterday declaring that with a free ballot and a fair count the state is republican by 40,000 votes. It condemns the democracy of the state for dealing with the people by force and fraud; declares the registration and election laws of the state nullify the republican form of government; hails with satisfaction the words of sympathy in the republican platform of New York and asks that other states take like action with a view of making a national sentiment to break up such laws. It was decided not to put a ticket in the field, because, as the resolution stated, the republican voters are disfranchised.

The stalwart democracy of Kansas, in convention at Topeka yesterday prepared a statement for publication declaring for Grover Cleveland, and appointing a committee to arrange for a mass convention to be held October 7th. The bold stand taken by the anti-fusionists has brought to a direct issue the fight between them and the fusionists. It has been virtually decided not to put a ticket in the field, but to defeat the old-time democratic leaders by defeating the combination electoral ticket.

Cleveland is in New York today. Hill is there also. It is understood the political managers will try to get them together. Cleveland held a conference with the democratic campaign committee yesterday. The committee remained with him over an hour. They included Don M. Dickinson, secretary Sheehan, A. P. Gorman, Calvin S. Brice, Josiah Quincy and B. B. Smalley. The result of the conference was not made public.

At Fall River, Mass., during Cleveland's trip to New York, while seated at a table, a lady from Kentucky sent a glass of wine to the ex-president. He arose, bowed his acknowledgement and touched the glass to his lips, but he did not drink, and asked to be excused as he had decided to drink no intoxicants during the present struggle. The announcement was greeted with enthusiastic applause.

R. R. Odell, a prominent Minnesota republican and politician has joined the democratic party this week, fearing that if the republicans keep on ruining America it will build up a greater aristocracy than the southern slave-holders ever dreamed of, and it may take more than two billions of money and a greater number of lives than the civil war to wipe it out.

Nancy Hanks, Budd Doble and the Frazer track sulky, $17,000,000. Frazer could retire a millionaire next month, without even subscribing to an American newspaper of any class.

Hon. Sol. Hirsch of Portland, United States Minister to Turkey, is reported en route to Oregon. He will be with the people during the coming session of the assembly.

What Your Great Grandmother Did. She hatched the flax and carded the wool, and wove the linen, and spun the tow, and made the clothes for her husband and ten children. She made butter and cheese, she dipped tallow candles, to light the house at night, and she cooked all the food for her household by an open fire place and a brick oven. Yes; and when she was forty years of age, she was already an old lady whose best days were over. Her shoulders were bent and her joints enlarged by hard work, and she wore spectacles and a cap.
