National Republican Ticket.

FOR PRESIDENT, BENJAMIN HARRISON, of Indiana.

FOR VICE-PRESIDENT, WHITELAW REID, of New York.

MEXICAN ANNIVERSARY.

Tuesday of this week was the 68th anniversary of the adoption of the first constitution of the republic of Mexico. Latter-day peace and prosperity are still further signified by the fact that Porfirio Diaz has just been re-elected president of Mexico for another term of four years. As is well known, elections in the southern republic are perfunctory affairs, and President Diaz has even been accused of electing himself at constitutional intervals to the presidential office. But the spirit of real republican rule is growing as the country increases in material prosperity. The day is doubtless not far distant when republican forms in Mexico will be infused with greater meaning as the capacity for self-government increases among the masses. The point of present interest is that during the fifteen years of President Diaz' administration modern Mexico has been completely transformed. From a poverty-stricken nation, torn by dissensions and revolutions, it has settled down to a career of prosperity. Trade and manufactures have sprung up, railroads have been built and agriculture has been encouraged. Emulation of the greater republic to the north occupies the attention of statesmen, financiers and leaders of the business world. In short, the Mexico of old is a tradition, and the future seems to be auspicious for still greater advances in modern civilization. Few republics would continue the same president in office so long as Mexico has honored President Diaz, who now enters upon his fifth term. But there are few republics where the conditions can be compared to those prevailing in Mexico. Himself a military leader, Diaz has devoted his latter years to abolishing the military spirit in favor of the arts of peace. With the power of a dictator, he has steadily sought to enlarge rather than abridge constitutional freedom and liberty. His leadership of the Mexicans has been so indisputably the outcome of patriotism that political opposition has been born of its strength. Mexico has a serious tariff problem to solve during the next few years. The negotiation of a reciprocity treaty with the United States would admittedly give it a new era of trade prosperity. But the national revenues are now so wholly dependent upon customs duties that new sources of revenue must be sought before the free list is enlarged. The crowning effort of President Diaz' new term will probably be in the direction of extended trade relations with this country.

It is to be hoped that in spite of the obstacles in his way Mr. Cleveland will finally decide to accept the invitation in the Columbus fair dedication exercises two weeks from today. If he and Mr. Harrison were both to attend it could be truthfully said that the festivities were graced by the presence of the next president.

J. W. Jochim, candidate for secretary of state in Michigan (on the republican ticket,) is a Swede and was a book-keeper in Stockholm a little over twenty years ago. He began working as a common laborer handling iron ore when he came to this country, but he soon got into a hardware store, and is now a prosperous merchant in that line.

Henry Irving recently made a valuable "find" of stage properties in the little town of Holsworthy in Cornwall. An old villager named Fry died at the age of 90 and left behind a collection of old silks and brocades and hats of various kinds and dates all of which Mr. Irving secured.

The late Gideon Wells, the cattle king of Maine, is said to have paid to the farmers of that state in his long reign of business more than $50,000,000 for live stock, hay and wool.

Mrs. Lease is described as peppery. We all know that other distinguished Kansan whom that adjective fits so perfectly. It must be in the Kansas climate.

It is feared that the careless way in which Venezuela is being left out of doors nights without protection is blunting Great Britain's sense of the rights of property.

Taken in time, even Consumption yields to the wonderful effects of Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery. It won't make new lungs—but it will make diseased ones healthy when nothing else will. There's reason for it, too. Consumption is Lung-scrofula. For every form of scrofula, and all blood-taints, the "Discovery" is a positive cure. It's the most potent strength-restorer, blood-cleanser, and flesh-builder known to medical science. For Weak Lungs, Spitting of Blood, Bronchitis, Asthma, Catarrh, and all lingering Coughs, it's an unequalled remedy. It's a guaranteed one. If it doesn't benefit or cure, you have your money back. You've everything to gain from it—nothing to lose. It's especially potent in curing Tetters, Salt-rheum, Eczema, Erysipelas, Boils, Carbuncles, Sore Eyes, Goitre, or Thick Neck, and Enlarged Glands, Tumors and Swellings. Great Eating Ulcers rapidly heal under its benign influence.

Stock Holders Meeting. The regular annual meeting of the stock holders of THE CHRONICLE Publishing Company will be held in the hall over THE CHRONICLE office at 8 p. m., October 14th, 1892. Directors for the ensuing year will be elected, and such other business as may properly come before said meeting will be transacted thereat. V. G. BOLTON, secretary. 9.2td

Too Much of a Risk. It is not unusual for colds contracted in the fall to hang on all winter. In such cases catarrh or chronic bronchitis are almost sure to result. A fifty cent bottle of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy will cure any cold. Can you afford to risk so much for so small an amount? This remedy is intended especially for bad colds and croup and can always be depended upon. For sale by Blakeley & Houghton, druggists.
