

National Republican Ticket.

FOR PRESIDENT, BENJAMIN HARRISON, of Indiana. FOR VICE-PRESIDENT, WHITELAW REID, of New York. FOR PRESIDENTIAL ELECTORS, J. F. CAPLES, of Portland. H. B. MILLER, of Grant's Pass. G. M. IRWIN, of Union. D. M. DUNNE, of Portland.

LEE FAIRCHILD'S COUSIN.

Lee Fairchild has made a vigorous canvass in Washington for the republicans. He tells of a cousin of his in the Palouse country, who used his influence to get Lee over to the populists side. 'Now,' said he, 'we need you in this party, for you are educated and could help us along by writing for us.' 'I tried to show him and be modest at the same time,' said Lee, 'that it would be difficult to get an educated man into the new party unless he had failed to get office in an older party. I told him also that the sub-treasury scheme was a determining factor; that it separated the sheep of intelligence from the goats of intelligence. He had wit enough to hand me a pair of shears, whereupon I informed him that we do not shear goats!' Then he asked me why Uncle Sam should not loan money to the farmers instead of to the national banks. Of course I placed my hand over my face and smiled. Then I asked him if he were acquainted with his big uncle. I reminded him that this is a government by the people and that Uncle Sam was the people in representation. Then I asked him if he ever tried to loan himself a dollar. He got up and took a walk across the floor and showed signs of intellectual activity. His senses were on the way coming back to him, but the distance was too great. I then told him that Uncle Sam never loaned a dollar to a national bank and that they were called 'national' because the nation regulated them so as to secure those who took their paper against loss in case the banks failed. He seemed surprised to learn that and began walking the floor again. Then he asked, 'Is it possible that so shrewd a man as Mr. Young, candidate for governor of Washington, can be mistaken?' I showed him how all the Argentine republic had been mistaken on the money question, to the ruin of the country's credit at home and abroad; also how all France had gone to the dogs on the question of finance. And what did this very cousin say? This: 'May he never speak again!' 'The Argentine republic and France may be mistaken; but Mr. Young is neither the Argentine republican nor France.' I agreed with him and asked him if he had ever seen a railroad engine? My cousin has a fiddle and can play like sixty on three strings. He entertained me with an artistic execution of Cotton-Eyed Joe which I mistook for Wool-Eyed Jim. He also, sawed off for he just saws with the bow, The Girl I Left Behind me. He soon re-tried me and then I suggested that we both retire. In his not too elaborate preparation to forget the world I noticed that he had on no socks. I questioned him relative to this, thinking that his shoes might be too small to admit of anything in the line of wool or cotton. Not so; he said he expected to run for congress most any time and wanted to have as little weight on his feet as possible. He soon went to sleep too deep for dreams. Blessed are they who know too little.

The Wilbur Register states that about 40,000 bushels of wheat are stored on platforms near the depot in that town, and grain continues to pour in at the rate of 1,000 bushels per day. It is estimated that not more than one-twentieth of the in that vicinity has been marketed.

The wheat market at Athens, near Pendleton, is quite lively at present, the grain bringing a good price, as high as 62 cents having been paid. There is yet much threshing to do in that vicinity, although elevators and warehouses are already full.

Census bulletins covering the manufacturing industries of Omaha and Albany show an increase in the rate of wages of nearly 50 per cent. over the wages paid in 1880. That doesn't look much like calamity.

Wheat is worth $1.10 per bushel in Great Falls, Montana, where the local industries provide an army of consumers. It will be all used at home.

Keep out disease by keeping in healthy action the liver, stomach and bowels. There's a pleasant and a sure way of doing it. It's with Dr. Pierce's Pleasant Pellets. They're the best Liver Pill ever made, and a prompt and effective remedy for Sick Headache, Biliary Headache, Constipation, Indigestion, Bilious Attacks, and all derangements of the stomach, liver and bowels. They cleanse and renovate the system, quietly but thoroughly. They regulate the system, too—they don't upset it, like the old-fashioned pills. These are purely vegetable and perfectly harmless. One "Pellet" takes, and the mildest in operation—the smallest in size, but the most efficient in their work. They're the cheapest pill you can buy, because they're guaranteed to give satisfaction, or your money is returned. You only pay for the good you get. Can you ask more? That's the peculiar plan all Dr. Pierce's medicines are sold on.

Too Much of a Risk. It is not unusual for colds contracted in the fall to hang on all winter. In such cases catarrh or chronic bronchitis are almost sure to result. A fifty cent bottle of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy will cure any cold. Can you afford to risk so much for so small an amount? This remedy is intended especially for bad colds and croup and can always be depended upon. For sale by Blakeley & Houghton, druggists.
