A Cholera Scare.

A reported outbreak of cholera at Helmetta, N. J., created much excitement in that vicinity. Investigation showed that the disease was not cholera but a violent dysentery, which is almost as severe and dangerous as cholera. Mr. Walter Willard, a prominent merchant of Jamesburg, two miles from Helmetta. says Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhea Remedy has given great satisfaction in the most severe cases of dysentery. It is certainly one of the best things ever made." For sale by Blakeley & Houghton, druggists.

Notice.

By Order of the Common Council o' Dalles City, made and entered on the 12th day of October, 1852, notice us hereby given that said city council is about to proceed to order and make improvements in streets in said city, as hereinafter stated, and the cost of such improvement will be levied upon the property adjacent thereto, and said improvement will be made, unless within fourteen days from the final publication of this notice, the owners of two-thirds of the property adjacent thereto, shall file their remonstrance against such improvements as by charter provided.

The improvement contemplated and about to be made is assoliows, to wit:

To improve Wa hington, Fulton and Laughlin streets in said city, by constructing a sewer of terra-cotta, from the Columbia river at the foot of said Washington street, and running thence south on said Washington street, and running thence south on said washington street, and running thence easterly a ong said Fulton street, to the junction of said street with Fulton street with Laughlin street, and running thence southerly along said Laughlin street, to the alley next south of Aivord street, said sewer to be of twelve inch terra-cotta pipe from the point of beginning, above mentioned to the alley between Fourth and Fifth streets, and of ten inch terra-cotta pipe from said place, to the termination thereof, as above stated ated this 22d day of October, 1892.

He Stayed Hypnotized.

That hypnotism is a dangerous science, even in skilled hands, was once more demonstrated at Le Bourget, near Paris. A professor of legerdemain, who was giving an entertainment in a cafe, and enjoyed some considerable reputation as a hypnotist, proposed concluding the evening's amusement by an exhibition of his skill. A young man named Raylant volunteered to act as the subject, and after some difficulty was rendered completely unconscious. The professor then performed the usual tricks with him, but when it came to awakening found, to his astonishment, that it was quite impossible to effect it. Raylant was sent home and medical help was summoned, but the doctor could only recall him to conciousness for a few seconds, after which the young man relapsed into an agitated sleep, interrupted at intervals by violent nervous crises. Up to to-day Raylant has only had a few waking moments, during which he complains of excessive weakness and pains in the head. An inquiry has been opened by the police authorities.-Paris Cor.
