OFFICIAL PAPER OF DALLES CITY, AND WASCO COUNTY.

National Republican Ticket.

FOR PRESIDENT, BENJAMIN HARRISON, of Indiana.

FOR VICE-PRESIDENT, WHITELAW REID, of New York.

FOR PRESIDENTIAL ELECTORS, J. F. CAPLES, of Portland. H. B. MILLER, of Grant's Pass. G. M. IRWIN, of Union. D. M. DUNNE, of Portland.

Col. Sidney Dell submitted to an interview at Omaha, which is published in the Bee of the 5th. From this we learn that his mission is to look after the interest of his clients in relation to Astoria water frontage, for argument before the United States supreme court October 17th. The question affects all the tide waters of the Pacific coast, as to whether the United States, as original proprietor, can grant, and by its meandered patents has granted, to the bank owner the easement of an exclusive right of access in his front or wharfage purposes out of the actual channel of tidal water over intervening flats; or whether the Pacific states, deriving their title to the river beds from the same original proprietor by the congressional acts of admission, have the absolute title below ordinary high tide, superior to the bank owners' easement, and can hence him off from the channel if they choose. Cases involving this question are up from Seattle, Tacoma, Astoria, Yaquina and other points on the coast, and it is expected that this vexed question will be definitely and fully settled on this argument. Many of the greatest lawyers of the United States supreme court bar, including ex-Attorney General Garland, Prof. John F. Dillon and others, are expected to participate in the discussion. Very great riparian interests are involved in many important Pacific coast cities and along the entire coast.

The third biennial report of the railway commission to the Oregon assembly, will treat upon a very long list of complaints from the people. Commissioner Colvig says: "My colleagues on the commission, Messrs. Hamilton and Clow, have just completed an inspection trip over the Oregonian line from Woodburn to Coburg, and we will continue the inspection of all the lines as soon as the railroad companies are ready. You know we have to give the companies a reasonable notice before starting on a tour over their lines. In the case of the State vs. the Southern Pacific railroad company, which is a case to enforce a revision of rates, an appeal has been effected and transcript filed in the supreme court. Attorney-General Geo. E. Chamberlain, District-Attorney McCain of the third district, Mr. Bingham, formerly prosecuting attorney of the third district, and myself have during the past month prepared a brief of the case, and we will be ready for trial whenever the supreme court sets it for hearing." The road companies have all filed their annual reports for 1891 with the commissioners, except the Union and Northern Pacific.

The opening of the Siletz Indian reservation will turn over 150,000 acres of fine land to settlement. The commissioners are now negotiating with the Indians and will soon report the terms upon which the lands will be ceded by them to the government. Then congress will have to pass a bill and after that the president by proclamation can throw the lands open to settlement. Gen. Odell has been over the reservation making surveys for some months. It will be some time before any of the lands can be entered upon by home seekers.

Senator Mitchell arrived in Portland on Saturday. To an Oregonian interviewer Senator Mitchell said, of New York: "The republicans are united, and are confident of carrying that state, while it is a matter of very great doubt as to whether there is any degree of unity in the democratic party of New York. On the surface it looks well enough, but what the real situation may be below and behind that surface is extremely problematical. The republicans of the Empire state were never more thoroughly organized than at present."

It will be welcome news to the whole country that Mrs. Harrison's condition appears to improve somewhat with the advent of the cool fall weather, and her friends are now more hopeful than they were a few weeks ago. The improvement may be only temporary, as she is still in a critical state, but it is said that her physicians are encouraged at the change that has taken place.

Gen. Weaver spoke in Pulaski, Tenn., Saturday to 175 people. The mobbing advertised to come off didn't occur because there were so few people present.

A feeble woman is restored to health and strength, by Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription. If you're overworked, "run-down," or debilitated, you need it. It's an invigorating, restorative tonic, and a soothing and strengthening nerve, imparting tone and vigor to the whole system. It's a legitimate medicine, too—carefully compounded by an experienced physician, and adapted to woman's delicate organization. For all the chronic weaknesses, functional derangements, and painful disorders peculiar to the sex, it is an unfailing remedy. It's because it's unfailing that it can be sold under a positive guarantee. If it fails to give satisfaction, in any case for which it's recommended, the money paid for it will be promptly returned. It is a legitimate medicine—not a beverage. Contains no alcohol to inebriate; no syrup or sugar to sour or ferment in the stomach and cause distress. As peculiar in its marvelous, remedial results as in its composition.

Stock Holders Meeting. The regular annual meeting of the stock holders of THE CHRONICLE Publishing Company will be held in the hall over THE CHRONICLE office at 8 p. m., October 14th, 1892. Directors for the ensuing year will be elected, and such other business as may properly come before said meeting will be transacted thereat. V. G. BOLTON, secretary. 9:2td

Too Much of a Risk. It is not unusual for colds contracted in the fall to hang on all winter. In such cases catarrh or chronic bronchitis are almost sure to result. A fifty cent bottle of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy will cure any cold. Can you afford to risk so much for so small an amount? This remedy is intended especially for bad colds and croup and can always be depended upon. For sale by Blakeley & Houghton, druggists.

THE NEW TOWN has been platted on the old camp ground, at the Forks and Falls of Hood river, with large slightly lots, broad streets and alleys, good soil, pure cold water and shade in profusion, perfect drainage, delightful mountain climate, the central attraction as a mountain summer resort and for all Oregon, being the nearest town to Mt. Hood. It is also unparalleled as a manufacturing center, being the natural center for 150 square miles of the best cedar and fir timber, possessing millions of horse power in its dashing streams and water-falls, easily harnessed. Where cheap motive power exists, there the manufacturing will center, surrounded by soil and climate that cannot be excelled anywhere for fruit and agriculture, and with transportation already assured you will find this the place to make a perfect home or a paying investment.
