LOCAL BREVITIES.

Senator Mitchell has been secured to speak in Pendleton on the 21st.

Miss Maie Atwater, of Portland, has returned from visiting friends in the city today.

Hon. W. N. Chandler and wife, and Mr. and Mrs. A. C. Sanford, are in Portland today.

Mr. Joseph Beezeley, an old pioneer of Oregon, is confined to his bed in this city by a lingering illness.

The King's daughters will hold a meeting at the residence of Mrs. S. L. Brooks, at 2 p. m. tomorrow, Tuesday the 18th.

Miss Melanie and Carrie Meaple, left by the Steamer Regulator today for a visit to friends and relatives at Portland and Newport.

Lillian Russell's opera troupe passed The Dalles yesterday afternoon in a special, Eastward bound. They dined at The Umatilla.

B. F. Smith, esq., of Portland, one of the builders of the steamers Regulator and Dalles City, is in town today, en route to Heppner.

Mrs. Fred Barden, a former resident of this city, who has been in the city visiting her brother, Mr. Judd Fish, left for home this morning.

J. W. Davidson of 8-Mile has left with us some bunches of shoe-pog oats, which measures 6½ feet high and would go 65 to 70 bushels per acre.

Miss Julia Southwell, who has been visiting with friends and relatives in this city for the past two weeks, has returned to her home in Dayton, Wash.

On completion of the Cascade locks night passenger steamers on the route between Astoria, The Dalles and Portland will become the popular modes of travel.

The Regulator Saturday brought from Portland the corrugated iron roofing and other material to be used in construction of the new planing mill at Grand Dalles, Wash.

Blondin who introduced tight rope walking at Niagara falls is still performing in Europe. Another danger worked by Williams was running the whirlpool. Williams it is said is now an employee of the Great Northern at Wenatchee.

Hon. W. R. Ellis, our congressman elect, has sent Mr. N. J. Sinnott of this city on behalf of the G. A. R., a very pressing invitation to be present and deliver one of the addresses on the occasion of the reunion at Heppner on the 21st.

D. R. Cooper, of Mt Hood, describes Roelyn Robber No. 2, as being in that vicinity about the 11th and 12th. Mrs. Cooper saw him, and he stayed one night at the Elkbeds, with Mr. Langille of Cloud Cap Inn. He has told conflicting stories; is without food; and is trying to cross the mountains to the valley avoiding the railway and river. Mr. Cooper is of the opinion that the fugitive will come out in the vicinity of Cascade Locks on account of the snow in the mountains.

Hon. Binger Herman has been placed at Oakland, on the 22d.

Hon. Geo. E. Brownell will be one of the speakers at Heppner on the 21st.

Mr. A. Scherneckan of Astoria, formerly of Cross Hollows, is visiting Judge Liebe.

Senator Mitchell will speak at Baker City on the 22d, and at The Dalles on the 23d.

Miss O'Neil, an African missionary, accompanied by Dinah, a versatile four-year-old native of Africa, will address the public at the M. E. church at 7:30 this evening.

Miss Annie Lang has taken the official oath of office and entered upon the civil service of the government as a clerk in the department of her father, receiver at The Dalles land office.

Mr. and Mrs. A. W. Branner of Nansene were passengers to Portland this morning. Mr. B. has an affliction of the ear which is troubling him somewhat, and is one of the causes of his visit to Portland so frequently of late.

Mrs. Victor Meaple sent to THE CHRONICLE, today a basket of bellflower apples, which weighed 9½ lbs in the aggregate. Some that weighed a good pound each were put into jars today for the Oregon exhibit at Chicago. Mrs. Meaple took six premiums on fruit exhibits at the fair here last week. She also sent some to the Portland exposition from which she has as yet no returns.

The Pendleton wheat market, which stiffened slightly last week, has dropped back to its normal condition. No. 1 wheat, say dealers, is worth no more than 55½ cents, but keen local competition has occasioned prices not justified by the market, and in some instances sixty cents per bushel has been paid. Ruling prices are reported to be better than in the Palouse country, where rivalry between buyers has not been so intensified.

Speaking of the coming chrysanthemum show in The Dalles, a lady says: "Chrysanthemums are the only flowers that will continue blossoming after they have been disturbed by being brought into the house from the garden in the fall. If this fact was better understood so many beautiful chrysanthemums would not be left to the ravages of the frost. After they have finished blossoming for the season they may be relegated to the cellar until spring and again brought out for garden garniture.

Mr. W. A. Langill in the city today, says the tramp up in the vicinity of Mount Hood, stated that he came down the Columbia river on a lumber barge, to The Dalles. To others he said he had walked to the elkbeds from Walla Walla. Mr. Langill knows the country fully, and told the fellow he certainly would perish if he attempted to cross the valley at this season of the year, and is of the opinion that he turned his steps toward Hood river valley.

The new Congregational church of Dalles City was formally dedicated yesterday. Rev. Cephus Clapp, Congregational Home Missionary for Oregon, delivered the dedication sermon. The church was comfortably filled, seating 280 people. The service was of rather an imposing nature, and the singing was exceptionally fine. The building cost $7,094, but the total debt of the association does not exceed $1,000. No attempt was made yesterday to raise any portion of that sum, but an unsolicited offering amounting to $91.00 was contributed after the service.

The love of glory can only create a hero. The contempt of it creates a great man.

Mr. W. A. Langill, manager of Cloud Cap Inn, called today. The inn is closed for the conquests of winter, which have already begun up in those altitudes. The season was not one of profit to be boasted about, but he is of the opinion that travel will be larger to Mount Hood next year than ever before.

Political Flashings.

A law of 1847 disfranchises for that election any voting persons who bet on elections, or who are directly or indirectly interested in such bets.

Mrs. Victoria Claffin Woodhull Martin, candidate of the woman suffragists for president of the United States, arrived in New York city yesterday on the Etruria from her English home.

One of the political surprises in N. Y. Saturday, was the reported announcement of Richard Croker that he would not be the nominee for congress from the Twelfth district, but that the nominee would be General Daniel Sickles.

Mr. Blaine passed a quiet Sunday at Ophir farm. None of the republican leaders called to see him. The secretary did not go to church in the morning as he intended doing, on account of the storm. Toward noon it cleared off, and later D. O. Mills went out with Mr. Blaine for a drive.

Trouble is expected among the Idaho democrats. Their leaders are trying to have the populists join hands with them. They have withdrawn their electors and endorsed those of the populists, but the Stalwarts will not stand it.

THE U. P. R. OFFICIALS

Pay The Dalles a Visit Saturday on their Tour of Inspection.

President S. H. H. Clark, of the Union Pacific, passed through here Saturday, accompanied by E. Dickinson, assistant general manager, Director Fred L. Ames of Boston, Col. George Leighton of St. Louis, and F. Metzner, assistant superintendent of machinery. President Clark said: "We are simply on a tour of inspection, and the trip has no special significance. We found everything in splendid condition along the line. Business is very fair all over the system and Eastern stockholders are well satisfied." The train consisted of Mr. Dickinson's car, Mr. Metzner's car and the director's car. The train started from Omaha and began the laborious task of inspecting 10,000 miles of road.

"Will there be any rate war?" was asked. "I do not think there will. There is all the business the different roads can handle, and I do not see any reason for cutting rates."

"What will Jim Hill do when he gets his line through?"

"I have not followed his movements very closely, and would not be able to form an opinion. It would be very hard to say what he will do, but I do not think he will cut rates."

"Will the Great Northern give Spokane terminal rates, and if they do, what will the Union Pacific do?"

"I do not believe the Great Northern will give Spokane terminal rates, and if they do I could not say what the Union Pacific will do."

The party proceeded to Portland and Astoria. They then go to San Francisco with the exception of Mr. Dickinson, who will go north to look over the company's Washington division.

THE EDITORS VISIT.

What our Fraternal Brothers Have to say About the Dalles Convention.

Jacksonville Times. The session of the Oregon Press Association, held at The Dalles last week, was well attended and proved full of interest as well as of considerable benefit to the newspaper fraternity. The journalists were handsomely entertained by the people of The Dalles, who spared no pains to make their stay enjoyable. An excursion to Spokane was next participated in, which also proved full of incident and quite enjoyable. We will have more to say of this matter in the next issue of the Times.

Valley Transcript. The Oregon press association have had a pleasant and profitable meeting at The Dalles during the past week. The Transcript did not need the telegraphic reports to know that the brethren of the press would be royally entertained at the neat little city at the gateway of the Inland Empire. If there is a whole-souled people it is to be found right there where their homes overlook the laughing waters of the mighty Columbia. The Dalles is a great distributing center; the shipment of wool, grain and stock from there is enormous; in fruits and flowers the country contiguous cannot be surpassed, and some day when the obstructions in the great river have been overcome, The Dalles will be the Spokane of Oregon. The editors could not have selected a better place of meeting, and if each one who was in attendance does his duty with the pen, the queen city of Eastern Oregon will shine out in its true color. A press of business kept this scribe from attending.

Canyon City News. Last week when I dispatched a communication to the News from McEwan I had in mind a pleasant vacation, and up to the present moment the most extravagant anticipation in the recreation line has been realized. I traveled from McEwan to Baker city on the Sumpter Valley Railway, the guest of Mr. West the superintendent. By the way, that little railroad beats a backboard line, and the people of Grant county should give the company every encouragement in their power to build the road into our beloved county. Tommy McEwan would gladly surrender his excellent stage line and give right of way to the little iron horse, who gets there sometime, always. If he is small (I mean the iron horse) he has a whistle equal to a U. S. man of war and snorts as loud as any Union Pacific 90-ton locomotive. Mr. West is anxious to lay before the stockholders of his company a proposition to build the line further into the interior, and will do this if the people show a disposition to encourage it. The Dalles people gave the editors an opportunity to inspect the government improvements at the Cascade locks, and a couple of cars were furnished us by the Union Pacific (paid for by The Dalles people, while the Regulator was free,) in which the editors, their wives, sisters and lady friends rode to the falls of Celilo, to obtain a view of the extensive salmon canning establishment owned and operated by Mr. I. H. Taffe. The brother does not give away much taffy. However, the picnic was a pleasant one, and upon departing we carried away many pleasant recollections, and left behind us footprints in the sands of Celilo. Col. Sinnott, whom all pioneers know, was there, and told more grandly incomprehensible reminiscences than would fill Bancroft's complete works.

Needed Inspection.

West Shore. Postmaster Grant, of Dalles, who is inspecting all the post-offices in the county, reports one office where he found uncalled-for letters as far back as 1869, which the postmaster had never advertised, and not knowing what to do with them, had an apple box will under the table. He bundled them up and sent them to the dead letter office.

Women are not slow to comprehend. They're quick. They're alive, and yet it was a man who discovered the one remedy for their peculiar ailments. The man was Dr. Pierce. The discovery was his "Favorite Prescription"—the boon to delicate women. Why go round "with one foot in the grave," suffering in silence—misunderstood—when there's a remedy at hand that isn't an experiment, but which is sold under the guarantee that if you are disappointed in any way in it, you can get your money back by applying to its makers. We can hardly imagine a woman's not trying it. Possibly it may be true of one or two—but we doubt it. Women are ripe for it. They must have it. Think of a prescription and nine out of ten waiting for it. Carry the news to them.

The seat of sick headache is not in the brain. Regulate the stomach and you cure it. Dr. Pierce's pellets are the little regulators.

NOTICE

To Settlers Under the 3rd Sec. Act, September 29, 1890.

Department of the Interior, General Land Office, Washington, D.C., September 30, 1892.

Register and Receiver, The Dalles, Oregon.—Sirs: Referring to office instructions of February 3, 1891, issued under the forfeiture act of Sept. 29, 1890, and of March 5, 1891, issued under the act of February 18, 1891, which so amended the act of 1890 as to cause the time, within which claimants thereunder were required to properly present their claims, to run from the date of the promulgation of the instructions for the restoration by this office, I have now to advise you that Congress, by act approved June 25, 1892, amended section 3 of the act of September 29, 1890, so as to extend the time, within which persons actually residing upon the lands claimed by them might present their claims, to three years from the passage of said act of 1890.

This latter amendment relates only to claimants under section three, of the act of 1890 who actually reside upon the forfeited lands, and the Secretary of the Interior, on September 16, 1892, decided that as to such claimants the time was extended to September 29, 1893, if the act of February 18, 1891, in so far as it related to them, having been repealed by the act of June 25, 1892, by implication. The instructions of March 5, 1891, (supra) will govern you in the cases of all other claimants under said act.

Very Respectfully,
(Signed) W. M. STONE,
Acting Commissioner.

Children Cry for Pitcher's Castoria.

When Baby was sick, we gave her Castoria. When she was a Child, she cried for Castoria. When she became Miss, she clung to Castoria. When she had Children, she gave them Castoria.

Wanted.

An A No. 1 good girl is wanted to do general housework in a family of two persons, wages $20. Apply to Mrs. Thornbury, The Dalles.

A Rare Bargain.

Two Cottages for sale. Enquire of 9.28dtf N. WHEALDON.

A Cholera Scare.

A reported outbreak of cholera at Helmetta, N. J., created much excitement in that vicinity. Investigation showed that the disease was not cholera but a violent dysentery, which is almost as severe and dangerous as cholera. Mr. Walter Willard, a prominent merchant of Jamesburg, two miles from Helmetta, says Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy has given great satisfaction in the most severe cases of dysentery. It is certainly one of the best things ever made." For sale by Blakeley & Houghton, druggists.

NOTICE.

All Dalles City warrants registered prior to January 5, 1891, will be paid if presented at my office. Interest ceases from and after this date.
Dated October 13th, 1892.
L. RORDEN,
Treas. Dalles City.

Portland Exposition.

The Dalles, Portland and Astoria Navigation Co. will sell round trip tickets from The Dalles at $5, including admission to the exposition. Tickets on sale daily at the office or on board the Regulator.
W. C. ALLAWAY,
Gen'l Agent.

A Cure for Cholera.

There is no use of any one suffering with the cholera when Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy can be procured. It will give relief in a few minutes and cure in a short time. I have tried it and know.—W. H. Clinton, Helmetta, N. J. The epidemic at Helmetta was at first believed to be cholera, but subsequent investigation proved it to be a violent form of dysentery, almost as dangerous as cholera. This remedy was used there with great success. For sale by Blakeley & Houghton.

Rooms to Let.

Two pleasant bed rooms in a neat cottage on the hill, to let. Inquire at this office. 10.1dtf
