

National Republican Ticket.

FOR PRESIDENT, BENJAMIN HARRISON, of Indiana.

FOR VICE-PRESIDENT, WHITE LAW REID, of New York.

FOR PRESIDENTIAL ELECTORS, J. F. CAPLES, of Portland. H. B. MILLER, of Grant's Pass. G. M. IRWIN, of Union. D. M. DUNNE, of Portland.

DESERVED THE SHIP.

The democracy have done it. They have fallen by the wayside in Oregon; ignominiously driven to eat crow, and compelled to swallow the dregs of defeat before meeting the opposing forces. "It is the only thing for us to do," says Chairman Dan Murphy; one of that stamp of politicians whose proclamation: "I am a democrat," will henceforth be received with very considerable scepticism. But the fiat issued from the national democratic committee commanding it, and the weak kneed electors withdraw from the contest, surrendering whatever political integrity they may have had. These machine leaders will learn by next Tuesday night that the voting element of Oregon democracy is made of sterner stuff than they have reckoned, and will cast their ballots for what they consider a principle above the one idea of "anything to beat Harrison." It is an insult to be told in so many words: "Leave your ship; let the old hulk sink; get on board the Weaver craft; sacrifice your time-honored principles and endorse the Omaha platform; if Weaver can carry Oregon by such methods." Mr. Murphy may believe himself to be "as good a democrat as there is in the state of Oregon," and he may consider himself competent to speak for republicans in the third party, but he should be advised of one sure thing, that his zeal for machine politics makes the motive so transparent that it will produce nausea in many parts of the populist camp even, where honesty of purpose is paramount in the minds of the voter to low down trickery and political vagrancy.

The prices of tinplate are lower in Great Britain than ever before in the history of the trade. This is due to American competition and to the necessity the foreign manufacturer finds himself under of paying the tariff upon shipments to this country. The weekly tinplate report of Liverpool says that 180 mills are idle in Wales and will continue idle until the workmen assent to a reduction of wages.

The only authentic portrait of Columbus is as plentiful as the tree under which Washington tied his horse, and the original mugwump. People remark that no two pictures of Columbus look alike. Let them remember what change only a few years make in an ordinary man, and then reflect what must be the results of four centuries.

The western tariff association is dead and will wind up its affairs today. Meanwhile various schemes have been suggested for the organization of a new association, and the committee in charge of the work will meet on the 10th to consider the subject.

A ledge of tin four feet thick discovered in Idaho has been traced half a mile. Mr. Schermerhorn does not know what the percentage of tin is, but he states that sample sent to authorities on the subject have been pronounced very fine.

The discovery of valuable coal fields near Auburn, in Baker county, is reported, and preparations are being made to develop the property on a large scale. Heretofore no coal veins found in that section would pay for developing.

Robert Louis Stevenson has organized a literary club among the Samoans. The reason for the innovation is not apparent to the natives. A literary club is not good to eat.

It is the universal verdict that politics is suffering from an overdose of apathy administered at the hands of the voting public.

The theoretical and traditional wisdom of economy is again taking concrete form in connection with winter overcoats.

Since the completion of that telephone line there is a disposition on the part of New Yorkers to refer to Chicago as "our west side."

Turn to the right medicine, if you're a weak or ailing woman. It's Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription. If you're overworked or "run-down," it builds you up; if you're afflicted with any of the distressing derangements and disorders peculiar to your sex, it relieves and cures. It improves digestion, invigorates the system, enriches the blood, dispels aches and pains, melancholy and nervousness, produces refreshing sleep, and restores flesh and strength. In the cure of all functional disturbances, weaknesses, and irregularities, it's guaranteed to give satisfaction, or the money is refunded. It does all that's claimed for it, or it couldn't be sold in this way. It is a legitimate medicine—not a beverage. Contains no alcohol or inebriate; no syrup or sugar to sour or ferment in the stomach and cause distress. As peculiar in its marvelous, remedial results as in its composition.

Please Report. Subscribers will oblige THE CHRONICLE by promptly reporting if their papers are not delivered, or the delivery boys do not place them in a safe place. The distribution of the papers is one of the most perplexing questions to be solved by a newspaper. If you do not get your paper, kick. We are endeavoring to keep things straight.

Examination of Teachers. Notice is hereby given that for the purpose of making an examination of all persons who may offer themselves as candidates for teachers of the schools of this county, the county school superintendent thereof will hold a public examination at his office in The Dalles, beginning Wednesday, November 9th, 1892, at one o'clock p. m. All teacher-eligible for state certificates, state diplomas and life diplomas must make application at the quarterly examinations. Dated this Oct. 31, 1892. The Fence of the Future. There are a number of strong points in favor of the Tuna Hedge as the fence of the future, the advantage of this kind of a fence may be briefly enumerated as follows: It becomes a perfect barrier against all kinds of domestic animals after three years growth; does not sap or impoverish the ground, being a strictly atmospheric plant, and will not grow from the seed or by cutting the roots; hence will not spread, it grows only to a certain uniform height and therefore does not require trimming, it has been thoroughly and successfully tested in northern climates and does not kill out in the winter time, it serves the double purpose of usefulness and ornamentation, as it is an evergreen and blooms during three months of the year, an invitation is extended to thoroughly test its merits, and every one will be convinced that it possesses all the advantages claimed for it. Messrs. Johnson & Payne are now taking orders for the Tuna Hedge and have met with uniform success. Any one wishing a living growing fence something that will not spread and will be a fence for all time to come should give their orders now and get their fence started this fall.

Too Much of a Risk. It is not unusual for colds contracted in the fall to hang on all winter. In such cases catarrh or chronic bronchitis are almost sure to result. A fifty cent bottle of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy will cure any cold. Can you afford to risk so much for so small an amount? This remedy is intended especially for bad colds and croup and can always be depended upon. For sale by Blakeley & Houghton, druggists.

THE NEW TOWN has been platted on the old camp ground, at the Forks and Falls of Hood river, with large slightly lots, broad streets and alleys, good soil, pure cold water and shade in profusion, perfect drainage, delightful mountain climate, the central attraction as a mountain summer resort and for all Oregon, being the nearest town to Mt. Hood. It is also unparalleled as a manufacturing center, being the natural center for 150 square miles of the best cedar and fir timber, possessing millions of horse power in its dashing streams and waterfalls, easily harnessed. Where cheap motive power exists, there the manufacturing will center, surrounded by soil and climate that cannot be excelled anywhere for fruit and agriculture, and with transportation already assured you will find this the place to make a perfect home or a paying investment.
