OREGON'S SHOWING AT CHICAGO NEXT YEAR

Remains in doubt, but there is no question about the PORTLAND INDUSTRIAL EXPOSITION—which opens September 21st and closes October 22d, being the best Exposition ever held on the Pacific Coast. So far as Oregon is concerned it will be the forerunner of the Exposition at Chicago in 1893. The principal attractions are the magnificent American Band of Providence, R. I. An art collection valued at $350,000, and embracing some of the greatest pictures owned in the United States. Immense Horticultural and Agricultural exhibits, the result of the combined efforts of almost every county in the state. A mineral exhibit exceeding all former years. A Stock Department showing tremendous progress. To these are added a larger number of exhibits than ever before; including a magnificent electrical display under the combined Thomson-Houston and Edison Companies. All manufactures in full operation. Government models of Battle Ships. The wonderful Hall of Mystery. The product of a mechanical genius; all interspersed by novelties incident to the popular special days. Everything new and nothing dead. Greatly reduced rates on all transportation lines.

A RACE FOR LIFE.

A gun is heard at the dead of night. "Lifeboat ready!" And every man to the signal true Fights for the place in the eager crew "Now, lads, steady!" First a glance at the shuddering foam. Now a look at the loving home. Then together, with bated breath. They launched their boat in the gulf of death. Over the breakers wild. But bear their way. Tho' blinding spray. Hear the skipper cheer and say. "Up with her, lads, and lift her All together!"

They see the ship in a sudden flash. Sinking ever. And grip their oars with a deeper breath. Now it's come to a fight with death— Now or never!

Fifty strokes and they're at her side. If they live in the boiling tide. If they last thro' the awful strife. Ah, my lads, it's a race for life! Over the breakers wild. Little they reck of weather. But bear their way. Tho' blinding spray. Hear the skipper cheer and say. "Up with her, lads, and lift her All together!"

And loving hearts are on the shore. Hoping, fearing. Till over the sea there comes a cheer. Then the click of the oars you hear. Homeward steering. Now a thought of the danger past. Now the lads are on land at last. What a storm to the gallant crew Who race for life, and who win it too? Over the breakers wild. Little they reck the weather. But bear their way. Tho' blinding spray. Hear the skipper cheer and say. "Up with her, lads, and lift her All together!"

Ladies

Do you want to keep your husband home at night, and keep him agreeable and pleasant? He must smoke, and yet, you don't like the smell of his tobacco. You can drive him away to his club—out of just such things come misery, unhappiness and divorce. The trouble is that he uses poor tobacco. Coax him to get BLACKWELL'S BULL DURHAM SMOKING TOBACCO; its delicate aroma will not be offensive to you, and it will not fill all the curtains, hangings and clothing with that stale disagreeable odor that now troubles you. Keep your husband home, and avoid all risks by having him smoke BULL DURHAM TOBACCO. Sold everywhere.
