HER FRIEND.

Twas in the Boston fast express a little maid-She occupied the seat alone; beside her lay her hat.

She clutched her dolly to her breast in childish mother play.

As if she feared some dreadful giant would

As if she reared some dreamin grant state is snatch it right away.

"Are you alone, my little girl?" I asked as I stooped down.

"My mamma told me Dod was here!" she said with half a frown.

"She tissed me an my dolly, and I dess I don't know you."
"But, dear," I answered, smiling, "tell me where you're going to."
She twisted in her soat, and then she tossed her tangled hair, "I'm doin on to Boston, an my pop'll meet me there."

"But, dear," I questioned gently, "if the choo

"And you should walk, and walk, and walk, and then not find your pop,
"What would you do?" The little maiden shook her head and frowned.
"My mamma says when pop is gone, that Dod is somewhere round."

The train rolled into Boston town, I waited

there awhile And watched my little blue eyes, with her half expectant smile. "Dess waitin for my pop," she said, "with dolly

America's Paper Making Capacity. The United States has a capacity for producing about 15,250,000 pounds of paper annually, not counting the idle mills, of which at present about seventy are reported, out of a total of 1,180. Of this enormous product some 3,735,000 pounds are used in printing newspapers and books, and 212,800 pounds more go to help bind the books printed. It is estimated that 498,000 pounds are consumed by the building trades; 3,176,000 pounds of wrapping paper are used and 590,000 pounds of writing papers. An important item is the production of nearly 1,600,000 pounds of press, straw and wood pulp "boards." The produc-tion of "artificial leather," fortunately for the purchasers of shoes, has been decreasing since 1884, when 129,000 pounds of this material were produced. The most rigid economy is practiced in paper making; hence the high degree of mechanical skill and executive ability connected with this industry as compared with the cost of the product .-New York Telegram.

Change of Fifty Years.

The tardy justice done to women in the passing of the women's property act in England and America was the direct outgrowth of the wages system. The fact that weman had no right in her earnings, inherited property, or even in her personal belongings, until recent years, took away all stimulus to active money making effort. Driven to it by the failure of husband or father to provide for her wants, she could not hold any possession from the grasp of the selfish, cruel, tyrannical or degraded male relative who possessed legal power over her. The change in these serflike conditions has all occurred within the past fifty years, and it is marvelous .-Jenny June's "Thrown on Her Own Re-

Catcher Flint's Wonderful Hands. Charles Seymour, the newspaper man, used to tell a story about Catcher Flint. When the Chicago Ball club called on the president in Washington each memthe president in Washington each member of course shook hands with the executive. When the president's hand was released by "Old Silver" the president was seen to quickly thrust it into the pocket of his coat. Then he felt about in his pocket a bit, took his hand out and looked at it with some surprise, remarking, "Oh, I beg pardon; I thought you had given me a handful of walnuts."--Chicago Post.

Married on His Deathped

Wednesday Strond Van Meter and Miss Spencer were married at Marengo, Crawford county, Ind., the bridegroom at the time being on his deathbed. About ten days ago Van Meter and two brothers were injured by the premature explosion of a blast of dynamite while working in a quarry near Marengo, his injuries consisting of a broken leg and arm, the loss of an eye and internal injuries that will almost certainly cause his death. The wounded man and Miss Spencer had been for some months betrothed, and were only waiting for an improvement in their financial circumstances to have the ceremony performed. When the accident occurred the young woman insisted that the ceremony be performed at once in order that she might be at liberty to care for her betrothed.-Louisville Courier-Journal.

Millions of Red Herring. The waters of the inlet at this time of the year are fairly alive with red her-The general belief is that shipping will drive these fish from any waters, but any one standing on the deck of a boat lying in the stream can see millions of them now. Saturday afternoon several boys were observed fishing in the old Indian fashion, and they secured a lot of fish. The Indian method is as follows: Take a slender pole about twenty feet long and drive in on one side a dozen or two of tenpenny nails; then, sitting in the bow of the boat, propel it by paddling with the pole. The pole, in passing through the water, catches the fish on the nails. In this way a large quantity may be caught in a short time.
