

National Republican Ticket.

FOR PRESIDENT, BENJAMIN HARRISON, of Indiana.

FOR VICE-PRESIDENT, WHITEHAW REID, of New York.

FOR PRESIDENTIAL ELECTORS, J. F. CAPLES, of Portland. H. B. MILLER, of Grant's Pass. G. M. IRWIN, of Union. D. M. DUNNE, of Portland.

IS MASTER OF HIS IDEAS.

Beyond question Mr. Harrison's letter of acceptance is the strongest paper of its kind which has appeared in our history. There has been no other case where a president has grown so rapidly in public estimation. No other president in time of peace has shown such versatile ability in dealing with the questions which arise in the administration of government.

When Mr. Harrison was first nominated, the country did not know him except as a good soldier, a most reputable senator and a politician prominent and influential in a pivotal western state. When he began, after nomination, to speak to every delegation which presented itself upon any question which they might chance to propose, and without evading a straightforward declaration concerning each, the old politicians of the party were thrown into daily chills of apprehension, which were some time in wearing off.

There have been no subsequent attacks. The country has come to understand that Mr. Harrison is master of his ideas and his words, thoroughly grounded in every question of policy and fully capable of avoiding every species of mistake. Next came that marvelous succession of speeches in the trip to the Pacific. No public man had ever before been subjected to such a test. It is doubtful whether there is, or has been, another who could successfully undergo that test. When it was ended, the country first began to know the President.

Next came his courageous, practical and business-like dealing with foreign affairs. In the midst of most delicate and serious negotiations with Great Britain. Mr. Blaine was taken sick and obliged to leave the city. Mr. Harrison took up the question where it rested, and, in almost daily letters to the English minister, pushed England to the wall with a vigor and a business rapidity which was entirely new to the diplomatic methods of that country. So he dealt with Chili; so with Canada, and today our vessels of war are on their way to see why Venezuela has violated the safe-guard of our flag.

So, step by step, and by rapid steps, the country has come to know and appreciate its president. His letter is the crowning development of this growing acquaintance. It shows him grasping all questions of national policy with a breadth and clearness of view which bring them within comprehension of every mind of ordinary intelligence. His statement of them is an overwhelming arraignment of the democrats for attempting to overthrow an American system, which has brought national greatness and comfort and prosperity to the masses. It is an arraignment which will ring in every corner of the land up to the day of victory in November.

Mr. Howells will begin in the November Cosmopolitan, a department under the attractive title: "A Traveler from Altruria." Those who have seen the first two papers think they will equal in interest and in their wide appeal to all classes, the breakfast table papers of Dr. Holmes. In order to give the necessary time to this work, Mr. Howells has turned over the detail editorial work to Mr. Walker.

The report that certain immigrants arriving at Philadelphia have been compelled to take a bath will do more to check immigration than all the proclamations that can be framed.

A Probable Murder Mystery.

OMAHA, Oct. 5.—Two little girls, while picking coal in the East bottoms, discovered the body of a man lying in the woods near Eighth and Dodge streets, last evening. It was recognized as C. G. Miller, mayor of South Omaha. In the forehead near the temple was a bullet wound. The suicide theory is scouted by the mayor's friends, and some gamblers in Magic city are accused of knowing something about how the man met his death.

Gone—all the painful disorders and chronic weaknesses peculiar to the female sex. They go, with the use of Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription. Periodical pains, weak back, bearing-down sensations, nervous prostration, all "female complaints" are cured by it. It is purely vegetable and perfectly harmless—a powerful general, as well as uterine, tonic and nervine, imparting vigor and strength to the whole system. It costs you nothing if it fails to give satisfaction. It's guaranteed to do so, in every case, or the money is refunded. It can be guaranteed—for it does it. No other medicine for women is sold on such terms.

That's the way its makers prove their faith in it. Contains no alcohol to inebriate; no syrup or sugar to derange digestion; a legitimate medicine, not a beverage. Purely vegetable and perfectly harmless in any condition of the system.
