Grover Cleveland, when he was president of this United States vetoed the appropriation for the improvement of the Columbia river. What assurance have we that he would not so obstruct a contract to complete the Cascade canal and locks as to leave the Inland Empire bottled up for another century?

Notice: By Order of the Common Council of Dalles City, made and entered on the 12th day of October, 1892, notice is hereby given that said city council is about to proceed to order and make improvements in streets in said city, as herein after stated, and the cost of such improvement will be levied upon the property adjacent thereto, and said improvement will be made, unless within fourteen days from the final publication of this notice, the owners of two-thirds of the property adjacent thereto, shall file their remonstrance against such improvements as by charter provided.

Notice: The improvement contemplated and about to be made is as follows, to-wit: To improve Washington, Fulton and Laughlin streets in said city, by constructing a sewer of terra-cotta, from the Columbia river at the foot of said Washington street, and running thence south on said Washington street, to the junction of said street with Fulton street, and running thence easterly a long said Fulton street, to the junction of said Fulton street with Laughlin street, and running thence southerly along said Laughlin street, to the alley next south of Alford street, said sewer to be of twelve inch terra-cotta pipe from the point of beginning, above mentioned, to the alley between Fourth and Fifth streets, and of ten inch terra-cotta pipe from said place, to the termination thereof, as above stated, on this 22nd day of October, 1892.

Married with Her Arms All Dough.

A very romantic marriage has taken place in Montgomery county, N. C. A young man obtained the license, secured the preacher, took him immediately to the presence of his intended. He found her in the kitchen making up dough. The young fellow did not give her time to clean her hands and arms, but had the preacher to tie the knot at once. The preacher made quick work of it and sent them on their way rejoicing.-Philadelphia Ledger.

Came Near Being Buried Alive.

After a young woman in Morgan county, Ala., had been pronounced dead last week by four physicians, and was dressed in her burial garments, she suddenly, during the night before the funeral, opened her eyes and sat up in bed to the intense fright of the watchers and the joy of her parents. A few hours later she got up and is now in her usual health.
