CHRISTIAN ENDEAVOR SOCIETY.

The official report of the recent eleventh convention of the Young Peoples Society of Christian Endeavor, just published, furnishes some very interesting data. This convention was an event to which the attention of religious people all over the civilized world was turned. Simply in the matter of numbers it was a wonderful convention. There were 25,000 attendants upon it. These were drawn from 21,000 societies scattered over the globe. There were delegates from Asia, Africa, Australia and Japan.

Less than ten years ago this society had a total membership of 500. Now it numbers nearly a million and a half. The amazing growth may be partly due to the breadth and liberality of the conditions admitting to membership, for no distinctions of sectarianism are made. But this would hardly account for all the sudden and enduring increase, nor for the steadily growing popularity of the institution. The society stands unique today among religious organizations, and the work it can accomplish when it wishes may be reckoned as an important factor in the affairs of the world. Possibly a good deal of its success depends upon the youth, vitality and enthusiasm characterizing all its work. In the day when youth is triumphant it has given youth, men and women alike, something to expend energy upon. Nominally, the meeting in New York was to assist the generation of enthusiasm. If the enthusiasm is to be kept up as heretofore, who can predict what the size and influence of this aggressive body may become?

Some time ago an able editor in New York, following the lead of an able magazine writer, composed a rather grumpy editorial discussing the sentiments existing between America and England. "Do we hate England?" he asked, and his answer was: "We do." The topic is again brought up by the announcement of a truly marvelous change in the attitude of the London Times, which in the white heat of an election has found time to say things in praise of America. There are courteous editorials about us and good-natured allusions to our politics. And there are articles recalling the main points at issue and denying that the two peoples are unfriendly. It must be confessed that the most interesting and diverting features of the Times, heretofore, have been its animadversions touching all things American. Now that this newspaper is so strangely and unaccountably mollified we shall have to depend for our fun upon the loutish belaborings of the Saturday Review. But the question recalled; that of our alleged hatred for England; is idle. We do not much care whether England hates us or not, and we are certainly much too busy with our own affairs to hate England.

Strong confidence is felt at the state department that, in view of the president's deep interest in the matter, of the long confinement which the prisoners have already suffered and of their certified good character in the United States, the present Gladstone government will listen favorably to the appeal of the government of the United States and grant the imprisoned Irish-Americans liberty to return to the country of their adoption. Numerous representations have been made to this government in their behalf, and President Harrison's sympathy has been so aroused that he has directed that the legation in London bring the matter to the earnest consideration of the British government with a view to securing such modification of the sentence as will bring about their release.

A grain blockade is threatened at Tacoma. Wheat from eastern Washington arrives at the rate of about 125 carloads every twenty-four hours, and the elevator and warehouse accommodations are not sufficient for such a large supply. It is estimated that Tacoma grain shipments this year will exceed those of last season by at least 1,000,000 bushels.

Used up. It's the only way to use some things, but it's a bad condition for a man or woman. It means disease. Take Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery. That means health. It invigorates the liver and kidneys, purifies the blood and cleanses and renews the whole system. For all scrofulous humors and blood-taints, and even consumption (or lung-scrofula), if taken in time, it's a positive remedy. It's a guaranteed one. In all diseases of the liver, blood and lungs, it's warranted to benefit or cure, or the money is refunded. No other medicine of its class is sold, through druggists, on this peculiar plan. You can judge why. You only pay for the good you get.

Please Report. Subscribers will oblige THE CHRONICLE by promptly reporting if their papers are not delivered, or the delivery boys do not place them in a safe place. The distribution of the papers is one of the most perplexing questions to be solved by a newspaper. If you do not get your paper, kick. We are endeavoring to keep things straight.

The Fence of the Future. There are a number of strong points in favor of the Tuna Hedge as the fence of the future, the advantage of this kind of a fence may be briefly enumerated as follows: It becomes a perfect barrier against all kinds of domestic animals after three years growth; does not sap or impoverish the ground, being a strictly atmospheric plant, and will not grow from the seed or by cutting the roots hence will not spread, it grows only to a certain uniform height and therefore does not require trimming, it has been thoroughly and successfully tested in northern climates and does not kill out in the winter time, it serves the double purpose of usefulness and ornamentation, as it is an evergreen and blooms during three months of the year, an invitation is extended to thoroughly test its merits, and every one will be convinced that it possesses all the advantages claimed for it. Messrs. Johnson & Payne are now taking orders for the Tuna Hedge and have met with uniform success. Any one wishing a living growing fence something that will not spread and will be a fence for all time to come should give their orders now and get their fence started this fall.

NOTICE. All Dalles City warrants registered prior to January 6, 1891, will be paid if presented at my office. Interest ceases from and after this date. Dated October 13th, 1892. L. RORDEN, Treas. Dalles City.

Too Much of a Risk. It is not unusual for colds contracted in the fall to hang on all winter. In such cases catarrh or chronic bronchitis are almost sure to result. A fifty cent bottle of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy will cure any cold. Can you afford to risk so much for so small an amount? This remedy is intended especially for bad colds and croup and can always be depended upon. For sale by Blakeley & Houghton, druggists.
