JUDGE NELSON'S DECISION.

Speaking of patent medicines, the Judge says: "I wish to deal fairly and honorably with all, and when I find an article that will do what it is recommended to do, I am not ashamed to say so. I am acquainted with Dr. Vanderpool (having been treated by him for cancer), and have used his blood medicine, known as the S. B. Headache and Liver Cure, and while I am 75 years old, and have used many pills and other remedies for the blood, liver and kidneys, I must say that for a kidney tonic in Bright's disease, and as an alternative for the stomach and bowels, it is a very superior remedy, and beats anything I ever tried."

At 50 cents a bottle. It is the poor man's friend and family doctor.

WHAT TRUTH SAYS OF AMERICA.

"The Most Prosperous Country in the World at This Moment."

LABOUCHERE A PROTECTIONIST.

Protection Pudding a More Plentiful Meal For Us Than Is Free Trade Duff For Them.

INDIANAPOLIS, Oct. 27.—Arrangements for the funeral of Mrs. Harrison are practically complete. The burial lot in the cemetery was selected yesterday morning. It is beautifully located near the soldiers' graves. The honorary pall-bearers will be made up of distinguished citizens of Indiana, including General Lew Wallace, Hon. W. P. Fishback, Judge William Woods and Hon. E. B. Martindale. The active pall-bearers will be 10 regular army officers. A dispatch from Rome announces that the Pope was deeply interested in the illness of Mrs. Harrison and expressed much sympathy with her in her suffering. When the gravity of the malady was declared, his holiness sent the distinguished patient an apostolic benediction.

Would Be a Protectionist.

NEW YORK, Oct. 27.—In London Truth yesterday Labouchere expresses himself as thinking it doubtful whether many Europeans will visit the Chicago fair, and that people of the leisure class will prefer to visit a country where no fair is being held. He says: "It is certain, however, at the present moment America is the most prosperous country in the world, despite our assertions that protection is ruinous. If I had been an American myself, I should have advocated protection. The proof of the pudding is in the eating. The protection pudding has proved a more plentiful meal for the Americans than free trade duff provides for Britons."

MARKET REVIEW.

Summary of Trade and Business for the Current Week.

Thursday, Oct. 27th. There has been a greater activity in the city during the past week than any former week of the season: A larger volume of business has been done, and prices have been very satisfactory to both buyer and seller.

In the grocery line, there has been no change in quotations, save a slight advance in Arbuckle coffee, other staples have held their own with an expected continuance.

The produce market is of its usual quietness for the season, it being well supplied with all kinds of farm products, with the exception of eggs, which are not as plentiful, and as a consequence, are firmer and prices have slightly advanced. Buyers are paying 27½ cents per dozen cash, and 30 cents in trade.

Poultry quotations are firm at old prices, although, March chickens that are really extra fine would fetch $3.75 per dozen readily. Ducks, geese and turkeys have not found their way into market yet and there are no quotations to give. In a couple of weeks hence, there will be an inquiry for those larger fowls for the approaching holidays when prices will be given. Some buyers speak of the market opening at 10 cents per pound for turkeys.

GRAIN MARKET—There has been a very large movement during the past week in grain. A larger delivery of wheat than at any time this season, the market has been very feverish and prices have ranged between 59@65 cents per bushel for the different grades. These extreme prices were owing to a very feverish condition of some local buyers who were incensed over successes, which the markets abroad would not justify, as the tendency both at home and abroad is a weaker market.

There is no inquiry for oats or barley at present quotations, and the market is very sluggish, Portland papers report a firm market for oats at an advance within the last few days.

The beef market is steady with a large stock in reserve. Fat beef dealers report a falling off in demand for fat stock, and the inquiry is very light. Prime fat mutton is in good demand and firm at quotation.

REAL ESTATE.

A real estate dealer and broker reports an increased activity in realty for the past week, and transactions have been very satisfactory. The auction sale of lots put on the market by the city authorities, was well attended and bidders were active in purchases at good prices. City property has advanced in value and an eagerness is manifest by outside parties to invest for investment sake, believing there is a good thing in the near future for capital.

PRODUCE MARKET

Portland quotes valley wheat at $1 25, Walla Walla at $1 17½ to $1 20 per cental.

The Dalles market is steady at 60 to 63 cents per bus. for No. 1, and 57 to 59 cents per bus. for No. 2 and No. 3.

BARLEY—The market is nearly lifeless in barley, prices are down to 70 and 75 cents per 100 lbs.

OATS—The oat market is stiff and offerings are light at $1 25 cents per 100 lbs. Eye 75 cents per bushel.

MILLS—Bran and shorts are quoted at $19 00 to $20 00 per ton, middlings $12 50 to $23 00 per ton. Rolled barley, $23 00 to $24 00 per ton. Shelled corn $1 25 per 100 lbs.

FLOUR—Salem mills flour is quoted at $5 50 per barrel. Diamond brand at $3 90 per bbl. per ton and $4 00 per bbl. retail.

HAY—Timothy hay ranges in price from $12 00 to $15 00 per ton, according to quality and condition. Wheat hay is in full stock on a limited demand at $10 00 to $12 00 per ton. There is no inquiry for oat hay, and prices are off. Alfalfa hay is not much called for, and is quoted at $10 00 to $12 00 per ton. These quotations are for baled hay exclusively.

BUTTER—Fresh roll butter is in fair supply at 55 to 60 cents per roll, in brine or dry salt we quote 45 to 50 cents per roll.

EGGS—The egg market is getting short in supply and good fresh eggs find ready sale at 27½ cents per dozen cash, or 30 cents in trade.

POULTRY—There is a fair demand for fowls for a home market and for shipment to Portland. Spring chickens are quoted at $2 00 to $2 50 per dozen, and old ones at $3 00. Turkeys and geese do not figure in the market at present.

BEEF & MUTTON—Beef cattle is in moderate demand at $1 75 per 100 weight gross to $2 25 for extra good. Mutton is held at an advance of last years prices and is quoted at $3 00 to $4 75 per head. Pork offerings are light and prices are nominal at 4 to 4½ gross weight and 5 cents dressed.

OPERATIVES STRIKE.

Calamitous Effects Expected From Threatened Strikers.

LONDON AND MANCHESTER WORKS.

Mayors of the Two Cities Endeavoring to Bring About a Truce.

MILLIONS OF SPINDLES AT STAKE.

Fifty-Two Thousand Persons, Men, Women and Children Will be Out of Employment.

NEW YORK, Oct. 27.—A London dispatch reports that with a view of avoiding the calamitous effects of the threatened strike among cotton operatives, the mayors of Liverpool and Manchester are trying to induce the disputants to consent to arbitration, the matter to be submitted to a council of operatives and the Cotton Spinners' association a week from Saturday. It is believed, however, it will prove fruitless. It is estimated the threatened strike will affect 13,000,000 spindles. The Masters' Federation controls 18,000,000 spindles. The spinners of north and northeast Lancashire and Bolton are not affected by the strike, and 5,000,000 spindles in these districts will be run as usual, paying the federation fine of one farthing per spindle a week. If 13,000,000 spindles stop, 52,000 persons, a large proportion of whom are women and children, will be idle. The stock of cotton yarn on hand is enough to last three weeks. If the strike continues longer, many weaving sheds will have to close. The fine of a farthing a week on each working spindle will provide an income of over $5000 weekly. This will enable the federation to continue the lockout. The operatives' organization is well prepared for a long struggle. Their fund already amounts to $120,000. The unaffected operatives are binding themselves to pay special levies during the strike.

Anti Trust Law.

TOPEKA, Kan., Oct. 26.—Warrants are out in the hands of the United States marshal for the arrest under the anti-trust law of undertakers in forming a combination to fix prices. The fight is being made by the undertakers of Leavenworth and Atchison, who are outside of the trust.

The Last.

St. LOUIS, Oct. 26.—Chairman Vining, of the Transcontinental Association, has sent a circular to the members calling attention to the numerous notices of withdrawal, and suggesting a meeting of the association be called November 15th to take action thereon. This will probably be what the shoemaker threw at his wife. The last.

The Deluded Mortals.

The Pullman Car company have made a combination with the man at the end of the Bridal Veil mill whistle string, which awakens the sleeper in an innocent way, and compels him to get out. The whistle is a 54x56 compound trumpet, and the man at the string gives her a full head of steam for six minutes—or so much longer as the train may remain stationary on the track at the station. The passengers get out cussing the mill whistle blower, and the Pullman porter takes in the shekels with a satisfaction which is surfeiting to himself, while the deluded mortals on the train never suspect the imposition practiced upon them.

Dying Into Faint Echoes.

Oregonian. All over the country the "populist" campaign is waning. There are evidences of it on every hand, and in Oregon as elsewhere. We do not think the vote for Weaver and Field will be as large in Oregon as the "populist" vote was last June. The howls of calamity are perceptibly weaker. That is, the voices of the coyote statesmen (and stateswomen) are dying into echoes, fainter and fainter.
