OFFICIAL PAPER OF DALLES CITY.
AND WASCO COUNTY.

National Republican Ticket.

FOR PRESIDENT,
BENJAMIN HARRISON,
of Indiana.

FOR VICE-PRESIDENT,
WHITELAW REID,
of New York.

FOR PRESIDENTIAL ELECTORS,
J. F. CAPLES, of Portland.
H. B. MILLER, of Grant's Pass.
G. M. IRWIN, of Union.
D. M. DUNNE, of Portland.

REASONS THAT SWAY VOTES.

An interesting symposium in the November issue of the Forum contains contributions from Messrs. James Schouler, J. H. Schiff, Franklin MacVeagh, John Claflin, H. W. Cannon, Gen. A. C. McClurg, the Rev. David Swing and the Hon. David Dudley Field, each of whom tells "for whom I shall vote and why." The expressions come pat to the hour, and as the eight contributors are evenly divided as to their preferences, four on each side, the utterances may be assumed to comprise a pretty fair statement of the situation.

The four favoring Mr. Harrison's election are Messrs. Schiff, Cannon and Claflin and Prof. Swing. Mr. Schiff thinks that the moment the democratic party gets into actual power it becomes "a threat to the substantial interests of the country." Mr. Claflin basis his preference on the tariff and silver questions. Prof. Swing, on the other hand, finds that the tariff issues "do not figure" in the pending case, as "both parties are bound to the practice of the protective doctrine." He does not wish a change in the methods employed, because "it will cost less to go on than to retreat." Mr. Cannon's reasons for preferring Harrison are personal respect and a belief in the principles of the republican party.

Mr. Schouler likes Cleveland because of "the superior strength of the principles he represents," and because his administration was "wise, sagacious, forbearing and courageous." Mr. MacVeagh's preferences have already been made public, though he crystallizes them here in nine reasons, five based upon a preference for the democratic party and four upon Mr. Cleveland's superiority. Gen. McClurg likes Mr. Cleveland for his attitude on the tariff, force-bill and pension issues. Mr. Fields choice is made because of principles rather than men. Mr. Harrison holds that the government should take care of the people; Mr. Cleveland, that the people should take care of themselves. As the contributors to this edifying symposium are evidently sincere, their utterances form an interesting illustration of the diversity of opinions which go to sway an election.

It might not be a bad idea for all voters to draw up similar declarations of political faith before going to the polls. Then, at least, they would be sure that they had such a faith, backed by reason and study of facts.

The democratic party must go to the polls tomorrow and meet the electors of the nation squarely on the issues of the unconstitutionality of protection and the restoration of bank scrip. It makes no difference, of course to the hide-bound partisans, what the party platform says. They would vote the ticket if it said all domestic manufacturers should be fined, and money should be made out of tan bark; but the thousands of thoughtful and somewhat independent voters, upon whom they counted with so much confidence, do care what are the declared principles of the party whose candidates they are asked to support, and will vote accordingly.

The extravagant claims of democratic success in Illinois, Wisconsin, Iowa and Indiana have been abandoned, and the party is now facing the grave danger of losing Connecticut, New Jersey, Delaware and West Virginia. The recent desperate effort to transfer the Oregon, Idaho, Colorado, South Dakota, Kansas, Iowa, Nebraska and Minnesota democratic vote to the peoples party, with the hope of throwing the election into the house, is a practical acknowledgment that New York is looked upon as lost, and that there is no hope for Cleveland in the electoral college.

Not a few throats in New York state are becoming seriously irritated by cries of fraud.

Grover Cleveland, when he was president of this United States vetoed the appropriation for the improvement of the Columbia river. What assurance have we that he would not so obstruct a contract to complete the Cascade canal and locks as to leave the Inland Empire bottled up for another century?

It disappears
—the worst forms of catarrh, with the use of Dr. Sage's Catarrh Remedy. It's mild, soothing, cleansing and healing properties effect a perfect and permanent cure, no matter how bad the case, or of how long standing. It's a remedy that succeeds where everything else has failed. Thousands of such cases can be pointed out. That's the reason its proprietors back their faith in it with money. They offer $500 reward for a case of catarrh which they cannot cure. It's a medicine that allows them to take such a risk. Doesn't common sense lead you to take such a medicine? "An advertising fake," you say. Funny, isn't it, how some people prefer sickness to health when the remedy is positive and the guarantee absolute. Wise men don't put money back of "fakes." And "faking" doesn't pay.

Please Report.
Subscribers will oblige THE CHRONICLE by promptly reporting if their papers are not delivered, or the delivery boys do not place them in a safe place. The distribution of the papers is one of the most perplexing questions to be solved by a newspaper. If you do not get your paper, kick. We are endeavoring to keep things straight.

Examination of Teachers.
Notice is hereby given that for the purpose of making an examination of all persons who may offer themselves as candidates for teachers of the schools of this county, the county school superintendent thereof will hold a public examination at his office in The Dalles, beginning Wednesday, November 9th, 1892, at one o'clock p. m. All teacher-eligible for state certificates, state diplomas and life diplomas must make application at the quarterly examinations. Dated this Oct. 31, 1892.

TROY SHELLEY,
County School Superintendent of Wasco County, Oregon. 10.31dwtd

The Fence of the Future.
There are a number of strong points in favor of the Tuna Hedge as the fence of the future, the advantage of this kind of a fence may be briefly enumerated as follows: It becomes a perfect barrier against all kinds of domestic animals after three years growth; does not sap or impoverish the ground, being a strictly atmospheric plant, and will not grow from the seed or by cutting the roots hence will not spread, it grows only to a certain uniform height and therefore does not require trimming, it has been thoroughly and successfully tested in northern climates and does not kill out in the winter time, it serves the double purpose of usefulness and ornamentation, as it is an evergreen and blooms during three months of the year, an invitation is extended to thoroughly test its merits, and every one will be convinced that it possesses all the advantages claimed for it. Messrs. Johnson & Payne are now taking orders for the Tuna Hedge and have met with uniform success. Any one wishing a living growing fence something that will not spread and will be a fence for all time to come should give their orders now and get their fence started this fall.

NOTICE.
All Dalles City warrants registered prior to January 6, 1891, will be paid if presented at my office. Interest ceases from and after this date.
Dated October 13th, 1892.
L. RORDEN,
Treas. Dalles City.

Too Much of a Risk.
It is not unusual for colds contracted in the fall to hang on all winter. In such cases catarrh or chronic bronchitis are almost sure to result. A fifty cent bottle of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy will cure any cold. Can you afford to risk so much for so small an amount? This remedy is intended especially for bad colds and croup and can always be depended upon. For sale by Blakeley & Houghton, druggists.

WINANS

THE NEW TOWN has been platted on the old camp ground, at the Forks and Falls of Hood river, with large sightly lots, broad streets and alleys, good soil, pure cold water and shade in profusion, perfect drainage, delightful mountain climate, the central attraction as a mountain summer resort and for all Oregon, being the nearest town to Mt. Hood. It is also unparalleled as a manufacturing center, being the natural center for 150 square miles of the best cedar and air timber, possessing millions of horse power in its dashing streams and waterfalls, easily harnessed. Where cheap motive power exists, there the manufacturing will center, surrounded by soil and climate that cannot be excelled anywhere for fruit and agriculture, and with transportation already assured you will find this the place to make a perfect home or a paying investment.
