OFFICIAL PAPER OF DALLES CITY.
AND WASCO COUNTY.

National Republican Ticket.

FOR PRESIDENT,
BENJAMIN HARRISON,
of Indiana.

FOR VICE-PRESIDENT, WHITELAW REID,
of New York.

FOR PRESIDENTIAL ELECTORS,
J. F. CAPLES, of Portland.
H. B. MILLER, of Grant's Pass.
G. M. IRWIN, of Union.
D. M. DUNNE, of Portland.

A few nights since Peter the poet had a remarkable dream. The vision of General Jackson rising from his grave and reading the democratic platform of 1892. His brow looked like a thunder cloud, his eyes were lightning, and the scorn of his countenance raised acres of democratic hair around him. Flinging away the mouldy shreds of his winding sheet, jumping upon the modern platform with both feet, and folding his long, bony arms, he thundered thus into acres of waving ears: "How dare you insert in your platform that plank proclaiming a protective tariff unconstitutional! By doing so you have terrified your candidate for the presidency so that he dare not endorse the plank, and instead of standing heroically upon his party platform, there he fluctuates, hesitates and straddles! He is like a hen between a nest of eggs and a nest of porcelain door-knobs, uncertain which should be sat upon! Ha! I'll make your acres of hair rise, ye horde of office-hunting apostates! Since the formation of the good old Federal government no other party has declared a protective tariff unconstitutional! Oh, latter-day democrats, let me howl in your acres of waving ears that I disown you, and then let me retire to my chamber!"

The Press Association banquets at Spokane all made terse pointed speeches. The soul of the party was the petite and vivacious Miss Laura Stanton of the Portland World. Miss Stanton fell promptly in love with Spokane and almost wept when the hour came for farewells. Col. Eddy said that it was true many of those present from Oregon were editors of obscure papers, but he called attention to the fact that these country papers exercise an influence in the home circle that in time stirs the pulses of the commonwealth. He said that he was glad to be given an opportunity to look at Spokane, a city that had grown up in a night, such a magnificent dwelling place growing up out of the wilderness.

Prof. Thomas Condon, the geologist in the State university, designates the region known as Southern Oregon so as to include Lake and Klamath counties on the east, Douglas, Coos and Curry counties on the west, and Jackson and Josephine on the south. This gives to Southern Oregon, seven out of the sixteen counties of the first congressional district.

L. G. Carpenter one of the shysters arrested for inciting Darius Norris to leave Astoria against his will, was let off by Judge Hubbard in San Francisco Saturday, because the warrant issued by Gov. Penneyer was defective, in that it did not set forth the sworn statement in regard to the alleged offense for which Carpenter was wanted in Oregon.

Everything has been a failure this year—strikes, cholera, Sullivan and politics; yes, everything has been a failure, except our national prosperity, and no adverse hap or occurrence has been able to feaze that. Prosperity is success; it is better than all else.

Editor Kaiser of the Ashland Record has taken great interest in giving Penneyer's big speech wide circulation, for which the governor is truly grateful—anything that will make his old ally the democratic party sick, is pleasing to him.

Queen Victoria will no longer replenish her larder by pursuing the bounding stag aided by thoroughbred hounds which cost the nation $50,000 a year to keep. The queen has concluded to sell the dogs and fall back on American beef.

Mr. James G. Blaine has already outlived many of the people who assassinated him in 1884, and he bids fair to outlive those other crocodile fellows who have been predicting his death for the last eight years.

The Pennsylvania Record says: Governor Penneyer of Oregon is now a populist and is ready to climb into the same band wagon which is now bowling along with Governor Buchanan toward the valley of obscurity.

It is reported that a newly designed airship can travel in the air. The fact, if proved, will stamp it at once as a unique and extraordinary invention of its class.

make a long tail (tale) short. A man, after he has eaten a good dinner, may feel extravagantly joyous; but the next day—oh! but he is surly and grim, his stomach and liver are sluggish, he is morose, despondent and "out of sorts" generally. But he may get a prompt return for his money by purchasing Dr. Pierce's Pleasant Pellets.

There's nothing like them. They are tiny Liver Pills, sugar-coated, but thorough in results. One Pellet is laxative, three to four cathartic.

For Indigestion, Biliousness, and all derangements of the Stomach, Liver and Bowels, they work like a charm, and you get a lasting benefit and a permanent cure.

They're the cheapest Pill, because safe and sure, while the manufacturers guarantee they'll give satisfaction, or your money is returned!

You only pay for the good you get. Can you ask more?

What's the use! suffering any more from those dizzy spells, the headaches and all; make the attack yourself, with one or two of these little, Sugar-coated Pellets, and they will do the rest. They are a perfect vest-pocket remedy. Purely vegetable and perfectly harmless. By druggists. 25 cents a vial.

Stock Holders Meeting.

The regular annual meeting of the stock holders of THE CHRONICLE Publishing Company will be held in the hall over The Chronicle's office at 8 p. m., October 14th, 1892. Directors for the ensuing year will be elected, and such other business as may properly come before said meeting will be transacted thereat. V. G. BOLTON, secretary. 9.2td

Too Much of a Risk.

It is not unusual for colds contracted in the fall to hang on all winter. In such cases catarrh or chronic bronchitis are almost sure to result. A fifty cent bottle of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy will cure any cold. Can you afford to risk so much for so small an amount? This remedy is intended especially for bad colds and croup and can always be depended upon. For sale by Blakeley & Houghton, druggists.

WINANS

THE NEW TOWN has been platted on the old camp ground, at the Forks and Falls of Hood river, with large slightly lots, broad streets and alleys, good soil, pure cold water and shade in profusion, perfect drainage, delightful mountain climate, the central attraction as a mountain summer resort and for all Oregon, being the nearest town to Mt. Hood. It is also unparalleled as a manufacturing center, being the natural center for 150 square miles of the best cedar and fir timber, possessing millions of horse power in its dashing streams and waterfalls, easily harnessed. Where cheap motive power exists, there the manufacturing will center, surrounded by soil and climate that cannot be excelled anywhere for fruit and agriculture, and with transportation already assured you will find this the place to make a perfect home or a paying investment.
