A Cholera Scare.

A reported outbreak of cholera at Helmetta, N. J., created much excitement in that vicinity. Investigation showed that the disease was not cholera but a violent dysentery, which is almost as severe and dangerous as cholera. Mr. Walter Willard, a prominent merchant of Jamesburg, two miles from Helmetta, says Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhœa Remedy has given great satisfaction in the most severe cases of dysentery. It is certainly one of the best things ever made." For sale by Blakeley & Houghton, druggists.

Notice.

By Order of the Common Council of Dalles City, made and entered on the 12th day of October, 1892, notice is hereby given that said city council is about to proceed to order and make improvements in streets in said city, as hereinafter stated, and the cost of such improvement will be levied upon the property adjacent thereto, and said improvement will be made, unless within fourteen days from the final publication of this notice, the owners of two-thirds of the property adjacent thereto, shall file their remonstrance against such improvements as by charter provided.

The improvement contemplated and about to be made is as follows, to-wit:

To improve Washington, Fulton and Laughlin streets in said city, by constructing a sewer of terra-cotta, from the Columbia river at the foot of said Washington street, and running thence south on said Washington street, to the junction of said street with Fulton street, and running thence easterly a ong said Fulton street, to the junction of said Fulton street with Laughlin street, and running thence southerly along said Laughlin street, to the alley next south of Alvord street, said sewer to be of twelve inch terra-cotta pipe from the point of beginning, above mentioned to the alley between Fourth and Fifth streets, and of ten inch terra-cotta pipe from said place, to the termination thereof, as above stated ated this 22d day of October, 1892.

Found Him at Last.

She had been away all summer. The mountains had felt her stately tread; the sea had taken her to its ever changing bosom and folded her in its billowy arms.

She had flirted from Old Point to Bar Harbor, from Mount Mitchell to the Adirondacks.

She had tasted the sweets of hope; she had drained the bitter cup of disappointment.

Now she is at home again.

Home, the Mecca of the weary pilgrim; the Canaan beyond the wilderness; the altar around which we all kneel in thankfulness; the dear walls which take us to their loving embrace and hide us from the comfortless world without.

Home again, and a peace had come to her she had never known since she had gone out in June as the birdlet from its nest.

At the front door her dear old father, who had been at his desk ten hours daily all the weary while she was away, met her.

"My daughter!" he said, holding out his arms to her.

Like a tired wanderer, footsore and heartsick, she came to him.

Trustingly, confidingly, restfully, she laid her soft white face, in its frame of golden hair, upon his bosom.

"At last," she murmured, "at last I have found some one to be a popper to me."

And the dear old father, in the tumultuous joy of having his darling child again, didn't catch on.—Detroit Free
