LOCAL BREVITIES.

Dr. Snedecker was a passenger to Goldendale this morning.

The day is lovely, and all that, but news items are precious scarce.

Mr. B. F. Laughlin leaves in the morning for Portland, to return on Friday.

A bunch of keys picked up on the street awaits the owner at THE CHRONICLE office.

Dr. Sutherland, formerly of The Dalles, but now of Portland, was in the city today.

The demand for homes, small buildings, or convenient rooms, is increasing in The Dalles.

Senator Mitchell will speak at Baker City on the 22d, and at The Dalles on the 26th. Don't forget this date.

A new and lighter cable for the ferry boat, which will do better service than the old and larger one, has been ordered.

Crandall & Burget are drawing the plans for a new residence to be built on the bluff, near the stone house, for Hon. Robert Mays.

Men's clothes have from ten to twelve pockets, but a man can explore the whole aggregation of them looking for a car ticket before a woman can find the front entrance to her one.

At the recent annual meeting of THE CHRONICLE stockholders the old board of directors and officers were re-elected. The stock of the corporation was increased from $8,000 to $15,000.

Five packages more of prize fruit from The Dalles and vicinity went to the Portland Exposition yesterday, from the Columbia River Fruit Co., Mrs. Mesplie, and Messrs. Cushing, Fred Creighton, and Sandoz Bros.

We are very much pleased to learn that Hon. W. R. Ellis has about recovered from the injuries he received on the Condon stage line last May. Mr. Ellis has had a serious time, being confined to his bed much of the time.

The Chinese pheasants imported into Umatilla county have done well this year. Quite a number have been observed in various places and sportsmen hope within a few years to find plenty of these birds in that section.

Hon. Solomon Hirsch, ex-minister to Turkey, passed The Dalles Sunday morning on his way from New York to Portland. His trip has been hurried on account of the serious illness of his brother, Leopold Hirsch, at his home in Salem.

The procession of wheat teams continues to string into the city from north and south. At 10:30 this forenoon ten wagons, two to each team, drawn by twenty-four horses, two 6-horse and three 4-horse, were driven loaded to the Regulator wharf.

City Marshal Moloney is again filling the cattle pond today with Herefords, Devons and Jerseys; all fine milch cows.

Mrs. Powell was buried in the family burial plat in Portland. Friends who accompanied the remains to Portland, returned today.

The festive house-fly is again festive when the rooms are warmed up. Some of them were out on the sunny sides of houses today for an airing.

Mr. Wm. Bethune, state geologist and assayer for Washington, was in the city yesterday, returning from the Mount Adams silver mining district. He escaped the interviewer.

It is said one object of the U. P. officials visit to Oregon this week was to purchase the Astoria railway. Mr. Clarke says: "No agreement has been made, no decision reached."

A description of Burdette Wolf, the young man wanted by Sheriff Kelly of Multnomah county, on charge of attempting to kill Miss Birdie Morton, may be seen at Sheriff Ward's office.

Mr. Frank Beezley, and the wife of Mr. William Beezley of Newbridge, are in the city paying a visit to their father and father-in-law, Mr. Joseph Beezley, whose illness is of a very serious nature.

Dr. Shackelford says that duck shooting about The Dalles will soon be a sport of the past. In its day it was truly fine sport, but feed is not so abundant in ponds as before the introduction of carp.

Members of the Congregational church, are requested by the board of trustees to attend a meeting to be held in the vestry of the new church at 7:30 p. m., Wednesday, October 19th, upon business of importance.

An aggravated case of assault and battery on the night clerk at the New Columbia hotel Sunday morning early, in which Pat Keenan, a man named Strickland and one John Doe are defendants, comes up before Justice Shutz.

The express companies interested on the Pacific Coast in the capture of the Dalton gang, have remitted rewards aggregating $27,000, in connection with other companies who were after the scalps of the robbers, dead or alive.

The season has been fairly successful in all productions for the Oregon farmer, and the bulletins have, as accurately as possible, portrayed the general conditions from seed time to harvest and 'tis hoped that they have been of value to the public.

A report came to our office, says the Wasco News, that the money lenders of The Dalles are willing to loan money to the farmers on easy terms. We are sure that it will not be lost, for this is one of the best counties east of the Cascade range and should be so recognized by the business man elsewhere.

Justice Shutz was called out of bed last night is issue a warrant for Charles Chapman, accused of stealing horses. Fifteen horses were stolen, it is alleged, and Chapman had one of them; but he proposes to establish a lawful ownership to it, and deny having any claims to the other fourteen head.

Returns are coming into the Palouse Gazette office from the sugar beet seed distributed by that paper last spring, which show that beets will flourish and produce abundantly in Whitman county soil. It is not beyond the range of possibility that a sugar factory will be established in that section within a few years. Wasn't some seed distributed from The Dalles last year? And how did it yield?

Baptiste, the Indian pilot known by all American tourists who have passed down the rapids of the St. Lawrence, died a few days ago, aged 82. He was the first Indian to run a boat down the rapids.

The old question of having Mt. Hood, with a large domain surrounding it, set aside as a national park has been again revived. There are many reasons urged for the adoption of the measure and no stone will be left unturned to secure the passage of a bill authorizing it.

A Chinese pheasant was captured in Pendleton while trying to get into the second story of a building on Main street through a transom. The bird had evidently exhausted itself, for it died in a short while. It was a young one and evidently a descendant of the birds imported to Umatilla county by A. M. Despain.

Supt. Mitchell, of the Portland Exposition, says the Wasco county people in and about The Dalles are stayers. We have just got in with both feet, kept up fresh supplies of fruit and people daily, and fully endorse the Oregonian editorial, "that while it has created no local furore, it has been the most valuable and successful exposition in the history of the society." So say we, all of us.

As our readers have already been apprised, the 21st of October has been declared a legal holiday, and on that day the public schools will celebrate this occasion in a becoming manner. They have prepared an excellent programme and the exercises promise to prove highly interesting. It has been suggested that it would be well for our merchants and other business men and all civic and secret organizations to unite in the proper observance of the day by taking part in the exercises.

The Grant's Pass Observer, speaking with reference to the resources of the Inland Empire, to be tapped by the extension of the Washington and Columbia river railroad, as the Hunt system is to be called, through Grant county, Camas prairie, Southern Oregon and California, says: "Such a route would bring the road via Goose lake, Hot Springs valley and Fall River valley to the head of the Sacramento valley. It would throw open to market millions of dollars' worth of timber, range, agricultural and mineral lands and develop an extensive and rich territory that is now isolated."

L. M. Davis, a member of the city council of Portland, in speaking of the Lake Washington canal, says: "Portland has been working 17 years for the completion of the locks on the Columbia by congressional appropriations, at a cost of $2,000,000, and the work is only nicely begun." "Yes," retorts the Kluckitkat Leader, "Portland has worked very hard but the most of her work has been to keep the locks from being completed. If Portland was very anxious to have the locks completed, she could do just what Mr. Davis advises Seattle to do with the canal, get in and build the locks." Had Portland been very largely interested in the opening of the Columbia the locks would have been completed long ago. If we have to depend on the consolidated city, it will be another 17 years before the locks are completed.

Latest News in Brief.

No matter how hopefully the doctors' statements are made to sound every day, there is never a moment passes for the White House family that is not filled with the deepest anxiety. Mrs. Harrison became so weak yesterday that the slightest change may mean the end.

The United States supreme court, by Chief Justice Fuller, yesterday reaffirmed the judgment of the Michigan supreme court, upholding the constitutionality of the famous Miner law, providing for a choice of presidential electors by congressional districts instead of by the state as a whole.

The Olympia supreme court decided yesterday against Judge Bloomfield, of Vancouver, in the mandamus proceeding instituted by him to compel the secretary of state to certify to the proper officers that he was the regular nominee of the republican party for the office of superior judge for the counties of Clarke, Cowlitz and Skamania. This case has attracted wide attention because it raised the question, for the first time under the new ballot law, as to what constitutes a regular party nomination.

The Idaho Supreme Justices Sullivan, Morgan and Huston met in chambers at Boise City yesterday to consult in regard to the test oath case, which was argued in Lewiston last week. They will today hand down a written decision upholding the laws, which prevent 2000 persons, who felt sure they would be allowed to vote, from exercising the elective franchise at next month's general election. Last week Judge Stockslager rendered such a decision that the Mormons thought they had solved the problem, so the action of the supreme court will be a great disappointment to them. Had they been allowed to vote democratic gains would have resulted.

There was considerable activity about the republican headquarters yesterday in New York. The republicans charged fraud in the naturalization process, in that runners from Tammany were bringing in droves of Hungarians, Poles and Italians who will vote the democratic ticket, the expense of which was paid and the issuance of papers facilitated by them. It was also stated that a combination to gauge the applications for naturalization and to cut down the republican naturalized vote had been operating for more than three weeks, with the full knowledge of the officers of the court. It was charged further that republican applications for naturalization were rejected on insufficient grounds after passing from six hours to two days in an effort to reach the clerk's desk behind the crowd of Tammany heelers.

From Far Off Africa.

Miss McNiel, a mild-mannered pleasant Oregon lady of middle age, told those who attended the M. E. church last evening a graphic story of the work that has been done by women toward evangelizing the dark continent. She told her own experience and that of her friends in the mission. Not only had the mission done great work for India, but it had set an example and inspired others with confidence, so that to the efforts of its founders were due the establishment of others, in the far away Orange free state in Africa. She made a good impression, and so did her little African pupil Dinah.

Women are not slow to comprehend. They're quick. They're alive, and yet it was a man who discovered the one remedy for their peculiar ailments. The man was Dr. Pierce. The discovery was his "Favorite Prescription"—the boon to delicate women. Why go round "with one foot in the grave," suffering in silence—misunderstood—when there's a remedy at hand that isn't an experiment, but which is sold under the guarantee that if you are disappointed in any way in it, you can get your money back by applying to its makers. We can hardly imagine a woman's not trying it. Possibly it may be true of one or two—but we doubt it. Women are ripe for it. They must have it. Think of a prescription and nine out of ten waiting for it. Carry the news to them.

The seat of sick headache is not in the brain. Regulate the stomach and you cure it. Dr. Pierce's pellets are the little regulators.

NOTICE

To Settlers Under the 3rd Sec. Act, September 29, 1890.

Department of the Interior, General Land Office, Washington, D.C., September 30, 1892.
Register and Receiver, The Dalles, Oregon—Sir: Referring to office instructions of February 3, 1891, issued under the forfeiture act of Sept. 29, 1890, and of March 5, 1891, issued under the act of February 18, 1891, which so amended the act of 1890 as to cause the time, within which claimants thereunder were required to properly present their claims, to run from the date of the promulgation of the instructions for the restoration by this office, I have now to advise you that Congress, by act approved June 25, 1892, amended section 3 of the act of September 29, 1890, so as to extend the time, within which persons actually residing upon the lands claimed by them might present their claims, to three years from the passage of said act of 1890.

This letter amendment relates only to claimants under section three, of the act of 1890, who actually reside upon the forfeited lands, and the Secretary of the Interior, on September 16, 1892, decided that as to such claimants the time was extended to September 29, 1893, the act of February 18, 1891, in so far as it related to them, having been repealed by the act of June 25, 1892, by implication. The instructions of March 5, 1891, (which will govern you in the cases of all other claimants under said act.) Very Respectfully,
W. M. STONE,
Acting Commissioner.

A Cholera Scare.

A reported outbreak of cholera at Helmetta, N. J., created much excitement in that vicinity. Investigation showed that the disease was not cholera but a violent dysentery, which is almost as severe and dangerous as cholera. Mr. Walter Willard, a prominent merchant of Jamesburg, two miles from Helmetta, says Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhea Remedy has given great satisfaction in the most severe cases of dysentery. It is certainly one of the best things ever made. For sale by Blakeley & Houghton, druggists.

NOTICE.

All Dalles City warrants registered prior to January 6, 1891, will be paid if presented at my office. Interest ceases from and after this date.
Dated October 13th, 1892.

A Cure for Cholera.

There is no use of any one suffering with the cholera when Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhea Remedy can be procured. It will give relief in a few minutes and cure in a short time. I have tried it and know.—W. H. Clinton, Helmetta, N. J. The epidemic at Helmetta was at first believed to be cholera, but subsequent investigation proved it to be a violent form of dysentery, almost as dangerous as cholera. This remedy was used there with great success. For sale by Blakeley & Houghton.
